The Religion of Java Clifford Geertz, 1976 Part of the material issued in 1958 under title Modjokuto religion in Java Includes index Java, Indonesia and Islam Mark Woodward, 2010-10-28 Mark R Woodward's Islam in Java Normative Piety and Mysticism in the Sultanate of Yogyakarta 1989 was one of the most important work on Indonesian Islam of the era This new volume Java Indonesia and Islam builds on the earlier study but also goes beyond it in important ways Written on the basis of Woodward's thirty years of research on Javanese Islam in a Yogyakarta south central Java setting the book presents a much needed collection of essays concerning Javanese Islamic texts ritual sacred space situated in Javanese and Indonesian political contexts With a number of entirely new essays as well as significantly revised versions of essays this book is a valuable contribution to the academic community by an eminent anthropologist and key authority on Islamic religion and culture in Java Varieties of Javanese Religion Andrew Beatty, 1999-04-08 Java is famous for its combination of diverse cultural forms and religious beliefs In this most comprehensive study of Javanese religion since Clifford Geertz's classic study Andrew Beatty considers Javanese solutions to problems of cultural difference and how villagers make sense of their complex multi layered culture Pantheist mystics supernaturalists orthodox Muslims and Hindu converts at once construct contrasting faiths and create a common ground through syncretist ritual Vividly evoking the local religious life this book probes beyond the surface of ritual and cosmology revealing the compromise inherent in practical religion Clifford Geertz by His Colleagues Richard A. Shweder, Byron Good, 2005-03-15 Clifford Geertz is the most influential American anthropologist of the past four decades His writings have defined and given character to the intellectual agenda of a meaning centered nonreductive interpretive social science and have provoked much excitement and debate about the nature of human understanding As part of the American Anthropological Association's centennial celebration the executive board sponsored a presidential session honoring Geertz Clifford Geertz by His Colleagues compiles the twelve speeches given then by a distinguished panel of social scientists along with a concluding piece by Geertz in which he responds to each speaker and reflects on his own career These edited speeches cover a broad range of topics including Geertz's views on morality cultural critique interpretivism time and change Islam and violence A fitting tribute to one of the great thinkers of our age this collection will be enjoyed by anthropologists as well as students of psychology history and philosophy The Modern Anthropology of South-East Asia Victor T. King, 2003 This is the first comprehensive introduction to the social and cultural anthropology of South East Asia It provides an overview of the major theoretical issues and themes which have emerged from the engagement of anthropologists with South East Asian communities a succinct historical survey and analysis of the peoples and cultures of the region Most importantly the volume reveals the vitally important role which the study of the area has occupied in the development of the concepts and methods of anthropology from the perspectives of Edmund Leach to Clifford Geertz Maurice Freedman to Claude Levi Strauss Lauriston Sharp to Melford Spiro Religions and Societies, Asia and the Middle East Carlo Caldarola, 1982 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Religion and Politics in Rural Central Java Robert R. Jay, 1978 Sadrach's Community and its Contextual Roots Sutarman Soediman Patronadi, 2024-01-08 Currents of Encounter invites scholarly contributions that utilize interreligious intercultural comparative postcolonial and other contemporary critical interdisciplinary approaches from across all religious traditions to address topical questions on the challenges and opportunities arising from intercultural interreligious engagements or the intersections of cultures and religions Studies dealing explicitly with the dynamics of the intersection of religious and cultural traditions are increasing every year and scholars have become aware of the complexity and diversity of interreligious and intercultural relations Recent literature offers a broad panoply of theoretical approaches from theologies of religions to comparative theologies from discourse analysis to a postcolonial critique focusing on issues of power from feminist readings asking about the specific role of women in interreligious dialogue to interreligious hermeneutics exploring how meaning may travel across cultural and religious traditions Currents of Encounter welcomes this variety of works in these disciplines and from interdisciplinary perspectives aiming thus to contribute to a better understanding of the complexities of interreligious and intercultural themes The board welcomes both monographs and edited volumes Possible domains interreligious studies intercultural theology and philosophy comparative theology and philosophy theologies of religions The World's Religions Peter Clarke, Friedhelm Hardy, Leslie Houlden, Stewart Sutherland, 2004-01-14 Gives an account of the history the theological basis the practice and the current state of the study of religion and religions throughout the world Combines a clear and non technical style of presentation with a structure and range of contributions which reflect the richness and complexity of religion itself of the religions of the world and the study of religions Comprehensive index bibliographies and suggestions for further reading Intriguing philosophical questions are raised about the nature of religion and the qualities needed for studying it Times Higher Education Supplement Excellent book remarkably successful impressive as much for the sheer scale of the undertaking as for its consistent standard of analysis It is a fine achievement which will serve both as a very suitable textbook for students and a reliable guide to the state of scholarship in the History and Study of Religions Heythrop Journal The Anthropology of Eastern Religions Murray J. Leaf, 2014-05-21 The world's great religions depend on traditions of serious scholarship dedicated to preserving their key texts but also to understanding them and therefore to debating what understanding itself is and how best to do it They also have important public missions of many kinds and their ideas and organizations influence many other important institutions including government law education and kinship Anthropology of Eastern Religions Ideas Organizations and Constituencies is a comparative survey of the world's major religious traditions as professional enterprises and often as social movements Documenting the principle ideas behind eastern religious traditions from an anthropological perspective Murray J Leaf demonstrates how these ideas have been used in building internal organizations that mobilize or fail to mobilize external support

