Religious Art Émile Mâle, 1968      Religious Art, from the Twelfth to the Eighteenth Century, Etc. [Selections from the Author's Four Works on Religious Art.]. Émile MÂLE, 1949      The Religious Paintings of Hendrick ter Brugghen Natasha T. Seaman, 2017-07-05 The first in depth study of the Utrecht artist to address questions beyond connoisseurship and attribution this book makes a significant contribution to Ter Brugghen and Northern Caravaggist studies Focusing on the Dutch master's simultaneous use of Northern archaisms with Caravaggio's motifs and style Natasha Seaman nuances our understanding of Ter Brugghen's appropriations from the Italian painter Her analysis centers on four paintings all depicting New Testament subjects They include Ter Brugghen's largest and first known signed work Crowning with Thorns his most archaizing the Crucifixion and the two paintings most directly related to the works of Caravaggio the Doubting Thomas and the Calling of Matthew By examining the ways in which Ter Brugghen's paintings deliberately diverge from Caravaggio's Seaman sheds new light on the Utrecht artist and his work For example she demonstrates that where Caravaggio's paintings are boldly illusionistic and mimetic thus de-emphasizing their materiality Ter Brugghen's works examined here create the opposite effect connecting their content to their made form This study not only illuminates the complex meanings of the paintings addressed here but also offers insights into the image debates and the status of devotional art in Italy and Utrecht in the seventeenth century by examining one artist's response to them      Key Writers on Art: The Twentieth Century Chris Murray, 2005-06-27 A unique and authoritative guide to modern responses to art Featuring forty eight essays and written by a panel of expert contributors it introduces readers to the key approaches and analytical tools of contemporary art study and debate      The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts      The New World in Early Modern Italy, 1492-1750 Elizabeth Horodowich, Lia Markey, 2017-11-16 This volume considers Italy's history and examines how Italians became fascinated with the New World in the early modern period

Imaging the Other Marie A. Conn, Thérèse McGuire, 2009-12-11 Imaging the Other Essays on Diversity emerged from Nancy Porter's essay in Conn and McGuire's second collection of essays Not Etched in Stone Essays on Ritual Memory Soul and Society Porter explored the creation of the other as the basis for conflict among humans In the present collection each author considered the general theme in the context of her or his own background interests and research At a time when much of the world is in turmoil these essays speak of the other how we create categories the consequences of such categories and ways of re-imaging those who for whatever reason are different from us Each essay in this collection stands on its own and grows out of the author's unique discipline and experience however these essays intersect with each other in many intriguing ways

Paris to the Past Ina Caro, 2012-04-16 I'd rather go to France with Ina Caro than with Henry Adams or Henry James Newsweek In one of the most inventive travel books in years Ina Caro invites readers on twenty five one day train trips that depart from Paris and transport us back through seven hundred years of French history Whether taking us to Orlans to evoke the visions of Joan of Arc or to the Place de la Concorde to witness the beheading of Marie Antoinette Caro animates history with her lush descriptions of architectural splendors and tales of court intrigue An enchanting travelogue Publishers Weekly Paris to the Past has become one of the classic guidebooks of our time

The Science of Pleasure Harvie Ferguson, 2005-09-29 In this rich and original work the author argues that science is the highest expression of bourgeois thought and whilst it may have liberated mankind it has also devised new forms of repression discipline and control

Milton and This Pendant World George W. Whiting, 2014-11-11 Milton and This Pendant World is an interpretation of the great English poet in an age increasingly skeptical in a culture dominated by the assumptions of the natural and historical sciences and by the illusions of progress and enlightenment Those are the words of the author of this book George Wesley Whiting an eminent and devoted Miltonian Believing that Milton has a vital message for the modern world Whiting has abandoned the usual pattern for examining a poet study of versification meter and other poetic devices Instead he presents an exposition of the spiritual and moral meaning of Milton's poetry which can still have truth and beauty for this doubting age The literary image of the pendant world was familiar in Milton's seventeenth century but is meaningless to most people of our day The comforting picture of the world hanging from heaven on a golden chain signifies God's close watchfulness over humanity and the inseparable bond which links us to the spiritual kingdom The author declares that the search for God and the struggle to overcome the spiritual and material forces that impede the search represent the most vital of all human efforts for unless this search is our primary motivation life is without meaning without final purpose Whiting also observes that true Christianity stands not for the impoverishment of humanity and our enslavement to the Deity but rather for human moral health harmonious development and spiritual welfare In order to save civilization from destruction at the hands of its friends
