A Poetics of Church Jennifer Reek, 2017-09-25 This innovative book aims to create a poetics of Church and a religious imaginary as alternatives to more institutional and conventional ways of thinking and of being Church Structured as a spiritual and literary journey the work moves from models of the institutional Catholic Church into more radical and ambiguous textual spaces which the author creates by bringing together an unorthodox group of thinkers referred to as poet companions the 16th century founder of the Society of Jesus Ignatius of Loyola the French thinkers Gaston Bachelard and Hélène Cixous the French poet Yves Bonnefoy and the English playwright Dennis Potter Inspired especially by the reading and writing practices of Cixous the author attempts to exemplify Cixous notion of critique of masculine writing that suggests new ways of seeing and relating The project's uniting of Ignatian spirituality with postmodern thinking and its concern with creating new theological literary and spiritual spaces for women both coincide and contrast with Pope Francis's pastoral and reformist tendencies which have neglected to adequately address the marginalisation of women in the Church As Francis has called for a theology of women of which there are of course many to draw from this volume will be a timely contribution with a unique interdisciplinary approach

A Practical Reader in Contemporary Literary Theory Peter Brooker, Peter Widdowson, 2014-05-22 This introduction to practicing literary theory is a reader consisting of extracts from critical analyses largely by 20th century Anglo American literary critics set around major literary texts that undergraduate students are known to be familiar with It is specifically targeted to present literary criticism through practical examples of essays by literary theorists themselves on texts both within and outside the literary canon Four example essays are included for each author text presented

How Close Reading Made Us Yael Segalovitz, 2024-09-01 Shows how the method of close reading traveled from the United States to Brazil and Israel revealing its profound impact on global modernisms and reframing the lasting significance of New Criticism Does reading shape who we are What happens to the relationship between reading and subject formation as methods of interpretation travel globally Yael Segalovitz probes these questions by tracing the transnational journey of the New Critical practice of close reading from the United States to Brazil and Israel in the mid twentieth century Challenging the traditional view of New Criticism as a purely aesthetic project Segalovitz illustrates its underlying pedagogical objective to cultivate close readers capable of momentarily suspending subjectivity through focused attention How Close Reading Made Us shows that close reading as a technique of the self exerted a far reaching influence on international modernist literary production impacting writers such as Clarice Lispector Yehuda Amichai William Faulkner João Guimarães Rosa and A.B. Yehoshua To appreciate close reading's enduring vitality in literary studies and effectively adapt this method to the present Segalovitz argues we must comprehend its many legacies beyond the confines of the Anglophone tradition

The Troubling Play of Gender Maria Stadter Fox, 2001 Although these three modernist writers were not primarily playwrights as expatriates they were interested in the Euripidean theme of women in exile each independently chose to rewrite Euripides Hippolytus a play in which the protagonist is a woman in exile whose speech writing and passion are deeply problematic Each author approaches the Euripidean material in a different way Tsvetaeva focuses on gender in language Yourcenar explores the gendering of a self and H.D. performs the undoing of gendered oppositions

Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Gregory Jusdanis, 1991 How does literature function in the formation of a nation state What are its pivotal contributions to national discourse and the production of ideological collective will And ultimately how is literature institutionalized and aestheticized Belated Modernity and Aesthetic Culture Inventing National Literature addresses these questions and considers the role literature plays in the construction of a national cultural Gregory Jusdanis examines the emergence of art and literature in Western Europe in the eighteenth century and traces their introduction to Greece a stratified noncapitalist society that was hostile to Enlightenment and secularism This groundbreaking work explores the importation of national literatures into a largely non Western society and the inherent resistance they faced Arguing for the literary status of national culture at its inception Jusdanis brilliantly demonstrates that in literature the specific meanings in narratives and fiction form the process of nation building Culture history and literature he says merge in those narratives which in turn provide the imaginary mirror in which a nation reflects itself Making

