Youth Violence I. M. Rachia,1999 This bibliography comprises a selection of Library of Congress catalog records for some 1 500 books periodicals and websites related to youth violence Anyone wanting such a bibliography could probably compile it from the Library of Congress web site and the deficiencies in conception and design of this product defy understanding A brief preface sounds an alarm no one should be surprised that youth violence lurks behind every school house door but sets forth no criteria for selection of citations no indication of time frame purpose or audience Entries are arranged alphabetically by title within chapters on school violence guns and youth gangs campus violence dating and violence and periodicals and Web sites Unforgivably primitive alphabetic sorting puts all titles beginning with The together the same with other articles and in addition those titles are indexed together Though the title indicates the presence of abstracts there are none except the summaries supplied by Library of Congress for juvenile titles of which there are many

Cross referencing and indexing except by title are absent The compiler s credentials motivation and orientation are not cited Furthermore with better design the contents would have consumed half the number of pages and a few typeface variations would have eased scanning Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Yes We Can Save Our Children Julius Wilkerson,2012-03-07 This book is written and published to help churches civic organizations schools community groups youth programs and the like to open and operate their own youth services program The size of the program depends upon the number of participants for which the programs exist Examples are based on The Velocity Foundation s program and should in no way mean that each program should follow the example straight forward Research for this book is based on 2010 census data from the State of Louisiana To develop a youth program the program must deal with self esteem drug prevention pregnancy prevention violence prevention ATOD issues and bullying issues These issues will help save lives and create a value system that is consistent with the norms of society The program activities should be held in a safe environment such as a retreat setting away from the normal everyday meeting places It should offer field trips history lessons trusting and bonding exercises with youth and group therapy The program should also teach life skills personal hygiene skills teach respect for others and responsibility The program should develop a set of standards that everyone in the group agrees on They should have an opportunity to give examples of what PUT DOWNS are as well as why such a standard is used Once they have agreed they should signify by standing The Adolescent Psychotherapy Treatment Planner David J.
