Steadman, 2023-06-29 With contributions spanning from the Neolithic Age to the Iron Age this book offers important insights into the religions and ritual practices in ancient Egyptian and Near Eastern communities through the lenses of their material remains The book begins with a theoretical introduction to the concept of material religion and features editor introductions to each of its six parts which tackle the following themes the human body religious architecture the written word sacred images the spirituality of animals and the sacred role of the landscape Illustrated with over 100 images chapters provide insight into every element of religion and materiality from the largest building to the smallest amulet This is a benchmark work for further studies on material religion in the ancient Near East and Egypt

Women and Religion in the Ancient Near East and Asia Nicole Maria Brisch, Fumi Karahashi, 2023-04-03 The recent years have seen an upswing in studies of women in the ancient Near East and related areas This volume which is the result of a Danish Japanese collaboration seeks to highlight women as actors within the sphere of the religious In ancient Mesopotamia and other ancient civilizations religious beliefs and practices permeated all aspects of society and for this reason it is not possible to completely dissociate religion from politics economy or literature Thus the goal is to shift the perspective by highlighting the different ways in which the agency of women can be traced in the historical and archaeological record This perspectival shift can be seen in studies of elite women who actively contributed to religious gift giving or participated in temple economies or through showing the limits of elite women's agency in relation to diplomatic marriages Additionally several contributions examine the roles of women as religious officials and the language worship or invocation of goddesses This volume does not aim at completeness but seeks to highlight points for further research and new perspectives

Space and Time in the Religious Life of the Near East Nicolas Wyatt, 2001-12-01 Space and time are basic features of the world view even the theology of many religions ancient and modern How did the world begin and how will it end What is the importance of religious architecture in symbolizing sacred space Where and how do we locate the self The divine world Wyatt's textbook treats ancient Near Eastern religions from a perspective that allows us to access how religion shapes and orders the world of human thought and experience The book is designed especially for classroom use each chapter provided with suggested reading copious quotations from ancient texts and summaries The subject matter is treated by topic not according to individual religions so that the reader understands the essential points of similarity and difference between religious systems and how they model their universe

Geography, Religion, Gods, and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean Erica Ferg, 2020-01-16 Geography Religion Gods and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean explores the influence of geography on religion and highlights a largely unknown story of religious history in the Eastern Mediterranean In the Levant agricultural communities of Jews Christians and Muslims jointly venerated and largely shared three important saints or holy figures Jewish Elijah Christian St George and Muslim al-Khi'r These figures share peculiar characteristics such as associations with rain greenness fertility and storms Only in the Eastern Mediterranean are Elijah St George and al-Khi'r shared between religious communities or characterized by these same agricultural attributes attributes that also were shared by regional religious figures from earlier time periods such as the ancient Near Eastern Storm god Baal Hadad and Levantine Zeus This book tells the story of how that came to be and suggests that the figures share specific characteristics over a very long period of time because these motifs were shaped by the geography of the region Ultimately this book suggests that regional geography has influenced regional religion that Judaism Christianity and Islam are not historically or textually speaking separate religious traditions even if Jews Christians and Muslims are members of distinct religious communities and that shared religious practices between members of these and other local religious communities are not unusual Instead shared practices arose out of a common geographical environment and an interconnected religious heritage and are a natural historical feature of religion in the Eastern Mediterranean This volume will be of interest to students of ancient Near Eastern religions Judaism Christianity Islam sainthood agricultural communities in the ancient Near East Middle Eastern religious and cultural history and the relationships between geography and religion The Incomparability of Yahweh in the Old Testament Casper J. Labuschagne, 1966 Art and Architecture of the World's Religions Leslie D. Ross, 2009-06-04 Two abundantly illustrated volumes offer a vibrant discussion of how the divine is and has been represented in art and architecture the world over Beginning with the ancient worlds of Mesopotamia Egypt Greece and Rome and moving forward through time Art and Architecture of the World's Religions explores the major faiths from countries and continents around the globe helping readers better understand the creations their beliefs have inspired After tracing the history and development of a religion the book provides a general overview of its principal beliefs and key practices It then offers specific examples of how works of art architecture reflect that religion's values The focus of each chapter is on the temples churches and religious buildings statues paintings and other works of art and architecture created by believers Each representative work of art or architecture is examined in terms of its history materials symbols colors and patterns as its significance is explained to the reader With extensive illustrations these volumes are the definitive reference work on art and architecture of the world's religions Religions of the Ancient Near East (to 323 B.C.)
