Reading Traditions Journeys Focus On Mysteries:

Journey into the Great Mystery Anita Runyan, 2014-04 Journey into the Great Mystery is the true story of Anita Runyan's midlife foray into mystical realms as she transforms from skeptic to spiritual seeker. Her journey begins with the study of core teachings from mystics of all the great religions and continues with various encounters with sacred energies. This fascinating book describes Runyan's major kundalini opening and its ensuing effect on her life. Her inner search for truth led her to adventures with light bodies, shamans, spiritual guides, orbs, and more. She traveled around the world to sacred sites including those in Egypt, Brazil, Africa, Chile, Easter Island, Hawaii, and the Aleutian Islands, and these outer explorations served to illuminate and deepen her knowledge of her complex inner world and inspired life-changing revelations. Traditions, 2005

Teaching World History as Mystery Jack Zevin, David Gerwin, 2010-12-07 This text presents a philosophy, methodology, and examples for world history instruction based on inquiry and problem-solving methods that promote reasoning and judgment and restore a sense of imagination and participation to classroom learning. Reading Still Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Lynne (E.F.) McKechnie, Paulette M. Rothbauer, 2018-03-01 Drawing on scholarly research findings, this book presents a cogent case that librarians can use to work towards prioritization of reading in libraries and in schools. Reading is more important than it has ever been; recent research on reading such as PEW reports and Scholastic's Kids and Family Reading Report proves that fact. This new edition of Reading Matters provides powerful evidence that can be used to justify the establishment, maintenance, and growth of pleasure reading collections, both fiction and nonfiction, and of readers advisory services. The authors assert that reading should be woven into the majority of library activities: reference collection building, provision of leisure materials, readers advisory services, storytelling, and story time programs, adult literacy programs, and more. This edition also addresses emergent areas of interest such as e-reading, e-writing, and e-publishing; multiple literacies; visual texts; the ascendancy of young adult fiction and fan fiction. A new chapter addresses special communities of YA readers. The book will help library administrators and personnel convey the importance of reading to grant funding agencies, stakeholders, and the public at large. LIS faculty who wish to establish and maintain courses in readers advisory will find it of particular interest. Cosmic Mysteries Carol E. Parrish-Harra, 2019-03-05 Cosmic Mysteries By Carol E. Parrish-Harra. In her newest book Cosmic Mysteries, author Carol E. Parrish-Harra provides deep insights for the exploration of the inner path that can only be detailed by the one who has gleaned awareness through a personal journal. Carol's work has long been noted for clarity and the details of the path dreamed of by many and traveled by the few. Mysticism within the Occult Tradition is held close, realizing how delicately balanced it is. With many years of esoteric studies, Carol shares her understanding of invisible qualities to be explored and the tests each element—Fire, Air, Water, and Earth—presents to be mastered as they are integrated into human life. The importance of daily mindfulness prepares us to move ourselves into the Christ Mind brought about by both our choices and Karma as we go forward with little awareness in life. Confronting the Mystery of God Gaspar Martinez, 2002-05-13 A highly insightful study of three major movements in Roman Catholic theology over the past thirty years This fascinating work of theological scholarship offers an exceptionally broad scope and powerfully unifying theme Gaspar Martinez first offers penetrating interpretations of three major contemporary theologians working on three continents in quite dissimilar historical cultural social and economic situations Then he goes on to illustrate how Johannes Metz Gustavo GutiTrrez and David Tracy each had a tensive ongoing relationship to the mid twentieth century theologians and movements that formed them Karl Rahner nouvelle theologie and Bernard Lonergan respectively Martinez brilliantly contextualizes each of these thinkers In broad strokes he sketches postwar Germany postcolonial Peru and the American century and shows how each man was formed by his era He also examines the lines of influence and relationship between these theologians and some of their nontheological contemporaries Metz and Adorno Bloch and Benjamin GutiTrrez and Paulo Freire JosT Carlos Mariategui and the novelist JosT Marfa Arguedas and Tracy and thinkers from Eliade and Ricoeur to Gadamer and Derrida Martinez convincingly illustrates how each of these theologians in recent years has focused more directly on the mystery of God entailing greater emphasis on spirituality and mysticism with the consequence that the more properly theological their theologies have become the more they have become negative theologies

In the Light of a Blessed Tree Timothy J. Gianotti, 2011-08-01 In the light of A Blessed Tree presents an absolutely original experientially textured introduction to Islamic belief practice and history for both the intrigued newcomer as well as for those who already possess some basic literacy in Islam Slowly crafted over the years following the terror attacks of September 11 2001 this modest book speaks with scholarly integrity but in an everyday voice full of real life narratives that illuminate the beliefs practices and histories described More it brings the reader in touch with the psychological social and cultural forces that shape the way we come to the question of Islam in a wounded world still grappling with the trauma of 9 11 and very much still in a state of war For these and other reasons In the Light of a Blessed Tree speaks to contemporary images and realities even as it walks through the ancient origins of Islam

The "Mystery of History", its Functionalisation and Disintegration in Graham Swift's "Waterland" Thorben Höppner, 2023-05-02 Seminar paper from the year 2021 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 0 language English abstract This paper investigates how the ambivalent perhaps even ambiguous definition of historia relates to the representation of history in the novel and how this representation again relates to its functionalisation by Tom Crick To answer this question this paper will primarily work with Linda Hutcheon's notion of historiographic metafiction while also pointing out similarities to the reading of Waterland as a trauma narrative In taking a closer look at the protagonist narrator himself this paper argues that the protection from chaos and disorder which Landow addresses is only achieved through a form of historical escapism Superficially speaking Graham Swift's Waterland is a novel about a history teacher who having lost his job forsakes the formal teaching of history and embarks on an extracurricular journey into his own past However upon closer examination Waterland is more than that a novel about history itself It explores the whole mystery of history as Swift himself puts it in the introduction to the novel Waterland xv Thus it is only logical that the novel prefaces its narrative with an insightful epigraph a dictionary definition of the Latin word historia from which the English word history originates As can be seen above however said definition is ambivalent it is inherently polysemantic as Judith Ryan notes James Acheson has likewise pointed out that the fact that historia can mean either history or fiction is significant for the historian and the writer of fiction must deal with similar problems in writing about the past The natural tendency of language towards proliferation of its meaning aside the epigraph leaves us with a very ambivalent concept of history which the narrative of Waterland in its dealing with history then builds on Since such a prominent theme in Waterland the novel s representation of history has been thoroughly examined in secondary literature particularly against the theoretical background of what Linda Hutcheon has identified as historiographic metafiction
