Religion And The Rise Of Nationalism:

Religion and the Rise of Nationalism Robert E. Alvis, 2005-07-11 Currently part of Poland the city of Poznan straddled an ethnic border zone of sorts prior to World War II on the edge of a predominantly German sphere of settlement to the west and a predominantly Polish sphere to the east This juxtaposition of cultures helped stimulate the development of vigorous nationalist movements in the first half of the nineteenth century and Poznan emerged as an important center of such activity among Germans and Poles alike Robert E Alvis tracks the rise of nationalism in Poznan and examines how religious affiliation factored into the process Drawing upon a wealth of archival data including memoirs police and government correspondence and parish and archdiocesan records the author reconstructs evolving patterns of collective identity during a time of rapid socioeconomic change and political religious and cultural ferment He concludes that in Poznan religion provided critical foundations for the development of Polish and German nationalist movements and enhanced their appeal across a broad demographic spectrum This book encourages a rethinking of the widely held view that early European nationalism was largely a secular phenomenon at odds with religion The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Nationalism Jeffrey Haynes, 2025-09-15 The Routledge Handbook of Religion and Nationalism comprehensively surveys the sub disciplinary area of religious nationalism an interaction between religion and nationalism The handbook has a global focus including sections on how why and with what effects religion and nationalism impact politically both domestically and internationally as well as discussing the future of the field and religious nationalism on the ground Bringing together a range of expert contributors the handbook is split into two main parts core issues and country case studies Religions studied include Islam Christianity Hinduism Judaism and Buddhism across countries in Asia Europe the Middle East and North Africa Sub Saharan Africa North America and South America The core issues examined cover nationhood as a concept historical perspectives on nationalism theoretical approaches to nationalism the state populism violence and conflict immigration terrorism globalisation the post secular world and foreign policy Given the comprehensive nature of the handbook it provides crucial complementary reading for students scholars and professionals across politics religion and policy making Edward Said and the Religious Effects of Culture William D. Hart, William David Hart, 2000-04-13 This book provides a distinctive account of Edward Said s critique of modern culture by highlighting the religion secularism distinction on which it is predicated It refers to religious and secular traditions and to tropes that extend the meaning and reference of religion and secularism in indeterminate ways It covers Said s heterogeneous corpus from Joseph Conrad and the Fiction of Autobiography his first book to Orientalism his most influential book to his recent writings on the Palestinian question The religion secularism distinction lies behind Said s cultural criticism and his notion of intellectual responsibility The New Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Religion Bryan S. Turner, 2016-10-03 THE NEW BLACKWELL COMPANION TO THE Sociology of Religion I enjoyed reading this book for its in depth examination of the complexities of the social forces that are shaping and are being shaped by religious groups around the world I certainly see this being of theoretical value for researchers engaging the new religious realities of our world

Sociology of Religion A Quarterly Review The new companion is a timely and valuable work validly updating the original companion and a good addition to the reference shelves of any academic or specialist library

Reference Reviews Reflecting recent developments in the field this companion provides a comprehensive introduction to the sociology of religion with a clear emphasis on comparative and historical approaches Covering all the areas relevant to undergraduate courses in this area the Companion begins by laying down the anthropological and sociological foundations of the study of religion and their contemporary developments It continues with an analysis of both traditional and contemporary forms of organization such as church sect typologies as well as megachurches and modern forms of spirituality The secularization and post secular society debates are considered in depth along with the globalization process fundamentalism charismatic movements and revivalism It also discusses the sociology of Buddhism Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism and religions of China as well as the areas of American exceptionalism from de Tocqueville onwards religious nationalism women and piety movements and the spirituality of Native American communities Considering new developments in social theory and religion the collection concludes with a discussion of recent work that attempts to understand the future of religion blending the sociology of modern societies anthropological ethnography and philosophical inquiry

Religions/Globalizations Dwight N. Hopkins, 2001-10-03 A collection of essays demonstrating the ways diverse religious rituals symbols ethics and ideologies perform as primary planks in the construction of the public realm with particular focus on peripheral nations and politicized spiritualities of resist

