Readings

- Government of Victoria Australia “A Framework for Place-based Approaches”

The Framework

- ‘Place-focused approaches’ plan and adapt government services and infrastructure meeting local needs.
 - o Government listens to community to adapt how we do our business, but the objectives, scope and implementation.
- ‘Place-based approaches’ target the specific circumstances of a place and engage participants in development and implementation, requiring government to :
 - o Government listens to community to adapt how we do our business, but the objectives, scope and implementation.
- This framework is intended to:
 - provide a common language for the different ways government works
 - support clear communication within government and with community
 - start a conversation about how government can better support place-based with local communities in decision-making

Sharing decision-making control, influence and accountability?

We, as government, can share control, influence and accountability with communities making with local people and organizations. This can happen, for example, through

- collaboratively defining outcomes and objectives
- active participation in governance groups
- flexible funding that allows for local decision-making
- control over design and ongoing implementation
