Religion In An African City:

Religion in an African city Edward Geoffrey Parrinder,1974 Religion in an African City Geoffrey Parrinder,1953

Migrants and Strangers in an African City Bruce Whitehouse,2012-03-14 Finding place and identity in a globalized world

Slavery and the Birth of an African City Kristin Mann,2007-09-26 As the slave trade entered its last illegal phase in the 19th century the town of Lagos on West Africa s Bight of Benin became one of the most important port cities north of the equator Slavery and the Birth of an African City explores the reasons for Lagos s sudden rise to power By linking the histories of international slave markets to those of the regional suppliers and slave traders Kristin Mann shows how the African slave trade forever altered the destiny of the tiny kingdom of Lagos This magisterial work uncovers the relationship between African slavery and the growth of one of Africa s most vibrant cities The African City Bill Freund,2007-03-05

This book is comprehensive both in terms of time coverage from before the Pharaohs to the present moment and in that it tries to consider cities from the entire continent not just Sub Saharan Africa Apart from factual information and rich description material culled from many sources it looks at many issues from why urban life emerged in the first place to how present day African cities cope in difficult times Instead of seeing towns and cities as somehow extraneous to the real Africa it views them as an inherent part of developing Africa indigenous colonial and post colonial and emphasizes the extent to which the future of African society and African culture will likely be played out mostly in cities The book is written to appeal to students of history but equally to geographers planners sociologists and development specialists interested in urban problems

Women and Religion in the African Diaspora R. Marie Griffith,Barbara Dianne Savage,2006-09-22 This landmark collection of newly commissioned essays explores how diverse women of African descent have practiced religion as part of the work of their ordinary and sometimes extraordinary lives By examining women from North America the Caribbean Brazil and Africa the contributors identify the patterns that emerge as women religion and diaspora intersect mapping fresh approaches to this emergent field of inquiry The volume focuses on issues of history tradition and the authenticity of African derived spiritual practices in a variety of contexts including those where memories of suffering remain fresh and powerful The contributors discuss matters of power and leadership and of religious expressions outside of institutional settings The essays study women of Christian denominations African and Afro Caribbean traditions and Islam addressing their roles as spiritual leaders artists and musicians preachers and participants in bible study groups This volume s transnational mixture along with its use of creative analytical approaches challenges existing paradigms and summons new models for studying women religions and diasporic shiftings across time and space Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow Esoh Elamé,2022-06-03 Most African cities are human settlements that lack the systems needed for effective land use planning In fact the disorganization that prevails has become so complex that the concept of urbanism itself has been called into question This book highlights the need to restore urban planning in African cities through sustainable development and interculturality Furthermore it addresses the balance of power between urban planning and sustainable development and explores the historical and postcolonial aspects of urban planning in African cities A case study focusing on the development of sustainable cities and neighborhoods in the M Zab Valley is also included as well as topics such as urban greening climatic threats and the problem of state agro industrial land transactions which compete with sustainable urban planning Sustainable Intercultural Urbanism at the Service of the African City of Tomorrow is a valuable reference for researchers and practitioners interested in urban issues in African cities These cities in particular sub Saharan cities have long been excluded from any discourse on sustainable cities and urban planning this book places the focus on these cities and acknowledges their varied urban realities The intention is to spark a new debate on sustainable urban planning in African cities based on intercultural sustainable urbanism which is key to thinking about and building ecological intercultural compact intelligent and postcolonial cities

European Traditions in the Study of Religion in Africa Ulrich Berner, Christoph Bochinger, 2004 This volume comprises case studies of five centuries of European encounters with and imaginations of Africa encompassing her triple religious heritage African Traditional Religions Christianity and Islam The introductory chapters outline the challenges and present overviews some of them also analyze the early accounts of European travelers and missionaries The following contributions examine the lasting legacy of the European Enlightenment in employing an ambivalent language of human equality and universalism while in actual fact consigning Africa to an inferior position It has been difficult for western scholars to divorce themselves wholly from the perceptions thus established However there have been quite different approaches This is indicated in the papers discussing the role and impact of influential European academics scholars of religion theologians historians and social scientists during the colonial and postcolonial period Other contributions examine specific institutional centers of African religious studies in Europe The concluding chapters critically assess European approaches and their use for the study of religion in Africa from an African perspective

