20,000 Miles Christopher Fenwick, 2017-11-07 If in 2017 a group of young men had decided to emulate this odyssey they would probably only have managed a part of the journey Conflict and bureaucracy would have barred their entry to many of the countries they tried to cross However in 1960 three young Cambridge graduates bought themselves an Austin A40 and set off on a marathon trip via Colombo to attend a friend's wedding in Cape Town They took the long way there Christopher Fenwick along with his friends Robin Gaunt and John Maclay set off across continents on the motoring adventure of their lives through Europe the Middle East Asia and Africa Their staple diet was Fray Bentos steak and kidney pie usually eaten at the roadside They even meet old schoolfriends along the way in Iran and had tea with Mr Nehru the Indian Prime Minister with his daughter Indira Gandhi and grandson Rajiv who were to follow in his footsteps Their loyal saloon car suffered the ravages of potholed roads and mountains but friendly mechanics always came to their rescue while the men soon became quite adept themselves at repairing and cannibalising the vehicle as it suffered various breakdowns en route Eventually they made it to Ceylon from where they embarked for the last leg of their trip by boat via the Yemen flying from there to Ethiopia and onwards through Africa to raise a glass of champagne in Cape Town

Memoires of a Travelholic Carole J. Kuhn, 2014-01-28 Dr Kuhn has written a book about her life and travels as a foreign language teacher. In essence it is a book of memories, autobiographical in nature. She describes many of the 45 trips in detail but she also groups many of the trips together. In 1973 when she began taking students to Europe she had a good background of working with students and knowing how they think and act or so she thought. There is an interesting list of things to take where to put the items where they can be bought and the prices of the items. There is also a list of personal rules and regulations that were required of all students. They were called Mademoiselles Rules or Miles Rules. Then there is a comprehensive list of Trip Procedures giving all the do's and don'ts of traveling. Students were allowed to sample beer and alcohol as long as their parents had signed a permission slip but students will always try to outthink the teacher and circumvent the procedures. Dr Kuhn describes many of the things that went wrong on both student trips and adult trips along with things that didn't seem funny at the time but in retrospect seem humorous today.
