The Grad Student's Guide to Getting Published Alida Allison, Terri Frongia, 1992

Publish, Don't Perish Joseph Moxley, 1992-08-30 Expressing a strongly positive view of the value of academic publishing that reaches far beyond what is implied by the book title Moxley offers informed suggestions to faculty members for conceiving developing and publishing scholarly documents as books or journal articles His book discusses the composing processes of successful writers and provides specific guidelines for various types of writing including abstracts book proposals and grant proposals Writers are instructed in applying the standards and techniques used by professional editors for evaluating and editing manuscripts Moxley also addresses political and economic factors that impinge on what is written and published and suggests ways to involve institutions and professional organizations in motivating scholarship writing and publishing Books in Series, 1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles Encyclopedia of Religion Lindsay Jones, 2005 This second edition which is intended to reflect both changes in academia and in the world since 1987 includes almost all of the 2 750 original entries many heavily updated as well as approximately 600 entirely new articles It emphasizes religion's role within everyday life and as a unique experience from culture to culture Reference Works for Theological Research Robert J. Kepple, John R. Muether, 1992 A classified annotated bibliographical guide to over 700 works useful for theological research Designed to serve both as a textbook for the study of such tools and as a tool for the rapid location of appropriate reference works when doing theological research This book contains substantial additions changes and revisions from the second edition published in 1981

Philosophy Hans E. Bynagle, 2006-05-30 A newly reorganized up to date overview of key reference works in philosophy reflects a veritable explosion of reference sources both print and online published over the past decade Nearly 300 of the 700 entries consist of new material with an additional 50 entries substantially revised and updated English language sources are emphasized but important non English works are also well represented For professional philosophers philosophy educators students from beginning to graduate and librarians This guide represents a substantial updating and complete reorganization of the author's 1997 Philosophy A Guide to the Reference Literature 2nd edition 1st edition 1986 It reflects a veritable explosion of reference sources both print and online in the field of philosophy over the past decade Nearly 300 entries or 40 percent are entirely new An additional 50 or so entries have substantial revisions recording new editions changes in serial publications series and websites or additional volumes completed in multi volume sets In addition it has been entirely reorganized along topical lines Each of its twenty three chapters is divided into four sections 1 general sources 2 history of philosophy 3 branches of philosophy and 4 miscellanea This new arrangement accords better with the greatly expanded range of philosophy reference sources and makes it easier for the user to identify related sources of different types bibliographies dictionaries web gateways etc on the same topic Like its predecessor Guide to Reference Sources in Philosophy the 3rd edition aims to serve a diverse audience of professional philosophers philosophy educators students from beginning to graduate and librarians All entries include generous annotations that are often evaluative as well as descriptive English language sources are emphasized but non English works important to researchers or of interest to users with facility in other languages are also well represented The Catholic Library World John M. O'Loughlin, Francis Emmett Fitzgerald, 1988 Journals of the Century Tony Stankus, 2019-12-06 This book first published in 2002 gathers some of America's top subject expert librarians to determine the most influential journals in their respective fields 32 contributing authors reviewed journals from over twenty countries that have successfully shaped the evolution of their individual specialties worldwide Their choices reflect the history of each discipline or profession taking into account rivalries between universities professional societies for profit and not for profit publishers and even nation states and international ideologies in each journal's quest for reputational dominance Each journal was judged using criteria such as longevity of publication foresight in carving out its niche ability to attract none are in the employ of any publisher but each is fully credentialed and well published and many are award winners The authors guide college and professional school librarians on limited budgets via an exposition of their analytical and critical winnowing process in determining the classic resources for their faculty students and working professional clientele
