Islam in Indonesian Foreign Policy Rizal Sukma, 2004-03 This companion volume to the highly successful Islam in Malaysian Foreign Policy explores the extent to which foreign policy in the world's largest Muslim nation has been influenced by Islamic considerations

Gender and Power in Indonesian Islam Bianca J. Smith, Mark Woodward, 2013-09-23 The traditional Islamic boarding schools known as pesantren are crucial centres of Muslim learning and culture within Indonesia but their cultural significance has been underexplored This book is the first to explore understandings of gender and Islam in pesantren and Sufi orders in Indonesia By considering these distinct but related Muslim gender cultures in Java Lombok and Aceh the book examines the broader function of pesantren as a force for both redefining existing modes of Muslim subjectivity and cultivating new ones It demonstrates how as Muslim women rise to positions of power and authority in this patriarchal domain they challenge and negotiate normative Muslim patriarchy while establishing their own Muslim authenticity The book goes on to question the comparison of Indonesian Islam with the Arab Middle East challenging the adoption of expatriate and diasporic Middle Eastern Muslim feminist discourses and secular western feminist analyses in Indonesian contexts Based on extensive fieldwork the book explores configurations of female leadership power feminisms and sexuality to reveal multiple Muslim selves in pesantren and Sufi orders not only as centres of learning but also as social spaces in which the interplay of gender politics status power and piety shape the course of life

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 21:4 Carool Kersten,Ahmad F. Yousif,Roberto Marín-Guzmán, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS is an interdisciplinary journal that publishes a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world anthropology economics history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Submissions are subject to a blind peer review process Islam and the Making of the Nation Chiara Formichi,2012-06-30 A testament to the relevance of historical research in understanding contemporary politics Islam and the Making of the Nation guides the reader through the contingencies of the past that have led to the transformation of a nationalist leader into a separatist rebel and a martyr while at the same time shaping the public perception of political Islam and strengthening the position of the Pancasila in contemporary Indonesia International History of the Twentieth Century and Beyond Antony Best,Jussi Hanhimäki,Joseph A. Maiolo,Kirsten E. Schulze,2008-06-03 This major global history of the twentieth century is written by four prominent international historians for first year undergraduate level and upward Using their thematic and regional expertise the authors cover events in Europe Asia the Middle East Africa and the Americas from the last century and beyond Among the areas this book covers are the decline of European hegemony over the international order the diffusion of power to the two superpowers the rise of newly independent states in Asia and Africa the course and consequences of the major global conflicts of the twentieth century This second edition is thoroughly updated and includes extended coverage of European integration the rise of supra governmental organizations and the global War on Terror A support website provides supplementary exercises questions and tutor guidance Reading Asia Frans Huskin,Dick van der Meij,2013-10-11 This volume presents a wide variety of articles in the broad field of Asian Studies covering the latest results of research within the social sciences and the humanities reflecting the rich diversity within these areas of research The contributions stem from research carried out by scholars who are or have been affiliated with the International Institute for Asian Studies Leiden Amsterdam Modern Trends in Islamic Theological Discourse in 20th Century Indonesia Fauzan Saleh,2001-12-01 Aiming to trace the development of Islamic theological discourse in Indonesia from the early 1900s to the end of the 20th century the author focusses on how modernist Muslims have constructed their theological thought throughout the century which in turn reflects their religious understanding in response to the particular demands of their age The theological thought constructed so far signifies a continuum of progress developing from one stage to the next Implicitly this progress also indicates the improvement of

Indonesian Muslims understanding of their own religion which may suggest the betterment of their commitment to doctrinal beliefs and religious practices Therefore this study will also examine the ways in which Indonesian Islam noticeably grows more orthodox through these forms of religious commitment Drawing upon an Indonesian term the growth of orthodox Islam is known as the santri cultural expansion which has been characterized by the vertical and horizontal mobility of devout Muslims in political cultural and economic enterprises A discussion of the theological thought underlying that santri cultural expansion is also included