Encyclopedia of African Religion Molefi Kete Asante, Ama Mazama, 2008-11-26 Numerous titles focusing on particular beliefs in Africa exist including Marcel Griaule's Conversations with Ogotemmel but this one presents an unparalleled exploration of a multitude of cultures and experiences It is both a gateway to deeper exploration and a penetrating resource on its own This is bound to become the definitive scholarly resource on African religions Library Journal Starred Review Overall because of its singular focus reliability and scope this encyclopedia will prove invaluable where there is considerable interest in Africa or in different religious traditions Library Journal As the first comprehensive work to assemble ideas concepts discourses and extensive essays in this vital area the Encyclopedia of African Religion explores such topics as deities and divinities the nature of humanity the end of life the conquest of fear and the quest for attainment of harmony with nature and other humans Editors Molefi Kete Asante and Ama Mazama include nearly 500 entries that seek to rediscover the original beauty and majesty of African religion Features Offers the best representation to date of the African response to the sacred Helps readers grasp the enormity of Africa's contribution to religious ideas by presenting richly textured concepts of spirituality ritual and initiation while simultaneously advancing new theological categories cosmological narratives and ways to conceptualize ethical behavior Provides readers with new metaphors figures of speech modes of reasoning etymologies analogies and cosmogonies Reveals the complexity texture and rhythms of the African religious tradition to provide scholars with a baseline for future works The Encyclopedia of African Religion is intended for undergraduate and graduate students in fields such as Religion Africana Studies Sociology and Philosophy Food, Culture, and Survival in an African City K. Flynn, 2016-09-27 A rich ethnographic portrait of food provisioning processes in a contemporary African city offering valuable lessons about the powerful roles of gender migration exchange sex and charity in food acquisition Based on anthropologist Karen Coen Flynn's study of Mwanza Tanzania this work draws on the personal accounts of over 350 market vendors low middle and high income consumers urban farmers as well as those including children who live on the streets This strikingly original work offers interdisciplinary appeal to a broad audience of both students and professionals interested in anthropology African studies urban studies gender studies and development economics The African City Anthony O'Connor, 2013-01-11 This book explores various characteristics of tropical African cities with special reference to change in the post independence period It stresses the diversity of urban forms and urban experience to be found within the region distinguishing the more general features from those peculiar to individual cities Much has been written about urban Africa but nearly all relates to particular cities this book provides a context for such studies This review provides an essential foundation both for theoretical clarification of the processes of urbanization and for practical planning decisions The topics covered range from rural urban migration and national urban systems to the urban economy housing and the spatial structure of cities The sharp contrasts between indigenous and colonial urban traditions are emphasized but so also is the evidence for convergence today as indigenization takes place in the colonial cities while Westernization proceeds in those of indigenous origin This book was first published in 1983 Understanding Religious Change in Africa and Europe: Crossing Latitudes Nathan Irmiya Elawa, 2020-04-15 This book examines and compares the religious experience of an African group with a European one It offers an ethnographical investigation of the Jukun of north central Nigeria The author also organically weaves into the narrative the Christianization of the Irish in a comparative fashion Throughout he makes the case for an African Christianity connected to a Celtic Irish Christianity and vice versa as different threads in a tapestry This work is a product of a synthesis of archival research in three continents interviews with surviving first generation Christians who were active practitioners of the Jukun indigenous religion and with former missionaries to the Jukun On the Irish side it draws from extant primary sources and interviews with scholars in Celtic Irish studies In addition pictures diagrams and excerpts from British colonial and missionary journals provide a rich contextual understanding of Jukun religious life and practices The author is among the emerging voices in the study of World

