Representations of Pain in Art and Visual Culture Maria Pia Di Bella, James Elkins, 2013-06-26 The presentation of bodies in pain has been a major concern in Western art since the time of the Greeks The Christian tradition is closely entwined with such themes from the central images of the Passion to the representations of bloody martyrdoms The remnants of this tradition are evident in contemporary images from Abu Ghraib In the last forty years the body in pain has also emerged as a recurring theme in performance art Recently authors such as Elaine Scarry Susan Sontag and Giorgio Agamben have written about these themes The scholars in this volume add to the discussion analyzing representations of pain in art and the media Their essays are firmly anchored on consideration of the images not on whatever actual pain the subjects suffered At issue is representation before and often apart from events in the world Part One concerns practices in which the appearance of pain is understood as expressive Topics discussed include the strange dynamics of faked pain and real pain contemporary performance art international photojournalism surrealism and Renaissance and Baroque art Part Two concerns representations that cannot be readily assigned to that genealogy the Chinese form of execution known as lingchi popularly the death of a thousand cuts whippings in the Belgian Congo American lynching photographs Boer War concentration camp photographs and recent American capital punishment These examples do not comprise a single alternate genealogy but are united by the absence of an intention to represent pain The book concludes with a roundtable discussion where the authors discuss the ethical implications of viewing such images Between Film, Video, and the Digital Jihoon Kim, 2016-07-14

Encompassing experimental film and video essay film gallery based installation art and digital art Jihoon Kim establishes the concept of hybrid moving images as an array of impure images shaped by the encounters and negotiations between different media while also using it to explore various theoretical issues such as stillness and movement indexicality abstraction materiality afterlives of the celluloid cinema archive memory apparatus and the concept of medium as such Grounding its study in interdisciplinary framework of film studies media studies and contemporary art criticism Between Film Video and the Digital offers a fresh insight on the post media conditions of film and video under the pervasive influences of digital technologies as well as on the crucial roles of media hybridity in the creative processes of giving birth to the emerging forms of the moving image Incorporating in depth readings of recent works by more than thirty artists and filmmakers including Jim Campbell Bill Viola Sam Taylor Johnson David Claerbout Fiona Tan Takeshi Murata Jennifer West Ken Jacobs Christoph Girardet and Matthias Müller Hito Steyerl Lynne Sachs Harun Farocki Doug Aitken Douglas Gordon Stan Douglas Candice Breitz among others the book is the essential scholarly monograph for understanding how digital technologies simultaneously depend on and differ from previous time based media and how this juncture of similarities and differences signals a new regime of the art of the moving image Basic Critical Theory for Photographers Ashley la Grange, 2013-08-06
