Robert Yelle, 2012-12-20 Integrates structural and historical perspectives on the semiotics of religion and gives an account of the distinctive features of religious language and symbolism Reading Images and Seeing Words ,2021-11-01 The simultaneously tautological and oxymoronic nature of word image relations has become a subject of massive debate in the post modern period This is not only because of the increasing predominance of word image messages within our modern media saturated culture but also because intellectual disciplines are becoming increasingly sensitized to the essentially hybrid nature of the way we construct meaning in the world The essays in this volume offer an exemplary insight into both aspects of this phenomenon Focussing on both traditional and modern media theatre fiction poetry graphic art cinema the essays of Reading Images and Seeing Words are deeply concerned to show how it is according to signifying codes rhetoric poetics metaphor that meaning and knowledge are produced Not the least value of this collection is the insight it gives into the multiple models of word image interaction and the rich ambiguity of the tautological and oxymoronic relations they embody Space and Conversion in Global Perspective ,2014-10-30 Space and Conversion in Global Perspective examines experiences of conversion as they intersect with physical location mobility and interiority The volume s innovative approach is global and encompasses multiple religious traditions Conversion emerges as a powerful force in early modern globalization In thirteen essays the book ranges from the urban settings of Granada and Cuzco to mission stations in Latin America and South India from villages in Ottoman Palestine and Middle Volga Russia to Italian hospitals and city squares and from Atlantic slave ships to the inner life of a Muslim turned Jesuit Drawing on extensive archival and iconographic materials this collection invites scholars to rethink conversion in light of the spatial turn Contributors are Paolo Aranha Emanuele Colombo Irene Fosi Mercedes Garc a Arenal Agnieszka Jagodzi ska Aliocha Maldavsky Giuseppe Marcocci Susana Bastos Mateus Adriano Prospero Gabriela Ramos Rocco Sacconaghi Felicita Tramontana Guillermo Wilde and Oxana Zemtsova The Odyssey Experience Neil J. Smelser,2009-03-05 The Odyssey Experience puts forward the view that a journey as encapsulated by the journey of Odysseus provides a fundamental and archetypal human experience and develops a theory of this experience through personal experiences and a wide range of salient phenomena There is a vast literature inspired by The Odyssey but the way that Smelser approaches the subject is entirely unique Yiannis Gabriel University of London Smelser draws together studies of an astonishing range of diverse topics and subsumes them under a single coherent powerful overarching concept the odyssey experience I believe his book will lead to the establishment of an entirely new field of study in the social and behavioral sciences that will open up new and promising lines of theory and research that until now have not been possible Robert Scott Associate Director emeritus Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences

Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto,2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault s de centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self transformation The author s original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault s concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology

Forced Baptisms Marina Caffiero, 2012 This book makes use of newly available archival sources to reexamine the Roman Catholic Church s policy from the sixteenth to nineteenth centuries of coercing the Jews of Rome into converting to Christianity Marina Caffiero one of the first historians permitted access to important archives sets individual stories of denunciation betrayal pleading and conflict into historical context to highlight the Church s actions and the Jewish response Caffiero documents the regularity with which Jews were abducted from the Roman ghetto and pressured to accept baptism She analyzes why some Jewish men interested in gaining a business advantage were more inclined to accept conversion than the women The book exposes the complexity of relations between the papacy and the Jews revealing the Church not as a monolithic entity but as a network of competing institutions and affirming the Roman Jews as active agents of resistance

Shared Idioms, Sacred Symbols, and the Articulation of Identities in South Asia Kelly Pemberton, Michael Nijhawan, 2009-01-13 This work focuses on processes of articulating identity The notions of shared idioms and sacred symbols shaping this volume suggest both a search for common ground and boundary drawing processes Individual chapters locate sites of these modes and the conditions that engender them problematizing the truth claims of unitary markers of identity

Theology and the Arts Ruth Illman, W. Alan Smith, 2013-06-07 This book brings the emerging fields of practical theology and theology of the arts into a dialogue beyond the bias of modern systematic and constructive theology The authors draw upon postmodern post secular feminist liberation and dialogical dialectical philosophy and theology and their critiques of the narrow modern emphases on reason and the scientific method as the model for all knowledge Such a practical theology of the arts focuses the work of theology on the actual practices that engage the arts in their various forms as the means of interpreting and understanding the nature of the communities and their members as well as the mechanisms through which these communities engage in transformative work to make persons and neighborhoods whole This book presents its theological claims through the careful analysis of several stories of communities around the world that have engaged in transformational practices through a specific art form investigating communities from Europe the Middle East South America and the U S The case studies explored include Jewish Christian Muslim Druze indigenous and sometimes agnostic subjects involved in visual art music dance theatre documentary film and literature Theology and the Arts demonstrates that the challenges of a postmodern and post secular context require a fundamental rethinking of theology that focuses on discrete practices of faithful communities rather than one dimensional theories about religion

The Origin of Heresy Robert M. Royalty, 2013-05-07 Heresy is a central concept in the formation of Orthodox Christianity Where does this notion come from This book traces the construction of the idea of heresy in the rhetoric of ideological disagreements in Second Temple Jewish and early Christian texts and in the development of the polemical rhetoric against heretics called heresiology Here author Robert Royalty argues one finds the origin of what comes to be labelled heresy in the second century In other words there was such a thing as heresy in ancient Jewish and Christian discourse before it was called heresy And by the end of the first century the notion of heresy was integral to the political positioning of the early orthodox Christian party within the Roman Empire and the range of other Christian communities This book is an original contribution to the field of Early Christian studies Recent treatments of the origins of heresy and Christian identity have focused on the second century rather than on the earlier texts including the New Testament The book further makes a methodological contribution by blurring the line between New Testament Studies and Early Christian studies employing ideological and post colonial critical methods

Religions in Movement Robert Hefner, John Hutchinson, Sara Mels, Christiane Timmerman, 2013-10-23 There has long been a debate about implications of globalization for the survival of the world of sovereign nation states and the role of nationalism as both an agent of and a response to globalization In contrast until recently there has been much less debate about the fate of religion Globalization has been viewed as part of the rationalization process which has already relegated religion to the dustbin of history just as it threatens the nation as the world moves toward a cosmopolitan ethics and politics The chapters in this book however make the case for the salience and resilience of religion often in conjunction with nationalism in the contemporary world in several ways This book highlights the diverse ways in which religions first and foremost make use of the traditional power and communication channels available to them like strategies of conversion the preservation of traditional value systems and the intertwining of religious and political power Nevertheless challenged by a more culturally and religiously diversified societies and by the growth of new religious sects contemporary religions are also forced to let go of these well known strategies of preservation and formulate new ways of establishing their position in local contexts This collection of essays by established and emerging scholars brings together theory driven and empirically based research and case studies about the global and bottom up strategies of religions and religious traditions in Europe and beyond to rethink their positions in their local communities and in the world