Christianity who advocate for the reality of poly centres for Christianity This perspective recognizes voices from the Global South in the expansion of Christianity This book serves as a valuable resource for historians anthropologists theologians and those interested in missions studies both scholars and lay readers seeking to deepen their understanding of World Christianity

Religions of the World J. Gordon Melton, Martin Baumann, 2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world's smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia's six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world's smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world's most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions

Christian ethics in an African background Edmund Christopher Onyedum Ilogu, 2024-04-02

The Palgrave Handbook of African Traditional Religion Igbolade S. Aderibigbe, Toyin Falola, 2022-05-20 The Palgrave Handbook of African Traditional Religion interrogates and presents robust and comprehensive contributions from interdisciplinary experts and scholars Offering a range of perspectives and opinions through the prism of understanding the past about African Traditional religions and more importantly capturing their dynamics in the present and projecting their sustainability and relevance for the future this volume is an essential resource for knowledge and understanding of African Traditional religions in the global space of religious traditions

Associational Life in African Cities Arne Tostensen, Inge Tvedten, Mariken Vaa, 2001 The book contains 17 chapters with material from 13 African countries from Egypt to Swaziland and from Senegal to Kenya Most of the authors are young African academics The focus of the volume is the multitude of voluntary associations that has emerged in African cities in recent years In many cases they are a response to mounting poverty failing infrastructure and services and more generally weak or abdicating urban governments Some associations are new in other cases existing organizations are taking on new tasks Associations may be neighbourhood based others may be city wide and based on professional groupings or a shared ideology or religion Still others have an ethnic base Some of these organizations are engaged in both day to day matters of urban management and more long term urban development Urban associations challenge the monopoly of local and central government institutions

Religion, Religious Organisations and Development

Carole Rakodi, 2016-04-04 This collection adds to a burgeoning literature concerned with the roles played by religions in development The authors do not assume that religion and religious organisations can be used to achieve development objectives or that religiously inspired development work is more holistic transformative and authentic Instead they subject such assumptions to critical and as far as possible objective scrutiny focusing on how adherents of several religious traditions and a variety of organisations affiliated with different religions perceive the idea of development and attempt to contribute to its objectives Geographically chapters in the volume encompass Africa South Asia and the Asia Pacific Four of the papers have an international focus providing a preliminary framework for analysing the role of religion in development considering the roles played by faith inspired organisations in two regions the Asia Pacific and Sub Saharan Africa and analysing transnational Muslim NGOs The individual case studies focus on nine countries India Kenya Pakistan Nigeria Tanzania Sudan Malawi Sri Lanka South Africa consider four religions Islam Hinduism Christianity Buddhism and can be grouped under four themes they consider religion wellbeing and inequality the roles of religious NGOs in development whether and how religious organisations influence respond to or resist social change and whether religious service providers reach the poor Finally practice notes show how three religious development organisations try to put their principles into practice This book was published as a special double issue of Development in Practice

Migration and the Global Landscapes of Religion

David Garbin, 2023-06-29 This book draws upon case studies of the Congolese Christian diaspora in the UK and US and an ethnography of religious urbanization in the Democratic Republic of Congo DRC to explore the making of religious spaces and moral landscapes in an era of globalization Religion is a key aspect of the community social and political life of Congolese migrants many of whom have to address the predicaments of displacement relocation and the status of being a minority within a minority as Francophone black African migrants in English speaking countries The book demonstrates the role of religion in the production of moral worlds and the ways in which for Congolese Christians this process both results from and facilitates a process of regrounding in the midst of ambivalent urban environments Through a multi sited ethnography the book also examines the impact of transnational religious practices on development and city making in the homeland in a context of increasing informalization and infrastructural deficit Drawing on extensive ethnographic data David Garbin captures the nuances of a complex and changing social political and religious landscape for Congolese migrants relying on the construction of moral worlds and revealing the role of a range of connections but also disconnections between diaspora and homeland across multiple scales An essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in the intersections of religion migration and urbanization in both Global North and Global South contexts Afro-Christian Religions