Negotiating Malay Identities in Singapore Rizwana Abdul Azeez, 2016-03-01 Singapore Malays subscribe to mostly traditional rather than modern interpretations of Islam Singapore state officials however wish to curb the challenges such interpretations bring to the country's political social educational and economic domains Thus these officials launched a programme to socially engineer modern Muslim identities amongst Singapore Malays in 2003 which is ongoing Negotiating Muslim Identities documents a variety of ethnographic encounters that point to the power struggles surrounding two basic and very different ways of living While the Singapore state has gained some successes for its project it has also faced significant and multiple setbacks Amongst them state officials have had to contend with traditional Islamic authority that Malay elders carry and who cannot be ignored because these elders are time entrenched authority figures in their community One of the book's significant contributions is that it documents how Singapore an avowedly secular state has now turned to Islam as a tool for governance Just as significant are the insights the study provides on another aspect of Singapore state governance one usually described as authoritarian The book demonstrates that even authoritarian states can face serious obstacles in the face of religion's influence over its followers The academic literature on Singapore Malays is sparse this work not only fills gaps in the existing academic literature but provides new and original research data Its data rich ethnographic and anthropological approach show the complexities of Malay and Muslim social contexts and complements other works that examine Southeast Asian states management of Islam which has attracted much scholarship given the global interest in Islam based politics and social organisation

From Isfahan to Ayutthaya Muhammad Ismail Marcinkowski, 2005 Ayutthaya was known among 17th century foreign mariners under the Persian epithet of Shahr e Nav Utilising parts of the Ship of Sulayman and works by European explorers the writer unfolds the circumstances influences and impact resulting from contacts between the Safavid and Siamese Kingdoms and the visible effects in present day Thailand

National Security Seminar: Outlines and Reading Lists Joint Chiefs of Staff,

Law and Development and the Global Discourses of Legal Transfers John Gillespie, Pip Nicholson, 2012-06-28 This volume of essays contributes to the understanding of global law reform by questioning the assumption in law and development theory that laws fail to transfer because of shortcomings in project design and implementation It brings together leading scholars who demonstrate that a synthesis of law and development comparative law and regulatory perspectives disciplines which to date have remained intellectually isolated from each other can produce a more nuanced understanding about development failures Arguing for a refocusing of the analysis onto the social demand for legal transfers and drawing on empirically rich case studies contributors explore what recipients in developing countries think about global legal reforms This analytical focus generates insights into how key actors in developing countries understand global law reforms and how to better predict how legal reforms are likely to play out in recipient countries

Malay Political Leadership Tony Shome, 2004-08-02 This book demonstrates how particular values and notions of leadership which underpinned traditional Malay leadership have played a crucial role in the political evolution of the modern Malaysian nation The author discusses the nature of Malay notions of leadership and considers this throughout the Malay world at the local as well as at the national level and goes on to describe and analyse leadership from pre independence leadership in the colonial period through the rule of Malaysia's four prime ministers He draws on anthropology psychology and political and economic history to show how Malay leaders have kept within the established track of the Malay value system responding in particular to the expectation of their people to provide a sense of national identity and unity against the complex background of the Malaysian mosaic while addressing the needs of the wider multi ethnic community Throughout the evolutionary development of Malay leadership symbolisms for the perpetuation of leadership veneration persisted in its institutions and in the sublime power of the sultans The Malay case offers one of the most remarkable studies of leadership in its attempt to maintain indigenous primacy in a large multi racial environment subscribing to western democracy for its governance while retaining conservative Islamic values This book is a significant contribution to the understanding of the evolution of leadership It begins with an explanation of the early Malay World belief system and progresses to the period of colonization and nationalism It then follows through the dynamics of modern politics encapsulating the biographical profiles of all Malaysia's Prime Ministers Tunku Razak Hussein and Mahathir in three aspects national unity the economy and foreign affairs The analysis of Mahathir's leadership extends into the new millennium This is the only book with biographical profiles of all of Malaysia's Prime Ministers This book will be of interest to students academics politicians foreign affairs specialists and any reader interested in leadership studies and about Malaysia's political and economic history Presentation Outlines and Reading List, 1968

Elite Malay Polygamy Miriam Koktvedgaard Zeitzen, 2018-09-14 Elite Malay women's polygamy narratives are multiple and varied and their sentiments regarding the practice are conflicted as they are often torn between personal and religious convictions This volume explores the ways in which this increasingly prominent practice impacts Malay gender relations As Muslims elite Malay women may be forced to accept polygamy but they mostly condemn it as women and wives as it forces them to manage their lives and loves under the threat of polygamy from a husband able to marry another woman without their knowledge or consent a husband that is married but available
