Sharing the Journey Robert Wuthnow, 1996-07-01. A look at how support groups have affected American society argues that although support groups provide a warmth and security that holds society together they can lead to an unhealthy self absorption and a trivialized sense of what is sacred.

Reading African American Autobiography Eric D. Lamore, 2017-01-10. From the 1760s to Barack Obama this collection offers fresh looks at classic African American life narratives, highlights neglected African American lives, texts and genres and discusses the diverse outpouring of twenty first century memoirs.

Identity, Social Class and Learning in the 'Bottom' Reading Group Jess Anderson, 2025-02-28. The common practice of ability grouped reading in UK schools often termed guided reading influences children's sense of identity, feelings and progress as readers. Drawing on a rich ethnographic study of three primary classrooms this book reopens a critical inquiry into ability grouped reading that has been quiet since the 1990s when guided reading in literacy education became established practice in the UK and the US. Through the lens of children's agency in accommodating, resisting and at times transforming such reading pedagogy the book shows how readers are shaped by ability grouped reading and by the more egalitarian reading pedagogies introduced in the study. Children's individual and collective experiences are brought to life through extended narratives that attend as closely to gesture posture visage silences and prosody of speech as to spoken words The book ends with a provocation how literacy pedagogy might change if reflexive noticing and dismantling of hierarchies become the compass of pedagogical change This demands attention to structural inequalities around race gender and class and a turn towards deep listening to children As well as being a valuable read for scholars of the sociology of childhood and education it should appeal to anyone concerned with making education more equitable including teachers school leaders parents carers and policymakers Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1972 Process Skills in Community Organizations Jerry W. Robinson,Roy A. Clifford,1972 Inside Reading Second Edition: Student Book Level 2 Arline Burgmeier,2020-02-07 Inside Reading Second Edition is a five level academic reading series that develops students reading skills and teaches key academic vocabulary from the Academic Word List American Book Publishing Record ,1979 Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1979 The Bible Reading of Young Evangelicals Ruth H. Perrin,2016-10-04 Young evangelicals in Britain often find themselves at odds with an increasingly secular society and yet the tradition persists and in some places flourishes Sociological studies into the faith of this demographic group are rare yet there is much to be explored as to how their faith functions and how it compares to other groups globally Similarly given the privilege evangelicals afford the biblical text how young believers engage with the ancient Scriptures they understand to be the word of God is particularly significant This work addresses that core question How do young evangelicals make sense of the Bible today Based on qualitative data gathered from three diverse evangelical churches it compares the reading priorities ordinary hermeneutics and theological concerns of young adults Presenting age related focus groups with challenging biblical narratives the study compares strategies for negotiating the texts based on age gender and churchmanship It provides a unique insight into the realities of Bible reading and the faith of Generation Y and gives food for thought not only to those with scholarly interests but also those with a pastoral concern to shape and sustain the Christian faith of young adults in Britain and beyond
