Religious Studies Theology And The University Conflicting Maps Changing Terrain:

Religious Studies, Theology, and the University Linell E. Cady, Delwin Brown, 2002-10-10 Explores the relationship between religious studies and theology and the place of each in the modern secular university Religious Studies, Theology, and Human Flourishing Justin Thomas McDaniel, Hector Kilgoe, 2024 Religious Studies Theology and Human Flourishing contains essays by nine prominent scholars of religious studies and theology on approaches to cultivating human flourishing within the field of positive psychology Part of The Humanities and Human Flourishing series this volume represents perspectives from north India to the buckle of the American Bible Belt and explores the implications of religious studies and theology for well being illuminating connections between theory pedagogy and practice Teaching Civic Engagement Forrest Clinger, Reid B. Locklin, 2017-08 Teaching Civic Engagement offers a new conceptual model an examination of theoretical questions and concerns and a variety of concrete teaching strategies to assist faculty in engaging questions of civic belonging and social activism in religion classrooms The book explores the civic relevance of the academic study of religion Analytic Theology and the Academic Study of Religion William Wood, 2021-01-28 Analytic theology can flourish in the secular academy and flourish as authentically Christian theology Analytic Theology and the Academic Study of Religion explains analytic theology to other theologians and scholars of religion while simultaneously explaining those other fields to analytic theologians William Wood defends analytic theology from some common criticisms but also argues that analytic theologians have much to learn from other forms of inquiry Analytic theology is a legitimate form of theology and a legitimate form of academic inquiry and it can be a valuable conversation partner within the wider religious studies academy Analytic Theology and the Academic Study of Religion articulates an attractive vision of analytic theology fosters a more fruitful inter disciplinary conversation and enables scholars across the religious studies academy to understand one another better The Gift of Theology Rosemary P. Carbine, Hilda P. Koster, 2015-12-01 Kathryn Tanner is undoubtedly one of the most important contemporary North American theologians From landmark studies in systematic and constructive theology to economics Tanner s work is a contribution of inestimable value hallmarked by its depth precision provocativeness and grace Unifying the immense scope of her work is the particular vision of God s self gift an internal dynamic communal reality that is expressed outward in acts of love and generosity that are creation incarnation and capacious life in the Spirit This vision as the grounding matrix of Tanner s theology has been extended beyond the disciplinary boundaries of theology in constructive explorations of economics social and political theory cultural studies and ethics This volume celebrates the vision and breadth of Tanner s unique contribution Essays by established scholars colleagues and former students trace out the key loci and themes from theological method the Trinity Christology creation to economics environmental and social ethics and politics to generate constructive and ecumenical conversation that presents Tanner as an important contemporary public theologian Explorations in Post-Secular Metaphysics Josef Bengtson,2015-11-02 This book explores the metaphysical assumptions that underlie different interpretations of the relationship between religion and the secular faith and reason and transcendence and immanence It explores different answers to the question of how people of diverse religious and cultural identities can live together peacefully Religion Inside and Outside Traditional Institutions International Society for Empirical Research in Theology. Conference,2007 Religion inside and outside Traditional Institutions combines conceptual reflection methodological proposals and research results that help to understand contemporary religious praxis These contributions to empirical theology thereby adopt a perspective which includes religious praxis outside traditional institutions Comparative Secularisms in a Global Age L. Cady,E. Hurd,2010-05-10 The history and politics of secularism and the public role of religion in France India Turkey and the United States It interprets the varieties of secularism as a series of evolving and contested processes of defining and remaking religion rather than a static solution to the challenges posed by religious and political difference What is Religion? Nigel Ajay Kumar,2014-01-15 What Is Religion is one of those questions rarely asked by Christian theologians who engage in interreligious discourse Nigel Ajay Kumar makes the case however that to answer this question is critical for Christian scholars who want to negotiate multiple religious identities as well as for those who want a clearer understanding of their own faith as religion Kumar takes a historical and theological approach to answering this question The history of the concept of religion is traced from biblical times to the Indian independence era Then a theological answer is offered not only by looking at the classical Indian theologian Pandipeddi Chenchiah but also by listening to other contemporary secular and theological voices This is the South Asian Edition of the original Wipf Stock edition 2013 with the same name Empirical Theology in Texts and Tables Leslie J. Francis,Jeff Astley,Mandy