Gordon Melton, Martin Baumann, 2010-09-21 This masterful six volume encyclopedia provides comprehensive global coverage of religion emphasizing larger religious communities without neglecting the world's smaller religious outposts Religions of the World Second Edition A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Beliefs and Practices is an extraordinary work bringing together the scholarship of some 225 experts from around the globe The encyclopedia's six volumes offer entries on every country of the world with particular emphasis on the larger nations as well as Indonesia and the Latin American countries that are traditionally given little attention in English language reference works Entries include profiles on religion in the world's smallest countries the Vatican and San Marino profiles on religion in recently established or disputed countries Kosovo and Nagorno Karabakh as well as profiles on religion in some of the world's most remote places Antarctica and Easter Island Religions of the World is unique in that it is based in religion on the ground tracing the development of each of the 16 major world religious traditions through its institutional expressions in the modern world its major geographical sites and its major celebrations Unlike other works the encyclopedia also covers the world of religious unbelief as expressed in atheism humanism and other traditions

Religion of Java Clifford Geertz, Jave Modjakerlo, 1960

Framing Asian Studies Albert Tzeng, 2018-05-24 This book explores the interconnection between geopolitical context and the ways this context frames our knowledge about Asia highlighting previously neglected cause effect relations It also examines how various knowledge institutions promote and shape Asian Studies The authors seek to explain why Asian Studies and its subfields developed in the way they did and what the implications of these transformations might be on intellectual and political understandings of Asia The book not only builds on the current debates on the decolonization and de imperialization of knowledge about Asia it also proposes a more multifaceted view rather than just examining the impact of the West on the framing of Asian Studies

Anthropology and Religion Robert L. Winzeler, 2012-04-12 Drawing from ethnographic examples found throughout the world this revised and updated text offers an introduction to what anthropologists know or think about religion how they have studied it and how they have interpreted or explained it since the late nineteenth century Robert Winzeler's balanced consideration of classic topics basic concepts and new developments in the anthropological study of religion moves beyond cultural anthropology and ethnography to gather information from physical anthropology prehistory and archaeology Written as a sophisticated but accessible treatment of the issues Anthropology and Religion is a key text for upper division courses

The World's Religions: Islam Peter Clarke, 2002-06-01 The theological and philosophical bases of the beliefs are clearly presented with their history development expression and everyday practice It is written by international specialists in a scholarly but non technical style

New Challenges in the Modern Economic History J.Th. Lindblad, 2025-01-27

Mission & Science Carine Dujardin, Claude Prudhomme, 2015-03-26 Science as an instrument to justify religious missions in secular society The relationship between religion and science is complex and continues to be a topical issue However it is seldom zoomed in on from both Protestant and Catholic perspectives By doing so the contributing authors in this collection gain new insights into the origin and development of missiology Missiology is described in this book as a project of modernity a contemporary form of apologetics Scientific apologetics was the way to justify missions in a society that was rapidly becoming secularized

Mission Science deals with the interaction between new scientific disciplines historiography geography ethnology anthropology linguistics and new scientific insights Darwin's evolutionary theory heliocentrism as well as the role of the papacy and what inspired missionary practice first in China and the Far East and later in Africa The renewed missiology has in turn influenced the missionary practice of the twentieth century guided by apostolic policy Some missionary scholars have even had a significant influence on the scientific discourse of their time
