The photobook world Paul Ernest Michael Edwards, 2023-02-28 This volume sets out to challenge and ultimately broaden the category of the photobook It critiques the popular art market definition of the photobook as simply a photographer's book proposing instead to show how books and photos come together as collective cultural productions Focusing on North American British and French photobooks from 1920 to the present the chapters revisit canonical works by Claudia Andujar and George Love Mohamed Bourouissa Walker Evans Susan Meiselas and Roland Penrose while also delving into institutional digital and unrealised projects illegal practices DIY communities and the poetic impulse They throw new light on the way that gendered racial or colonial assumptions are resisted Taken as a whole the volume provides a better understanding of how the meaning of a photobook is collectively produced both inside and outside the art market

Photographic Travel Books Danièle Méaux, 2017-07-24 Since early in its history photography has been used by a diversity of travellers whose collected photographs have been compiled into albums But Photographic Travel as a genre of art did not appear before the second half of the twentieth century and had a singular fate and fortune in the US as well as in Europe The initial objective of some itinerant photographers is to make a book their shooting practice is conditioned by this objective as well as their travel experience Their books designed as one coherent whole refer to their wandering experience even though their stories are never completely free from fiction In these books their travels are converged and their subjectivity is revealed It is therefore relevant to call such books made of photographs and possibly words about the travel experience Photographic Travel books comparably to Travel books Danièle Méaux has tackled the task of characterizing this genre