Sense in Life and Literature Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht, 1992 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation Alan D. Schrift, 2014-09-11 Poststructuralism and Critical Theory's Second Generation analyses the major themes and developments in a period that brought continental philosophy to the forefront of scholarship in a variety of humanities and social science disciplines and that set the agenda for philosophical thought on the continent and elsewhere from the 1960s to the present Focusing on the years 1960 1984 the volume examines the major figures associated with poststructuralism and the second generation of critical theory the two dominant movements that emerged in the 1960s Althusser Foucault Deleuze Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Habermas Influential thinkers such as Serres Bourdieu and Rorty who are not easily placed in standard histories of the period are also covered Beyond this thematic essays engage with issues as diverse as the Nietzschean legacy the linguistic turn in continental thinking the phenomenological inheritance of Gadamer and Ricoeur the influence of psychoanalysis the emergence of feminist thought and a philosophy of sexual difference the renewal of the critical theory tradition and the importation of continental philosophy into literary theory Transcendence

Touching the Unreachable Fusako Innami, 2025-09-30 Fusako Innami offers the first comprehensive study of touch and skinship relationality with the other through the skin in modern Japanese writing The concept of the unreachable that is the lack of characters complete ability to touch what they try to reach for provides a critical intervention on the issue of intimacy Touch has been philosophically addressed in France but literature is an effective or possibly the most productive venue for exploring touch in Japan as literary texts depict what the characters may be concerned with but may not necessarily say out loud Such a moment of capturing the gap between the felt and the said the interaction between the body and language can be effectively analyzed by paying attention to layers of verbalization or indeed translation by characters utterances authors depictions and readers interpretations Each of the writers discussed in this book starting with Nobel prize winner Kawabata Yasunari Tanizaki Jun ichir Yoshiyuki Junnosuke and Matsuura Rieko presents a particular obsession with objects or relationality to the other constructed via the desire for touch In Touching the Unreachable phenomenological and psychoanalytical approaches are cross culturally interrogated in engaging with literary touch to constantly challenge what may seem like the limit of transferability regarding concepts words and practices The book thereby not only bridges cultural gaps beyond geographic and linguistic constraints but also aims to decentralize a Eurocentric hegemony in its production and use of theories and brings Japanese cultural and literary analyses into further productive and stimulating intellectual dialogues Through close readings of the authors treatment of touch Innami develops a theoretical framework with which to examine intersensorial bodies interacting with objects and the environment through touch

H.D. and Modernist Religious Imagination Elizabeth Anderson, 2013-08-01 Exploring the intersection of religious sensibility and creativity in the poetry and prose of the American modernist writer H D this volume explores the nexus of the religious the visionary the creative and the material Drawing on original archival research and analyses of newly published and currently unpublished writings by H D Elizabeth Anderson shows how the poet s work is informed by a range of religious traditions from the complexities and contradictions of Moravian Christianity to a wide range of esoteric beliefs and practices H D and Modernist Religious Imagination brings H D s texts into dialogue with the French theorist H l ne Cixous whose attention to writing imagination and the sacred has been a neglected but rich critical and theological resource In analysing the connection both writers craft between the sacred the material and the creative this study makes a thoroughly original contribution to the emerging scholarly conversation on modernism and religion and the debate on the inter relation of the spiritual and the material within the interdisciplinary field of literature and religion

Blanchot's Vigilance L. Iyer, 2005-11-29 Of the many questions provoked by Blanchot s thought and writing that of understanding its ethical and political significance is perhaps the most pressing Spanning his literary critical and philosophical writings and addressing such major concepts as the image and the neuter Blanchot s Vigilance presents a sustained analysis of Blanchot s response to Levinas s ethical thought the political commitments of the Surrealists Heidegger s readings of the ancient Greeks and the claims of psychoanalysis In a series of thorough and lucid readings Iyer presents Blanchot s central concern as maintaining a kind of vigilance over a difference which opens in the articulation of sense
