Under Watchful Eyes By Carter Gregory Ben met Edna in Sydney Australia during the tumultuous time of World War II Ben wishes to join the army at fourteen but his mother insists he becomes a priest causing friction in the home When Ben and Edna run away and spend an innocent day together their mothers become furious and Edna and her family move three thousand miles away to Perth Ben's mother tells him nothing of Edna's whereabouts And Ben becomes desolate Ben is now determined to search for Edna and escape from an oppressive religion which proves to be the same quest As he matures and heads off to school he meets a new crowd some of whom aid him in achieving his goals and others who hinder him the Lord Bishop of New South Wales a denounced theologian a gypsy tarot card reader and her daughter a decorated war hero and newspaper reporter a woman cultivating a garden inside a walled enclosure and the owner of a call girl service who is intent on murdering him Under Watchful Eyes is no ordinary coming of age story A complex morality burns through to the surface As the poet Delmore Schwartz wrote The great value of art is the exercise of an observing faculty able to confer on commonplace experience a universal value and thus restore significance to the life of the individual Slaughter's Hound Declan Burke, 2012-08-15

I glanced up but he'd already jumped a dark blur plummeting wings folded against the drag like some starving hawk out of the noon sun some angel betrayed He punched through the cab's roof so hard he sent metal shearing into the petrol tank All it took was one spark Boom Harry Rigby is right there an eye witness when Finn Hamilton walks out into the big nothing nine stories up but no one wants to believe Finn is just the latest statistic in Ireland's silent epidemic Not Finn's mother Saoirse Hamilton whose property empire is crumbling around her and not Finn's pregnant fiancé Maria or his sister Grainne and especially not Detective Tohill the cop who believes Rigby is a stone cold killer a slaughter's hound with a taste for blood Welcome to Harry Rigby's Sligo where death comes dropping slow Studded with shards of black humour and mordant wit Slaughter's Hound is a gripping noir from one of the most innovative voices in Irish crime fiction Vogue, 1927 Essays For Arousal J.R. The Common Mind Philip Pettit, 1996-04-18 What makes human beings intentional and thinking subjects How does their intentionality and thought connect with their social nature and their communal experience How do the answers to these questions shape the assumptions which it is legitimate to make in social explanation and political evaluation These are the broad ranging issues which Pettit addresses in this novel study The Common Mind argues for an original way of marking off thinking subjects in particular human beings from other intentional systems natural and artificial It holds by the holistic view that human thought requires communal resources while denying that this social connection compromises the autonomy of individuals And in developing the significance of this view of social subjects this holistic individualism it outlines a novel framework for social and political theory Within this framework social theory is allowed to follow any of a number of paths space is found for intentional interpretation and decision theoretic reconstruction for structural explanation and rational choice derivation But political theory is treated less ecumenically The framework raises serious questions about contractarian and atomistic modes of thought and it points the way to a republican rethinking of liberal commitments Black Thunder Arna
