Reading Narrative Fiction:

Literary Fiction Geir Farner, 2014-01-30 Insofar as literary theory has addressed the issue of literature as a means of communication and the function of literary fiction opinions have been sharply divided indicating that the elementary foundations of literary theory and criticism still need clarifying Many of the classical problems that literary theory has been grappling with from Aristotle to our time are still waiting for a satisfactory solution Based on a new cognitive model of literature as communication Farner systematically explains how literary fiction works providing new solutions to a wide range of literary issues like intention function evaluation delimitation of the literary work as such fictionality suspense and the roles of author and narrator along with such narratological problems as voice point of view and duration Covering a wide range of literary issues central to literary theory offering new theories while also summarising the field as it stands Literary Fiction will be a valuable guide and resource for students and scholars of the theory of literature Reading Network

Fiction David Ciccoricco, 2007-11-25 Ciccoricco analyzes innovative developments in network fiction from first generation writers Michael Joyce Twilight a symphony 1997 and Stuart Moulthrop Victory Garden 1991 through Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter 2000 an acclaimed example of digital literature in its latter instantiations on the Web Each investigation demonstrates not only what the digital environment might mean for narrative theory but also the ability of network fictions to sustain a mode of reading that might arguably be called literary BOOK JACKET An Introduction to Narratology ,

Empathy and the Strangeness of Fiction Maria C. Scott, 2020-03-02 Explores how and why narrative fiction engages empathy including Theory of Mind Offers a broad overview of current scientific work on the effects of fiction reading on empathy including Theory of Mind Provides an original intervention in the field of literary theory centring on the reflexive properties of the fictional stranger Includes stand alone close readings of three novels by important French authors This book studies recent psychological findings which suggest that reading fiction cultivates empathy encouraging us to be critically reflective suspicious readers as well as participatory naïve readers Scott draws on literary theory and close readings to argue that engagement with fictional stories also teaches us to resist uncritical forms of empathy and reminds us of the limitations of our ability to understand other people The book treats figures of the stranger in Balzac's La Fille aux yeux d'or Stendhal's Le Rouge et le Noir and Sand's Indiana as emblematic of the strangeness of narrative fiction both drawing us in and keeping us at a distance Why We Read Fiction Lisa Zunshine, 2006 Why We Read Fiction offers a lucid overview of the most exciting area of research in contemporary cognitive psychology known as Theory of Mind and discusses its implications for literary studies It covers a broad range of fictional narratives from Richardson's Clarissa Dostoyevski's Crime and Punishment and Austen's Pride and Prejudice to Woolf's Mrs Dalloway Nabokov's Lolita and Hammett's The Maltese Falcon Zunshine's surprising new interpretations of well known literary texts and popular cultural representations constantly prod her readers to rethink their own interest in fictional narrative Written for a general audience this study provides a jargon free introduction to the rapidly growing interdisciplinary field known as cognitive approaches to literature and culture

Experimental Approaches to Pragmatics Valentina Cuccio,Pietro Robert Perconti,Gerard Steen,Yury Y. Shtyrov,Yan Huang,2022-05-06 Rhetorical Narratology Michael S. Kearns,1999-01-01 In Rhetorical Narratology Michael Kearns redresses this one sidedness by combining traditional narratology s tools for analyzing texts with rhetoric s tools for analyzing audiences Guiding Kearns s approach is speech act theory which in emphasizing the rule governed context in which any text is produced and received provides the means for describing how the structures of narrative may affect certain audiences in certain ways The central question that rhetorical narratology attempts to answer is how do the various narrative elements isolated by narratologists actually work on readers BOOK JACKET De stralende lezer ,2009 Bundel wetenschappelijke artikelen deels Engelstalig over het belang van lezen en hoe lezen kan worden toegepast in onderwijs en opvoeding Voor vakcollecties jeugdliteratuur Proust and Emotion Inge Crosman Wimmers,2003-01-01 In Proust and Emotion Inge Crosman Wimmers proposes a new approach to A la recherche du temps perdu that centres on the role of affect Through close reading of the hero narrator s personal history the author shows how emotional paradigms especially separation anxiety involuntary memory and other compelling impressions give focus and structure to Proust s novel Drawing on reader oriented and emotion theories she shows how affect commands the attention of the motivated reader and is crucial to the process of self understanding for both the narrator and the reader This is the first extensive study in English to take fully into consideration the drafts esquisses published in the new Pl iade edition of the novel the Mauriac edition of Albertine disparue and material from the unpublished Proust manuscripts all of which shed further light on the importance of affect in A la recherche Proust and Emotion will appeal to readers interested in an approach to Proust that combines insights from philosophy psychology and literary aesthetics and in a poetics of reading that pays particular attention to emotion

In Defense of Reading Sarah E. Worth, 2017-02-08 Why should we read We assume that reading is good for us but often we cannot articulate exactly what it does for us In this fascinating book Sarah Worth addresses from a philosophical perspective the many ways in which reading benefits us morally socially and cognitively Worth leads her readers through the subtle questions of the ways in which we understand fiction nonfiction and the overlap and blending of other genre distinctions Ultimately she argues that reading hearing and telling well told stories is of the utmost importance in developing a healthy sense of personal identity a greater sense of narrative coherence and an increased ability to make different kinds of inferences Engaging classical philosophical questions in the contemporary landscape of educational literacy and the inclusion of fiction in a classroom curriculum Worth demonstrates how our hyper focus on genre distinctions moves us away from a real engagement with narrative understanding and narrative comprehension
