The Bible and Patriarchy in Traditional Tribal Society Chingboi Guite Phaipi, 2023-01-26 Chingboi Guite Phaipi examines how biblical texts reinforced female subjugation in Northeast Indian tribal societies after tribes had accepted Christianity in the early 20th century Phaipi shows how most tribal groups reinforced women's subordinate status by invoking newly authoritative biblical texts such as the creation stories in Genesis 1 2 and 3 Phaipi studies the creation stories in Genesis to offer broader readings for Christian tribal communities that are communal traditional and struggling to retain their women and girls particularly those who are educated This volume recognizes and respects tradition traditional communities and the enduring witness of faithful lives in tribal communities at the same time as offering ways forward with respect to unworthy cultural practices and preferences that have been legitimised by the Bible This book offers a contextually sensitive and scholarly reading of the Bible with particular attention to the ways patriarchal norms in biblical narratives are perpetuated rather than considered and reformed

The Invention of World Religions Tomoko Masuzawa, 2005-05-15 The idea of world religions expresses a vague commitment to multiculturalism Not merely a descriptive concept world religions is actually a particular ethos a pluralist ideology a logic of classification and a form of knowledge that has shaped the study of religion and infiltrated ordinary language In this ambitious study Tomoko Masuzawa examines the emergence of world religions in modern European thought Devoting particular attention to the relation between the comparative study of language and the nascent science of religion she demonstrates how new classifications of language and race caused Buddhism and Islam to gain special significance as these religions came to be seen in opposing terms Aryan on one hand and Semitic on the other Masuzawa also explores the complex relation of world religions to Protestant theology from the hierarchical ordering of religions typical of the Christian supremacists of the nineteenth century to the aspirations of early twentieth century theologian Ernst Troeltsch who embraced the pluralist logic of world religions and by so doing sought to
