Scriptures, Volume 2 Anthony J. Blasi,2017-04-13 Sociologist Anthony Blasi analyzes early Christianity using multiple social scientific theories including those of Max Weber Georg Simmel Karl Marx Antonio Gramsci Max Scheler Alfred Schutz and contemporary theorists He investigates the canonical New Testament books as representative of early Christianity a sample based on usage and he takes the books in the chronological order in which they were written The result is a series of stills that depict the movement at different stages in its development His approaches often neglected in New Testament studies include such sociological subfields as sect theory the routinization of charisma conflict stratification theory stigma the sociology of knowledge new religions the sociology of secrecy marginality liminality syncretism the social role of intellectuals the poor person as a type the sick role degradation ceremonies populism the sociology of migration the sociology of time mergers the sociology of law and the sociology of written communication Needing to treat the New Testament text as social data Blasi uses his background in biblical studies and a review of a vast literature to establish the chronology of the compositions of the New Testament books and to present the data in a new translation that is accessible to non specialists

From Crisis to Christ Paul N. Anderson,2014-11-04 New valuable understandings of the historical and religious contexts of New Testament writings continue to emerge This accessibly written introduction examines over two dozen such crises and how the biblical text addresses reflects and embodies them From the ministry of Jesus to the rise and propagation of the Christian movement to the epistles of Paul and other leaders to a vision of God s final cosmic victory the New Testament books are succinctly introduced in literary historical and theological perspective Designed for optimal classroom use each chapter offers four primary features a definition and exploration of relevant contextual crises b connections with the biblical writings c primary features of the biblical narrative and d an application section that engages the student directly and invites thoughtful response A commentary, critical and explanatory, on the Old and New Testaments, by R.
