Race In The Global Era African Americans At The Millennium:

Race in the Global Era Clarence Lusane, 1997 This is a provocative accessible collection that examines U S racial barriers boundaries and identities through critiques of constructed marketed and consumed images The Africana Human Condition and Global Dimensions New York African Studies Association. Conference, 2002 A Companion to African-American Studies Jane Anna Gordon, Lewis Gordon, 2008-04-15 A Companion to African American Studies is an exciting and comprehensive re appraisal of the history and future of African American studies Contains original essays by expert contributors in the field of African American Studies Creates a groundbreaking re appraisal of the history and future of the field Includes a series of reflections from those who established African American Studies as a bona fide academic discipline Captures the dynamic interaction of African American Studies with other fields of inquiry Resources in Education , 1998 The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2019-07-24 Contains a general introduction to the discipline featuring classic and pioneering essays that address the history methods issues and exemplary illustrations of research teaching and practice Presenting a diverse collection of landmark essays The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology explores the turn of the century renaissance of practical theology as an academic discipline and shows how the discipline has advanced a steady epistemological insurgency in theology throughout the twentieth and twenty first century The text provides scholars students and ministerial professionals with easy access to original seminal sources that represent major milestones growing edges and useful classificatory rubrics A handy one volume primer to practical theology the book Offers an excellent bird s eye view of the discipline s essential foundational contributions Provides significant introductory overview material helpful in guiding both new and experienced readers to practical theology Includes brief overview introductions before each essay to situate the reading and highlight key contributions and occasional limitations Features essay selections that consider race gender sexuality age and other differences as a critical subtheme The Wiley Blackwell Reader in Practical Theology is an indispensable resource for students faculty and professionals in practical theology and colleagues in related cognate disciplines in theological education and religious studies The Complexity and Progression of Black Representation in Film and Television David L. Moody, 2016-06-02 The Complexity and Progression of Black Representation in Film and Television examines the intricacies of race representation Black masculinity sexuality class and color in American cinema and television Black images on the silver screen date back to the silent film era yet these films and television programs presented disturbing images of African American culture and regrettably many early films and small screen programs portrayed Black characters in demeaning and stereotypical roles In order to fully analyze the roles of Black actors and actresses in film and television Moody addresses the following issues the historical significance of the term race films female Black identities and constructs queerness and Black masculinity Black male identities and Black buffoonery in film and television The Hustle Doug Merlino, 2010-12-21 The experiment was dreamed up by two fathers one white one black What would happen they wondered if they mixed white players from an elite Seattle private school famous for alums such as Microsoft's Bill Gates and black kids from the inner city on a basketball team Wouldn't exposure to privilege give the black kids a chance at better opportunities Wouldn't it open the eyes of the white kids to a different side of life The 1986 season would be the laboratory Out in the real world hip hop was going mainstream Larry Bird and Magic Johnson ruled the NBA and Ronald Reagan was president In Seattle the team's season unfolded like a perfectly scripted sports movie the ragtag group of boys became friends and gelled together to win the league championship The experiment was deemed a success But was it How did crossing lines of class race and wealth affect the lives of these ten boys Two decades later Doug Merlino who played on the team returned to find his teammates His search ranges from a prison cell to a hedge fund office street corners to a shack in rural Oregon a Pentecostal church to the records of a brutal murder The result is a complex gripping and at times unsettling story An instant classic in the vein of Michael Apted's Up series The Hustle tells the stories of ten teammates set before a background of sweeping social and economic change capturing the ways race money and opportunity shape our lives A tale both personal and public The Hustle is the story a disparate group of men finding or not finding a place in America Social Death Lisa Marie

Cacho, 2012-01-01 Winner of the 2013 John Hope Franklin Book Prize presented by the American Studies Association Social Death tackles one of the core paradoxes of social justice struggles and scholarship that the battle to end oppression shares the moral grammar that structures exploitation and sanctions state violence Lisa Marie Cacho forcefully argues that the demands for personhood for those who in the eyes of society have little value depend on capitalist and heteropatriarchal measures of worth With poignant case studies Cacho illustrates that our very understanding of personhood is premised upon the unchallenged devaluation of criminalized populations of color Hence the reliance of rights based politics on notions of who is and is not a deserving member of society inadvertently replicates the logic that creates and normalizes states of social and literal death Her understanding of inalienable rights and personhood provides us the much needed comparative analytical and ethical tools to understand the racialized and nationalized tensions between racial groups Driven by a radical relentless critique Social Death challenges us to imagine a heretofore unthinkable politics and ethics that do not rest on neoliberal arguments about worth but rather emerge from the insurgent experiences of those negated persons who do not live by the norms that determine the productive patriotic law abiding and family oriented subject Ralph Johnson Bunche