Religion, Ethnonationalism, and Antisemitism in the Era of the Two World Wars Kevin P. Spicer, Rebecca Carter-Chand, 2022-01-15 In the wake of the devastating First World War leaders of the victorious powers reconfigured the European continent resulting in new understandings of nation state and citizenship Religious identity symbols and practice became tools for politicians and church leaders alike to appropriate as instruments to define national belonging often to the detriment of those outside the faith tradition Religion Ethnonationalism and Antisemitism in the Era of the Two World Wars places the interaction between religion and ethnonationalism a particular articulation of nationalism based upon an imagined ethnic community at the centre of its analysis offering a new lens through which to analyze how nationalism ethnicity and race became markers of inclusion and exclusion Those who did not embrace the same ethnonationalist vision faced ostracization and persecution with Jews experiencing pervasive exclusion and violence as centuries of antisemitic Christian rhetoric intertwined with right wing nationalist extremism The thread of antisemitism as a manifestation of ethnonationalism is woven through each of the essays along with the ways in which individuals sought to critique religious ethnonationalism and the violence it inspired With case studies from the United States France Italy Germany Finland Croatia Ukraine and Romania Religion Ethnonationalism and Antisemitism in the Era of the Two World Wars thoroughly explores the confluence of religion race ethnicity and antisemitism that led to the annihilative destruction of the Second World War and the Holocaust challenging readers to identify and confront the inherent dangers of narrowly defined ideologies

Kurds and Their Struggle for Autonomy Mehran Tamadonfar, Roman Lewis, 2024-04-08

Kurds and their Struggle for Autonomy Enduring Identity and Clientelism is a comprehensive study of the roots of Kurdish identity the processes of identity formation among the Kurds and the Kurds seemingly never ending struggle for self determination By relying on a hybrid theoretical model of identity politics this book offers a thorough treatment of the origins characteristics and evolution of Kurdish culture in general and political culture in particular It also examines the historical explanations and nuances of Kurdish struggles for some form of autonomy assesses economic imperatives that shape the potentials and challenges of Kurdish social and political life and offers a critical review of the contemporary Kurdish institutional and policy dynamics in Iraq and Syria

Religion & Identity Politics: Global Trends And Local Realities Mathews Mathew, Melvin Tay, 2021-06-18

Discourse on fundamentalism has gained much attention in recent years particularly in a post 9 11 context where extremist or terrorist threats are more prominent perilous and pervasive This edited volume seeks to spotlight the perspectives of academics and practitioners vis vis global trends in religious fundamentalism and right wing extremism over the past decade It presents a collection of works from notable academics and practitioners including a selection of case studies from Asia to illustrate the contemporary interplay of religion politics and identity alongside broader global trends of religious fundamentalism The chapters that follow attempt to trace the sources and factors that led to the dramatic rise in these powerful forces of faith which influence societies and politics around the world Together they present a carefully curated narrative of the interplay of religion and identity politics globally and across Asia The prevailing differences in demographics history and the extent of ethno religious diversity across country contexts are perused across each chapter and the ensuing circumstances deliberated upon As these circumstances change the ways people interpret their identities engage in politics and navigate their religion will also evolve How we manage the effects of religious fundamentalism must hence begin with an understanding of how religion identity and politics interact and this is what the upcoming chapters seek to illustrate

Europe Stefan Elbe, 2004-03-01

There has been a deliberative but as yet unsuccessful attempt by scholars and policy makers to articulate a more meaningful idea of Europe which would enhance the legitimacy of the European Union and provide the basis for a European identity Using a detailed analysis of the writings of Nietzsche Elbe seeks to address this problem and argues that Nietzsche s thinking about Europe can significantly illuminate our understanding He demonstrates how Nietzsche s critique of nationalism and the notion of the good European can assist contemporary scholars in the quest for a vision of Europe and a definition of what it means to be a European citizen

Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Stipe Odak, 2020-10-27

This book provides fresh insights into the role of religious leaders in conflict transformation and peacebuilding Based on a large dataset of interviews with Christian and Muslim leaders in Bosnia and Herzegovina it offers a contextually rich analysis of the main post conflict challenges forgiveness reconciliation and tragic memories Designed as an

inductive qualitative research it also develops an integrative theoretical model of religiously inspired engagement in conflict transformation The work introduces a number of new concepts which are relevant for both theory and practice of peacebuilding such as Residue of Forgiveness Degree Zero of Reconciliation Ecumene of Compassion and Phantomic Memories The book furthermore proposes two correlated concepts theological dissonance and pastoral optimization as theoretical tools to describe the interplay between moral ideals and practical limitations The text is a valuable resource for religious and social scholars alike especially those interested in topics of peace conflict and justice From the methodological standpoint it is an original and audacious attempt at bringing together theological philosophical and political narratives on conflicts and peace through the innovative use of the Grounded Theory approach Religion, Secularism, and Political Belonging Leerom Medovoi, Elizabeth Bentley, 2021-03-08 Working in four scholarly teams focused on different global regions North America the European Union the Middle East and China the contributors to Religion Secularism and Political Belonging examine how new political worlds intersect with locally specific articulations of religion and secularism The chapters address many topics including the changing relationship between Islam and politics in Tunisia after the 2010 revolution the influence of religion on the sharp turn to the political right in Western Europe understandings of Confucianism as a form of secularism and the alliance between evangelical Christians and neoliberal business elites in the United States since the 1970s This volume also provides a methodological template for how humanities scholars around the world can collaboratively engage with sweeping issues of global significance Contributors Markus Balkenhol Elizabeth Bentley Kambiz GhaneaBassiri David N Gibbs Ori Goldberg Marcia Klotz Zeynep Kurtulus Korkman Leerom Medovoi Eva Midden Mohanad Mustafa Mu chou Poo Shaul Setter John Vignaux Smith Pooyan Tamimi Arab Ernst van den Hemel Albert Welter Francis Ching Wah Yip Raef Zreik International Empirical Studies on Religion and Socioeconomic Human Rights Hans-Georg Ziebertz, 2020-03-06 Socioeconomic rights include rights with regard to social security labour and employment as well as cultural rights which may be regarded as a shield for the protection of human dignity especially of specific groups such as women children and refugees The enforceability of socioeconomic rights clearly distinguishes them from other rights These rights need perhaps more than others the support of civil society Because states have leeway in how resources are distributed civil society has a major impact on what resources are used to fulfil socio economic rights One of the actors in the public arena are religious traditions respective Churches Most of them have developed ethical standards for individual conduct and rules for living together in society based on their basic scriptures All three monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam are marked by a caring engagement for the poor the sick the old and the foreign From an empirical perspective the general research question of this volume is how young people understand and evaluate socioeconomic rights and to which degree religious convictions and practices are connected with attitudes towards these human rights Can religion be identified as a force supporting the human rights regime and which additional concepts strengthen or weaken the consent to these rights The richness of empirical data contributes to a better understanding how socioeconomic rights are legitimated in the opinion of more than 10 000 respondents in 14 countries Human Flourishing, Liberal Theory, and the Arts Menachem Mautner, 2018-04-09 This book claims that in addition to autonomy liberal tradition recognizes human flourishing as an ideal of the good life There are two versions of the liberalism of flourishing for one the good life consists in the ability of an individual to develop her intellectual and moral capabilities and for the other the good life is one in which an individual succeeds in materializing her varied human capabilities Both versions expect the state to create the background conditions for flourishing Combining the history of ideas with analytical political philosophy Menachem Mautner finds the roots of the liberalism of flourishing in the works of great philosophers and argues that for individuals to reach flourishing they need to engage with art Art provides us with wisdom insight critical social and political thinking and moral education Thus a state which practices the liberalism of flourishing must play an active role in funding the creation and dissemination of art Consequently the liberalism of flourishing is better equipped than autonomy liberalism to compete with religion in the domains of meaning and over the shape of the regime the political culture and the law in countries in which liberalism is contested Political theorists and lawyers will enjoy engaging with this version of liberalism as will students of social democracy and art policy Essays on Religion and Human Rights David Little, 2015-03-26 This collection of essays by David Little addresses human rights in relation to the historical settings in which its language was drafted and adopted Featuring five original essays Little articulates his view that fascist practices before and during World War II vivified the wrongfulness of deliberately inflicting severe pain injury and destruction for self serving purposes and that the human rights corpus developed in response was designed to outlaw all practices of arbitrary force He contends that while there must be an accountable human rights standard it should guarantee latitude for the expression and practice of beliefs consistent with outlawing arbitrary force Little details the theoretical grounds of the relationship between religion and human rights and concludes with essays on US policy and the restraint of force in regard to terrorism With a foreword by John Kelsay this book is a capstone of the work of this influential writer on religion philosophy and law Religion, Civilization, and Civil War Jonathan Fox, 2004-01-01 In Religion Civilization and Civil War author Jonathan Fox carves out a new space of research and interrogation in conflict studies Covering over five decades this study provides the most comprehensive and detailed empirical analysis of the impact of religion and civilization on domestic conflict to date and will become a critical resource for both international relations and political science scholars Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism: Volume 3 of Religion & Society Brenda Brasher, 2001-10-19 The Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism is the third volume of the acclaimed Religion Society series The Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism follows a broad definition of fundamentalism and covers fundamentalism across time and place although the emphasis remains on its primary manifestation Protestant fundamentalism in the United States It draws upon the work of historians sociologists religious scholars anthropologists political scientists and others

