Darling, 2013-05-02 From ancient Mesopotamia into the 20th century the Circle of Justice as a concept has pervaded Middle Eastern political thought and underpinned the exercise of power in the Middle East The Circle of Justice depicts graphically how a government s justice toward the population generates political power military strength prosperity and good administration This book traces this set of relationships from its earliest appearance in the political writings of the Sumerians through four millennia of Middle Eastern culture It explores how people conceptualized and acted upon this powerful insight how they portrayed it in symbol painting and story and how they transmitted it from one regime to the next Moving towards the modern day the author shows how although the Circle of Justice was largely dropped from political discourse it did not disappear from people s political culture and expectations of government The book demonstrates the Circle s relevance to the Iranian Revolution and the rise of Islamist movements all over the Middle East and suggests how the concept remains relevant in an age of capitalism A must read for students policymakers and ordinary citizens this book will be an important contribution to the areas of political history political theory Middle East studies and Orientalism

Bonhoeffer's Christian Humanism Jens Zimmermann, 2019-06-13 Jens Zimmermann locates Bonhoeffer within the Christian humanist tradition extending back to patristic theology He begins by explaining Bonhoeffer's own use of the term humanism and Christian humanism and considering how his criticism of liberal Protestant theology prevents him from articulating his own theology rhetorically as a Christian humanism He then provides an in depth portrayal of Bonhoeffer's theological anthropology and establishes that Bonhoeffer's Christology and attendant anthropology closely resemble patristic teaching The volume also considers Bonhoeffer's mature anthropology focusing in particular on the Christian self It introduces the hermeneutic quality of Bonhoeffer's theology as a further important feature of his Christian humanism In contrast to secular and religious fundamentalisms Bonhoeffer offers a hermeneutic understanding of truth as participation in the Christ event that makes interpretation central to human knowing Having established the hermeneutical structure of his theology and his personalist configuration of reality Zimmermann outlines Bonhoeffer's ethics as Christformation Building on the hermeneutic theology and participatory ethics of the previous chapters he then shows how a major part of Bonhoeffer's life and theology namely his dedication to the Bible as God's word is also consistent with his Christian humanism
