Niblett, Etc William Fraser CONNELL, Raymond Lewis DEBUS, William Roy Niblett, 1967 Educational Foundations Alan S. Canestrari, Bruce A. Marlowe, 2004 This anthology of critical readings for students about to enter the teaching profession and for those interested in carefully examining schools and schooling features provocative engaging authors whose views are politicized but whose writing and opinions matter not because they are gadflies but because their ideas work and their achievements as teachers principals and policy shapers are so notable

Educational Foundations An Anthology of Critical Readings is organized around the following questions Why teach Who are today's students What makes a good teacher How should we assess student learning What does a good school look like How does one develop a critical voice in the face of state mandates administrative edicts and the continuous cycle of reform and retrenchment Alan S Canestrari and Bruce A Marlowe's answers are bold and refreshing They eschew the unquestioning compliance so characteristic of new teachers Also by taking a hard look at traditional educational practice they serve as models for the kind of reflective practitioners we hope pre service students will become when they enter the field The key feature of this anthology are the readings by authors who have discovered their own critical voices so that new teachers can begin to develop their own These readings offer a platform for discussion and debate that may be used by instructors to increase student knowledge of pedagogy and to provide authentic opportunities for potential teachers to think critically about teaching and learning Educational Foundations Bruce Maxwell, Lauren Bialystok, 2022-12-15 The first reference work to provide an authoritative state of the field mapping of the foundational disciplines of education An Introduction to the Foundations of Education Edward J.