Day,2020-12-30 The first sociology of religion textbook to begin the task of diversifying and decolonizing the study of religion Sociology of Religion develops a sociological frame that draws together the personal political and public showing how religion its origins development and changes is understood as a social institution influenced by and influencing wider social structures Organized along sociological structures and themes the book works with examples from a variety of religious traditions and regions rather than focusing in depth on a selection and foregrounds cultural practice based understandings of religion It is therefore a book about religion not religions that explores the relationship of religion with gender and sexuality crime and violence generations politics and media race ethnicity and social class disease and disability highlighting the position of religion in social justice and equality Each chapter of this book is framed around concrete case studies from a variety of Western and non Western religious traditions Students will benefit from thinking about the discipline across a range of geographical and religious contexts The book includes features designed to engage and inspire students Up to date and comprehensive analysis of engaging and accessible material Case Examples short summaries of empirical examples relating to the chapter themes Visually distinct boxes with bullet points key words and phrases focusing on the context Questions suitable for private or seminar study Suggested class exercises for instructors to use Suggested readings and further readings online resources at the end of each chapter Following a review and critique of early sociology of religion the book engages with more contemporary issues such as dissolving the secular sacred binary and paying close attention to issues of epistemology negotiations marginalities feminisms identities power nuances globalization post multiple modernity ies emotion structuration reflexivity intersectionality and urbanization This book is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students exploring the sociology of religion religion and society religious studies theology globalization and human geography Current Issues in Law and Religion Silvio Ferrari,2017-07-05 This volume focuses on issues that have only recently come to the forefront of the discipline such as freedom from religion ordination of homosexuals apostasy security and fundamentalism issues that are linked to the common themes of secularism and globalization Although these subjects are not new to the academic debate they have become prominent in law and religion circles as a result of recent and rapid changes in society The essays in this volume present multiple points of view facilitate scholars in understanding this evolving discipline and act as a stimulus for further research This collection gives the reader a sense of the key topics and current debates in law and religion and is of interest to law politics human rights and religion scholars Faith-based Radicalism Christiane Timmerman,2007 Terror attacks against Western symbols of power suicide terrorism in Chechnya or bombing of abortion clinics in the United States these are a few of the violent religious outbursts that the media never seem to stop broadcasting While these outbursts are mostly linked to Islamic extremism it should however be acknowledged that every religion has its own violent side Despite all the events the media are too prompt to show us it would be dishonest and insensible not to accept that every religion has also a potential for religious peace building and communal renewal How can it be explained then that religions sometimes react violently against the society surrounding them by trying to overthrow it while at some other times they willingly help and try to build a better world for everyone The University Centre Saint Ignatius Antwerp organised an interdisciplinary summer seminar in September 2005 and gathered senior scholars all experts in their own fields and junior scholars who will be the experts of tomorrow from all over the world to discuss these burning issues The seminar focused on miscellaneous topics all pointing towards the question of religion and society like literalism and the Holy texts the ambivalence of faith based radicalism the psychology of religion and terrorism nationalism and religion and religious social movements Publisher