Beverly Lindsay, 2024-03-18 Nobel Peace Prize winner Ralph Johnson Bunche 1904-71 was one of the twentieth century's foremost diplomats and intellectuals In the wake of centennial celebrations of his birth leading scholars and diplomats assess Bunche's historical importance and enduring impact on higher education public policy and international politics Their essays reveal not only the breadth of Bunche's influence such as his United Nations work to broker peace during times of civil war in Africa the Middle East and Asia but also the depth of his intellectual perspectives on race civil rights higher education and international law Probing his publications speeches and public policy initiatives the volume offers telling insights into the critical roles of universities public intellectuals and diplomats in working together to find solutions to domestic and international problems through public and scholarly engagement In this way the volume highlights the very connections that Bunche exhibited as an academic intellectual and diplomat Contributors include Lorenzo DuBois Baber John Hope Franklin Jonathan Scott Holloway Charles P Henry Ben Keppel Beverly Lindsay Princeton Lyman Edwin Smith and Hanes Walton Jr

The State of Native America M. Annette Jaimes,1992 Essays by Native American authors and activity on contemporary Native issues including the quincentenary Mass Media James B. Martin,2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes Mapping Yorùbá Networks Kamari Maxine Clarke,2004-07-12 Ethnographic study of life and ritual in an African American Yor b revivalist community in South Carolina and its complex relation to Nigerian Yor b identity Literary Black Power in the Caribbean Rita Keresztesi,2020-11-11 Literary Black Power in the Caribbean focuses on the Black Power movement in the anglophone Caribbean as represented and critically debated in literary texts music and film This volume is groundbreaking in its focus on the creative arts and artists in their evaluations of and insights on the relevance of the Black Power message across the region The author takes a cultural studies approach to bring together the political with the aesthetic enriching an already fertile debate on the era and the subject of Black Power in the Caribbean region The chapters discuss various aspects of Black Power in the Caribbean on the pages of journals and magazines at contemporary conferences that radicalized academia to join forces with communities in fiction and essays by writers and intellectuals in calypso and reggae music and in the first films produced in the Caribbean Produced at the 50th anniversary of the 1970 Black Power Revolution in Port of Spain Trinidad this timely book will be of interest to students and academics focusing on Black Power Caribbean literary and cultural studies African diaspora and Global South radical political and cultural theory The State of Asian America Karin Aguilar-San Juan,1994 Every essay in the State of Asian America brings the reader to a new plateau of understanding All the essays are thought provoking disturbing and enlightening Every writer is worth the read Korean QuarterlyThis is a series of essays that give voice to contemporary Asian American activism offering thoughtful radical analyses on a range of pressing issues including the 1992 Los Angeles uprising the protest against the Broadway musical Miss Saigon anti Asian and domestic violence feminism neo conservatism art and politics the social construction of race and the politics of Asian American Studies Close Kin and Distant Relatives Susana M. Morris,2014-02-04 The black family in the United States and the Caribbean often holds contradictory and competing meanings in public discourse on the one hand it is a site of love strength and support on the other hand it is a site of pathology brokenness and dysfunction that has frequently called forth an emphasis on conventional respectability if stability and social approval are to be achieved Looking at the ways in which contemporary African American and black Caribbean women writers conceptualize the black family Susana Morris finds a discernible tradition that challenges the politics of respectability by arguing that it obfuscates the problematic nature of conventional understandings of family and has damaging effects as a survival strategy for blacks The author draws on African American studies black feminist theory cultural studies and women s studies to examine the work of Paule Marshall Jamaica Kincaid Edwidge Danticat and Sapphire showing how their novels engage the connection between respectability and ambivalence These writers advocate instead for a transgressive understanding of affinity and propose an ethic of community support and accountability that calls for mutual affection affirmation loyalty and respect At the core of these transgressive family systems Morris reveals is a connection to African diasporic cultural rites such as dance storytelling and music that help the fictional characters to establish familial connections

The Culture of Terrorism Noam Chomsky,1988 This scathing critique of U S political culture is a brilliant analysis of the Iran Contra scandal Chomsky offers a message of hope reminding us resistance is possible Race in the Global Era Clarence Lusane,1997 This is a provocative accessible collection that examines U S racial barriers boundaries and identities through critiques of constructed marketed and consumed images Earth for Sale Brian Tokar,1997 Illuminating Earth of Sale is a fantastic primer for those looking for some historical perspectives on the environmental movement The Ecologist

The Black Panther Party (reconsidered) Charles Earl Jones,1998 This new collection of essays contributed by scholars and former Panthers is a ground breaking work that offers thought provoking and pertinent observations about the many facets of the Party By placing the perspectives of participants and scholars side by side Dr Jones presents an insider view and initiates a vital dialogue that is absent from most historical studies Black Sexual Politics Patricia Hill Collins,2004-08-02 In Black Sexual Politics one of America s most influential writers on race and gender explores how images of Black sexuality have been used to maintain the color line and how they threaten to spread a new brand of racism around the world today