Robbins,2009-01-31 Empirical theology offers fresh and stimulating insights into the concerns of both the Church and the Academy It does this by accessing relevant empirical evidence using the tools of the social sciences and placing this evidence in the context of theological critique and contemporary debate In this pioneering collection of focused essays leading experts of empirical theology illustrate key perspectives within this rapidly expanding discipline The first section of the book explores theoretical issues underpinning the main methods of obtaining empirical data and the use of these data within theology The other two sections display the role both of qualitative studies and of the analysis of quantitative data in exploring a range of theological beliefs and religious social and educational concerns Regional, Critical, and Historical Approaches Peter Antes,Armin W. Geertz,Randi R. Warne,2008-12-19 Internationally recognized scholars from many parts of the world provide a critical survey of recent developments and achievements in the global field of religious studies The work follows in the footsteps of two former publications Classical Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Jacques Waardenburg 1973 and Contemporary Approaches to the Study of Religion edited by Frank Whaling 1984 85 New Approaches to the Study of Religion completes the survey of the comparative study of religion in the twentieth century by focussing on the past two decades Many of the chapters however are also pathbreaking and point the way to future approaches      African American Theology Frederick L. Ware, 2016-03-01 This book presents a substantial introduction to the major methodologies figures and themes within African American theology Frederick L Ware explores African American theology from its inception and places it within dual contexts first the African American struggle for dignity and full humanity and second the broader scope of Christian belief Readers will appreciate Ware s demonstration of how black theology is expressed in a wide range of sources that includes not only scholarly publications but also African American sermons music news and editorials biography literature popular periodicals folklore and philosophy Each chapter concludes with questions for discussion and suggested resources for further study Ware provides a seasoned perspective on where African American theology has been and where it is going and he demonstrates its creativity within the chorus of Christian theology      Christian Theology and the Secular University Paul A. Macdonald, Jr., 2017-02-24 If the secular university by definition is non sectarian or non denominational then how can it accommodate a discipline like Christian theology Doesn t the traditional goal of theological study which is to attain knowledge of the divine fundamentally conflict with the main goal of secular academic study which is to attain knowledge about ourselves and the world in which we live So why should theology be admitted or even care about being admitted into secular academic life And even if theology were admitted what contribution to secular academic life could it make Working from a Christian philosophical and theological perspective but also engaging a wide range of theologians philosophers and religious studies scholars Christian Theology and the Secular University takes on these questions arguing that Christian theology does belong in the secular university because it provides distinct resources that the secular university needs if it is going to fulfill what should be its main epistemic and educative ends This book offers a fresh and unique perspective to scholars working in the disciplines of theology philosophy and religious studies and to those in other academic disciplines who are interested in thinking critically and creatively about the place and nature of theological study within the secular university      In Academia for the Church Ábrahám Kovács, Zoltán Schwáb, 2014-08-14 Tension between theory and practice in theological education is an unfortunate yet common occurrence with educators sometimes finding themselves on one extreme or the other Some academics can be so immersed in high level theological discourse that they hardly interact with the main questions of the average church goer while others are so keen to be engaging and relevant they fail to be rigorous in their scholarship Regardless of the reasons the results are the same failure to present the good news with a powerful credible voice To address this tension between academia and the church a group of Eastern European theologians came together in the spring of 2013 in Berekf do Hungary This publication is a collection of 10 edited papers presented at that conference While topics are addressed from a European context the principles behind them are far reaching providing important insight for the global church and academy alike      Religion and Politics Johann P. Arnason, 2014-04-23 Combining theoretical and empirical research these 12 essays examine the role of religion and its prospects in Europe On the one hand the volume discusses growing Islamic presence in Europe as a reminder of enduring religious pluralism not least in view of the high prominence given to Islamic experience in arguments against over generalised notions of secularisation On the other hand it explores the question of Christian motivated extremism and religious nationalism Against this background the contributors discuss the role of religion in other countries throughout the world including China Japan Russia and the MENA region

Religion within the Limits of History Alone Demian Wheeler,2020-09-01 Among the greatest challenges facing religious thinkers today is that created by historicism the notion that human beings and their myriad understandings of reality are utterly historical conditioned by contingent circumstances and tied to particular contexts In this book Demian Wheeler confronts the historicist challenge by delineating and defending a particular trajectory of historicist thought known as pragmatic historicism Rooted in the German Enlightenment and fully developed within the early Chicago school of theology pragmatic historicism is a predominantly American tradition that was philosophically nurtured by classical pragmatism and its intellectual siblings naturalism and radical empiricism Religion within the Limits of History Alone not only undertakes a detailed genealogy of this pragmatic historicist lineage but also sets forth a constructive program for contemporary theology by charting a path for its future development Wheeler shows that pragmatic historicism is an underdeveloped resource for contemporary theology since it offers a model for normative religious thought that is theologically compelling yet wholly nonsupernaturalistic deeply pluralistic unflinchingly liberal and radically historicist

Teaching Interreligious Encounters Marc A. Pugliese,Alexander Y. Hwang,2017-08-01 In Teaching Interreligious Encounters Marc A Pugliese and Alexander Y Hwang have gathered together a multidisciplinary and international group of scholar teachers to explore the pedagogical issues that occur at the intersection of different religious traditions This volume is a theoretical and practical guide for new teachers as well as seasoned scholars It breaks the pedagogy of interreligious encounters down into five distinct components In the first part essays explore the theory of teaching these encounters in the second essays discuss course design The parts that follow engage practical ideas for teaching textual analysis practice and real world application Despite their disciplinary contextual and methodological diversity these essays share a common vision for the learning goals and outcomes of teaching interreligious encounters This is a much needed resource for any teacher participating in these conversations in our age of globalization and migration with its attendant hopes and fears

The Integral Philosophy of Aurobindo Brainerd Prince,2017-01-20 Sri Aurobindo was an Indian nationalist philosopher yogi guru and poet This book is an enquiry into the integral philosophy of Aurobindo and its contemporary relevance It offers a reading of Aurobindo s key texts by bringing them into conversation with religious studies and the hermeneutical traditions The central argument is that Aurobindo s integral philosophy is best understood as a hermeneutical philosophy of religion Such an understanding of Aurobindo s philosophy offering both substantive and methodological insights for the academic study of religion subdivides into three interrelated aims The first is to demonstrate that the power of the Aurobindonian vision lies in its self conception as a traditionary hermeneutical enquiry into religion the second to draw substantive insights from Aurobindo s enquiry to envision a way beyond the impasse within the current religious secular debate in the academic study of religion Working out of the condition of secularism the dominant secularists demand the abandonment of the category religion and the dismantling of the academic discipline of religious studies Aurobindo s integral work on religion arising out of the Ved nta tradition critiques the condition of secularity that undergirds the religious secular debate Finally informed by the hermeneutical tradition and building on the methodological insights from Aurobindo s integral method the book explores a hermeneutical approach for the study of religion which is dialogical in nature This book will be of interest to academics studying Religious Studies Philosophy of Religion Continental Hermeneutics Modern India Modern Hinduism as well as South Asian Studies

Theology and the Anthropology of Christian Life Joel Robbins,2020 How can we understand the role of religion in human experience and social life This book argues that anthropology and theology can work together to answer this question Robbins provides clear accounts of contemporary anthropological theory and theological debates around issues such as atonement sin and the potentials and limits of human action
