Religion Education And Post Modernity:

Religion, Education and Post-Modernity Andrew Wright, 2003-12-16 This book the first to explore religious education and post modernity in depth sets out to provide a much needed examination of the problems and possibilities post modernity raises for religious education At once a general introduction to this topic and a distinctive contribution to the debate in its own right Religion Education and Post modernity explores and illuminates the problems and possibilities opened up for religious education by postmodern thought and culture The book describes the emergence of post modernity considers the impact of post modernity on religion addresses its impact on the philosophy of religion and considers the nature of religious education in the post modern world Andrew Wright argues that although post modernity has much to offer the religious educator there are also many pitfalls and dangers to be avoided Steering clear of the extreme of post modern hyper realism he constructs a religious pedagogy sensitive to post modern concerns for alterity difference and the voice of the Other whilst insisting on the importance of reasons in cultivating religious literacy Religion, Education, and Post-modernity Andrew Wright, 2004 This book the first to explore religious education and post modernity in depth sets out to provide a much needed examination of the problems and possibilities post modernity raises for religious education At once a general introduction to this topic and a distinctive contribution to the debate in its own right Religion Education and Post modernity explores and illuminates the problems and possibilities opened up for religious education by postmodern thought and culture The book describes the emergence of post modernity considers the impact of post modernity on religion addresses its impact on the philosophy of religion and considers the nature of religious education in the post modern world Andrew Wright argues that although post modernity has much to offer the religious educator there are also many pitfalls and dangers to be avoided Steering clear of the extreme of post modern hyper realism he constructs a religious pedagogy sensitive to post modern concerns for alterity difference and the voice of the Other whilst insisting on the importance of reasons in cultivating religious literacy

Gender, Religion and Education in a Chaotic Postmodern World Zehavit Gross, Lynn Davies, Al-Khansaa Diab, 2012-12-04 The immense changes that the world is undergoing in terms of globalization and migration of peoples have had a profound effect on cultures and identities The question is whether this means shifts in religious identities for women and men in different contexts whether such shifts are seen as beneficial negative or insufficient or whether social change actually means new conservatism or even fundamentalisms Surrounding these questions is the role of education is in any change or new contradiction This unique book enhances an interdisciplinary discourse about the complex intersections between gender religion and education in the contemporary world Literature in the social sciences and humanities have expanded our understanding of women s involvement in almost every aspect of life yet the combined religious educational aspect is still an under studied and often under theorized field of research How people experience their religious identity in a new context or country is also a theme now needing more complex attention

Questions of the body visibility and invisibility are receiving new treatments This book fills these gaps The book provides a strong comparative perspective with 15 countries or contexts represented The context of education and learning covers schools higher education non formal education religious institutions adult literacy curriculum and textbooks Overall the book reveals a great complexity and often contradiction in modern negotiations of religion and secularism by girls and boys women and men and a range of possibilities for change It provides a theoretical and practical resource for researchers religious and educational institutions policy makers and teachers

Crisis, Controversy and the Future of Religious Education L. Philip Barnes, 2019-12-05 Crisis Controversy and the Future of Religious Education sets out to provide a much needed critical examination of recent writings that consider and respond to the crisis in religious education and more widely to a crisis in non confessional forms of religious education wherever practised The book is critical wide ranging and provocative giving attention to a range of responses some limited to the particular situation of religious education in England and some of wider application for example that of the role and significance of human rights and that of the relevance of religious studies and theology to religious education It engages with a variety of positions and with recent influential reports that make recommendations on the future direction of religious education Constructively it defends both confessional and non confessional religious education and endorses the existing right of parental withdrawal Controversially it concludes that the case for including non religious worldviews in religious education and for the introduction of a statutory objective national religious education curriculum for all schools are both unconvincing on educational philosophical and evidential grounds Timely and captivating this book is a must read for religious and theological educators RE advisers classroom teachers student teachers and those interested in the field of religious education

Religious

Education as a Dialogue with Difference Kevin O'Grady, 2018-12-21 Religious Education as a Dialogue with Difference addresses current issues over the study of religion in publicly maintained schools Are liberal inclusive approaches to the study of religion suited to the aims of education in a democracy Do liberal democratic aims offer the right framework for the study of religion By presenting research on English secondary school pupils motivation in religious education this volume argues that religious education is best understood as a democratic dialogue with difference The book offers empirical evidence for this claim and it demonstrates how learners gain in religious literacy both through the exercise of democratic citizenship in the classroom and towards the goal of life long democratic citizenship A Critical Realist Perspective of Education Brad Shipway, 2010-07-20 Explores the capability of critical realism to throw light on educational theory This book investigates the convergence and divergence between two forms of critical realism It outlines the key characteristics that are necessary for a theological position to claim the term critical realist International Handbook of the Religious, Moral and Spiritual Dimensions in Education Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Kathleen Engebretson, Robert Jackson, Andrew McGrady, 2007-06-04 In today s pluralistic world many cultures feel a shift in the relationship of people with religious traditions A corresponding movement is a resurgence of interest in human spirituality This Handbook presents the views of education scholars who engage these concepts every day in a collection of essays reflecting the international state of the discipline Out of these rises a vision for the emergence of a just and peaceful world Schooling Indifference John I'Anson, Alison Jasper, 2017-06-14 This book is concerned with re imagining Religious Education RE as this is practiced in schools colleges and universities throughout the UK and in a wide variety of international educational contexts On the basis of a critical analysis of current theory and practice in RE the authors argue that this educational framing is no longer plausible in the light of new theoretical developments within the academy A new educational approach to RE is outlined that challenges students to think and practice differently This includes a becoming ethnographer that can acknowledge socio material relations and engage the broader literacies necessary for such study Part One examines how RE has been constructed as a discipline in historical and spatial terms that abstract its study from material concerns In Part Two the authors offer some new starting points Spinoza Foucault and feminist theory that differently foreground context and relationality and Islam read as a discursive located tradition rather than as world view Finally Part Three proposes a new trajectory for research and practice in RE with the aim of re engaging schools colleges and universities in a dialogue that promotes thinking and practice that as educational is continually in touch with the need to be critical open ended and ethically justifiable Teaching Islam Jenny Berglund, Does Religious Education Work? James C. Conroy, David Lundie, Robert A. Davis, Vivienne Baumfield, L. Philip Barnes, Tony Gallagher, Kevin Lowden, Nicole Bourque, Karen J. Wenell, 2013-10-31 Society for Educational Studies Annual Book Prize winner 2nd Prize This ground breaking volume draws upon a rich and variegated range of methodologies to understand more fully the practices policies and resources available in and to religious education in British schools The descriptions explanations and analyses undertaken here draw on an innovative combination of policy work ethnography Delphi methods Actor Network Theory questionnaires textual analysis as well as theological and philosophical insight It traces the evolution of religious education in a post religious age from the creation of policy to the everyday experiences of teachers and students in the classroom It begins by analysing the way in which policy has evolved since the 1970s with an examination of the social forces that have shaped curriculum development It goes on to explore the impact and intentions of a diverse group of stakeholders with sometimes competing accounts of the purposes of religious educations It then examines the manner in which policy is or is not enacted in the classroom Finally it explores contradictions and confusions successes and failures and the ways in which wider public debates enter the classroom The book also exposes the challenge religious education teachers have in using the language of religion

Curriculum Development in the Postmodern Era Patrick Slattery, 2006 This landmark text was one of the first to introduce and analyze contemporary concepts of curriculum that emerged from the Reconceptualization of curriculum studies in the 1970s and 1980s This new edition brings readers up to date on the major research themes postmodernism ecological hermeneutics aesthetics and arts based research race class gender sexuality and classroom practices within the historical development of the field from the 1950s to the present Like the previous editions it is unique in providing a comprehensive overview in a relatively short and highly accessible text Provocative and powerful narratives both biography and autoethnography throughout invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation School based examples allow readers to make connections to schools and society teacher education and professional development of teachers Changes in the Third Edition New Glossary brief summaries in the text direct readers to the Companion Website to read the entire entries New analysis of the current accountability movement in schools including the charter school movement More international references clearly connected to international contexts More narratives invite readers to engage the complex theories in a personal conversation Companion Website new for this edition Aestheticism, Postmodernism and Displacement in Jhumpa Lahiri's Fiction: A Novel View of the Search for Fulfillment by Obliviating the Past Nadia Anwar, 2017-05-10 This research explores how the desire to break with the barriers of tragic past and seeking survival in another world gives a new perspective to Diaspora It is not the existence in the new world which causes the disaster of individuals rather it is the tragic past which destroys their lives totally Moreover the rejection of old habits traditions and conditioning and a merging with the culture of the new context is an existing issue of the postmodern transcultural world The feeling of home is like something haunting and dark which frightens the people Their quest of survival in a transcultural world and their will to sacrifice their relations for that reason is an insight into situations of fast changing social fabric in India The male and the female agency works in order to build an individual identity and it constructs individual realities based on personal experiences the old world and the changing perceptions of the new world Making

European Muslims Mark Sedgwick, 2014-09-19 Making European Muslims provides an in depth examination of what it means to be a young Muslim in Europe today where the assumptions values and behavior of the family and those of the majority society do not always coincide Focusing on the religious socialization of Muslim children at home in semi private Islamic spaces such as mosques and Quran schools and in public schools the original contributions to this volume focus largely on countries in northern Europe with a special emphasis on the Nordic region primarily Denmark Case studies demonstrate the ways that family life public education and government policy intersect in the lives of young Muslims and inform their developing religious beliefs and practices Mark Sedgwick s introduction provides a framework for theorizing Muslimness in the European context arguing that Muslim children must navigate different and sometimes contradictory expectations and demands on their way to negotiating a European Muslim identity

Education, Religion and Society Dennis Bates, Gloria Durka, Friedrich Schweitzer, 2006-06-28 Education Religion and Society celebrates the career of Professor John Hull a leading figure in the transformation of religious education in English and Welsh schools and co founder of the International Seminar on Religious Education and Values He has also made major contributions to the theology of disability and the theological critique of the money culture Leading international scholars join together to offer a critical appreciation of his contribution to religious education and practical theology and explore the continuing debate about the role of religious education in promoting international understanding intercultural education and human rights The contributors also deal with indoctrination racism and relationship in Christian religious issues and examine aspects of the theology of social exclusion and disability This unique book includes a complete list of John Hull s writings up to the beginning of 2005 providing both an excellent introduction to contemporary issues of religious education in the West and the most complete critical account yet of his work

Religious Conversion: An African Perspective Brendan Carmody, 2018-09-17 Religious Conversion An African Perspective includes a selection of key texts which are not easily accessible elsewhere Most of the chapters discuss the long standing thesis of Robin Horton who argues that religious change results from social transformation The contributors provide different perspectives on what remains an ongoing provocative though inconclusive debate The book has chapters on conversion in Africa from such authorities as Robin Horton Humphrey Fisher and Richard Gray It also contains chapters on Zambia by Elizaebeth Colson Brendan Carmody Austin Cheyeka Felix Phiri and W Van Binsbergen This collection of chapters provides an introduction to the discussion surrounding the query Did the Christian and Muslim messages bring something fundamentally new to the African religious horizon What has indigenisation meant What is the role of traditional religion

Encountering Religious Pluralism in School and Society Thorsten Knauth, Special Religious Education in Australia and its Value to Contemporary Society Zehavit Gross, Suzanne D. Rutland, 2021-02-22 This book explores the advantages of and challenges concerning Special Religious Education SRE in multicultural Australia and argues for the need for General Religious Education GRE as well Through the lens of the most recent scholarship and drawing on an in depth qualitative study and specific case studies the book examines the current debate on the role of religious education within government schools It addresses key concepts of values education spirituality health and wellbeing and cultural and religious identity It analyses why it is important to retain SRE together with GRE as government policy It explores highly relevant controversial and contested issues regarding SRE including the 30% of Australia s population who declare themselves as having no religion and brings fresh insights to the table While secularization has increased in both the national and international spheres there has also been an increase in fundamentalism within religious beliefs Events such as the September 11 terror attacks and the more recent mass shootings by white supremacists and eco fascists in Christchurch New Zealand and Pittsburgh and San Diego in the USA are reminders that religion is still a major actor in the twenty first century This poses new challenges for the relationship between church and state and demonstrates the need to revisit the role of religious education within government schools While the importance of GRE is generally acknowledged SRE has increasingly come under attack by some researchers and teacher and parent bodies as being inappropriate and contradictory to the values of the postmodern world On the other hand the key stakeholders from all the faith traditions in Australia wish to retain the SRE classes in government schools The book addresses this burning issue and shows that it is relevant not only for Australia but also globally

Being Christian in Education Hazel Bryan, Howard Worsley, 2015-10-30 Experienced practitioners theologians and academics reflect on the Christian voice as it engages in education today At a time of national uncertainty for RE questions about faith based schools and the place of religious belief in the public arena this volume is a resource for school and university teachers head teachers chaplains governors diocesan officers concerned parents educationalists It offers a frank discussion about the tensions in bringing faith into the open in current educational contexts theological reflection of Christian engagement in the public place a creative exploration of the future for Christian engagement in education It also considers the tensions inherent in practising Christian faith within a secular context and in multi faith contexts It aims to generate new confidence that will encourage the practice and contribution of faith based thinking in schools

Embracing the Tune of Term: An Mental Symphony within Religion Education And Post Modernity

In some sort of eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast interaction, the melodic beauty and mental symphony created by the published term frequently disappear into the background, eclipsed by the persistent sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Religion Education And Post Modernity a charming fictional treasure filled with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a masterful musician of language, that charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this poignant evaluation, we will investigate the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
