Readings At The Edge Of Literature:

Readings at the Edge of Literature Myra Jehlen, 2002-06 Myra Jehlen's aim in these essays is to read for what she calls the edge of literature the point at which writing seems unable to say more which is also for Jehlen the threshold of the real It is here she argues that the central paradoxes of the American project become clear self reliance and responsibility universal equality and the pursuit of empire writing from the heart and representing shared values and ideas Developing these paradoxes to their utmost tension American writers often produce penetrating critiques of American society without puncturing its basic myths For instance Mark Twain's Pudd'n head Wilson begins as a slashing satire of racism only to conclude by demonstrating that even an invisible portion of black blood can make a man a murderer Throughout these essays Jehlen demonstrates the crucial role that the process of writing itself plays in unfolding these paradoxes whether in the form of novels by Harriet Beecher Stowe and Virginia Woolf the histories of Captain John Smith or even a work of architecture such as the Guggenheim museum in Bilbao

Reading on the Edge Cyra E. Johnson-Roullier, 2000-05-18 Reading on the Edge explores the notion of multiple cultural identity and exile in the work of Marcel Proust James Joyce and James Baldwin Focusing on the cultural politics of modernism through the prism of cultural theory the book reconceives each author's work while at the same time redrawing modernism's traditionally Eurocentric disciplinary boundaries The book therefore has wide implications for our understanding of modernism and the modernist canon

The Early Modern Global South in Print Sandra Young, 2016-03-23 Early modern geographers and compilers of travel narratives drew on a lexicon derived from cartography's seemingly unchanging coordinates to explain human diversity Sandra Young's inquiry into the partisan knowledge practices of early modernity brings to light the emergence of the early modern global south Young proposes a new set of terms with which to understand the racialized imaginary inscribed in the scholarly texts that presented the peoples of the south as objects of an inquiring gaze from the north Through maps images and even textual formatting equivalences were established between new worlds many of them long known to European explorers she argues in terms that made explicit the divide between north and south This book takes seriously the role of form in shaping meaning and its ideological consequences Young examines in turn the representational methodologies or artes deployed in mapping the whole world illustrating creating charts for navigation noting down observations collecting and cataloguing curiosities reporting events formatting materials and editing and translating old sources By tracking these methodologies in the lines of beauty and evidence on the page we can see how early modern producers of knowledge were able to attribute alterity to the southern climes of an increasingly complex world while securing their own place within it

 Tzu,Gogol,2023-11-16 Summertime Reading List 180 Books You Need to Read Vol I is a sweeping anthology that brings together a remarkable collection of literary giants from various epochs and styles presenting a testament to the diversity and richness of global literature The collection captures the essence of human experience from the imaginative voyages of Jules Verne and the whimsical journeys of Lewis Carroll to the psychological depths of Sigmund Freud and the profound social commentaries of Charles Dickens Each piece carefully selected for its enduring impact and literary merit offers a unique window into the human condition making this anthology an indispensable resource for understanding the evolution of narrative art through poetic philosophical and dramatic forms The contributing authors represent some of the most influential voices across the centuries writers who have shaped literary movements and cultural dialogues worldwide From the existential explorations of Dostoevsky and the pioneering works of Jane Austen to the transcendental reflections of Thoreau and the revolutionary poetics of Walt Whitman this anthology captures a vast range of perspectives Under the curatorial eye of the editors these works converge to reflect on societal norms philosophical inquiries and the endless complexities of life inviting readers to engage with each piece not just as literature but as cultural artefacts offering insights into their respective historical contexts This expansive volume offers readers not only a chance to immerse themselves in the masterful storytelling of history's literary titans but also provides an educational journey through multiple literary landscapes and ideologies. Summertime Reading List: 180 Books You Need to Read serves as both a passport to explore diverse literary traditions and a catalyst for intellectual discussion, making it a perfect companion for scholars, students, and lovers of literature alike.
