Religions Of The Eastwest:

Literature, Religion, and East/West Comparison Anthony C. Yu, 2005 This book pays critical homage to the eminent comparatist of Chinese and Western literature and religion Anthony C Yu of The University of Chicago Broadly comparative cross cultural and interdisciplinary in scope the volume consists of an introductory essay on Yu s scholarly career and thirteen additional essays on topics such as literary texts and traditions of varying provenance and periods ranging from ancient Greece medieval Europe and nineteenth and twentieth century England and America to China from the classical to modern periods The disciplines and areas of research that the essays draw into constructive engagement with one another include comparative literature religion and literature history of religions or comparative religion religion and social thought and the study of myth Eric Ziolkowski is Professor and Head of the Department of Religious Studies at Lafayette College

Religions and Societies, Asia and the Middle East Carlo Cadda, 1982 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Friedrich Max Müller and the Sacred Books of the East Arie L. Molendijk, 2016-07-28 This volume offers a critical analysis of one the most ambitious editorial projects of late Victorian Britain the edition of the fifty substantial volumes of the Sacred Books of the East 1879 1910 The series was edited and conceptualized by Friedrich Max Müller 1823 1900 a world famous German born philologist orientalist and religious scholar Müller and his influential Oxford colleagues secured financial support from the India Office of the British Empire and from Oxford University Press Arie L Molendijk documents how the series has become a landmark in the development of the humanities especially the study of religion and language in the second half of the nineteenth century The edition also contributed significantly to the Western perception of the religious or even mystic East which was textually represented in English translations The series was a token of the rise of big science and textualized the East by selecting their sacred books and bringing them under the power of western scholarship Bibliography on East Asian Religion and Philosophy, 2001 This comprehensive research bibliography compiles annotates indexes and cross references resources in the principal Western languages which focus on China Japan and Korea in the areas of philosophy and religious studies supporting resources in theology history culture and related social sciences A notable additional feature is the inclusion of extensive Internet based resources such as a wide variety of web sites discussion lists electronic texts virtual libraries online journals and related material Revelation and Material Religion in the Roman East Nathan Leach, Daniel Charles Smith, Tony

Keddie,2023-11-30 This collection of essays from a diverse group of internationally recognized scholars builds on the work of Steven J Friesen to analyze the material and ideological dimensions of John s Apocalypse and the religious landscape of the Roman East Readers will gain new perspectives on the interpretation of John s Apocalypse the religion of Hellenistic cities in the Roman Empire and the political and economic forces that shaped life in the Eastern Mediterranean The chapters in this volume examine texts and material culture through carefully localized analysis that attends to ideological and socioeconomic contexts expanding upon aspects of Friesen s research and methodology while also forging new directions The book brings together a diverse and international set of experts including emerging voices in the fields of biblical studies Roman social history and classical archeology and each essay presents fresh critically informed analysis of key sites and texts from the periods of Christian origins and Roman imperial rule Revelation and Material Religion in the Roman East is of interest to students and scholars working on Christian origins ancient Judaism Roman religion classical archeology and the social history of the Roman Empire as well as material religion in the ancient Mediterranean more broadly It is also suitable for religious practitioners within Christian contexts
