Religious Transformation In Western Society:

Religious Transformation in Western Society (Routledge Revivals) Harvie Ferguson, 2010-12-01 Originally published in 1992 this remarkable book challenges many of the assumptions governing the Sociology of Religion and the Sociology of Culture by arguing that Western religion is neither science nor morality it is the promise of happiness Learned and incisive it will be essential reading for students of religion culture and anyone interested in the character of Modernity Changes in Religious and Spiritual Practices in Western Society Dr. Anthony B. Atwam (PhD), 2025-01-22 Adopting an interdisciplinary approach between the sociology of religion and practical theology this book examines the dynamic changes in religious and spiritual practices in the West from the 1960s From this examination the book demonstrates that westerners are becoming spiritually hungry and there is also a general thirst for righteousness When people demand faithfulness and loyalty in marriages relationships and at the workplace that is a thirst for righteousness Furthermore these changes are also leading to a paradigm shift in the West in religion and spirituality contexts we are moving from the Christian Age to a new era which some scholars claim to be the New Age In politics there is a potential shift in world dominance from the West to the East however there is some notable resistance from some quarters in America but Europe including Britain theologically seems to be following and championing events leading to its own demise In the context of world missions the centre of world Christianity is shifting from the West to the global south Africa in particular There is also a potential societal apocalypse despite our scientific endeavours and finally cosmologically the coming of God's kingdom is imminent The context in which these changes are occurring is the West Therefore this book is a great resource for policy makers students tutors Pastors the Church and people in Western nations The West is a mission field therefore this book is also a great resource for students institutions tutors missionaries and people in the global south Thus the discussion in the book contributes to our understanding of what is going on globally in the twenty first century Read this book to find out how these dynamic events affect you your family and society Religion in Western Society Stephen J. Hunt, 2017-03-14 This book offers a comprehensive account of the nature and expression of contemporary forms of religion in Western societies Drawing both on recent original work and classical and contemporary conceptual frameworks it examines the beliefs practices patterns of organisation and significant trends in both mainstream and fringe religions including cults and quasi religions Competing arguments and theories about key developments are treated fully and fairly and there is a clear sense throughout of the social context The approach is broadly sociological and the well paced jargon free writing style and clearly sectioned chapters make this an ideal text for teaching and study purposes both in sociology and religious studies Amongst the themes and concerns covered are What we mean in the first place by religion Secularisation and new expressions of religiosity The effect of religion on society and the relationship between religion and social change The links between belief belonging and social identity Contemporary Christianity and the religions of ethnic minorities in the West Globalisation religious pluralism and postmodernity STEPHEN J HUNT is Senior Lecturer in Sociology at the University of West of England Bristol He has written widely on contemporary Christianity and new religious movements Christian Language and its Mutations David Martin,2022-02-16 Christian Language and its Mutations explores how Christian language alters in various social cultural historical and religious contexts Having delineated the core language of Christianity David Martin analyses how it mutates in different historical and social contexts notably peace and war the arts particularly painting and music the sacred space the city and the sacred text the liturgy education and the global situation of Christianity and contemporary secular society evangelicalism rational religion Pentecostalism and Base Communities Presenting a unique perspective to show how and why Christianity alters according to context this book will prove insightful and accessible to students clergy and general readers alike David Martin is Honorary Professor in the Department of Religious Studies Lancaster University and Emeritus Professor of Sociology at the London School of Economics UK He is the author of some two dozen books including many landmark titles in the sociology of religion Religious Transformation in Modern Asia ,2015-02-24 This volume explores the religious transformation of each nation in modern Asia When the Asian people who were not only diverse in culture and history but also active in performing local traditions and religions experienced a socio political change under the wave of Western colonialism the religious climate was also altered from a transnational perspective Part One explores the nationals of China Taiwan Hong Kong Korea and Japan focusing on the manifestations of Japanese religion Chinese foreign policy the British educational system in Hong Kong in relation to Tibetan Buddhism the Korean women of Catholicism and the Scottish impact in late nineteenth century Korea Part Two approaches South Asia through the topics of astrology the works of a Gujarati saint and Himalayan Buddhism The third part is focused on the conflicts between indigenous religions and colonialism Buddhism and Christianity Islam and imperialism and Hinduism and Christianity in Southeast Asia The Transformation of a Religious Landscape Valerie Ramseyer,2006-06-08 Ramseyer traces the efforts by the archbishop of Salerno and the abbey of Cava to centralize ecclesiastical structures and standardize religious practices in medieval southern Italy The Great Work Thomas Berry,2011-08-10 Thomas Berry is one of the most eminent cultural historians of our time Here he presents the culmination of his ideas and urges us to move from being a disrupting force on the Earth to a benign presence This transition is the Great Work the most necessary and most ennobling work we will ever undertake Berry's message is not one of doom but of hope He reminds society of its function particularly the universities and other educational institutions whose role is to guide students into an appreciation rather than an exploitation of the world around them Berry is the leading spokesperson for the Earth and his profound ecological insight illuminates the path we need to take in the realms of ethics politics economics and education if both we and the planet are to survive The Decline of Established Christianity in the Western World Paul Silas Peterson,2017-09-22 While Church attendance in the West is often cited as being in decline it is argued that this applies primarily to the older established forms of Christianity Other expressions of the faith are in fact stable or even growing This volume provides multidisciplinary interpretations of and responses to one of the most complicated and controversial issues regarding the global transformation of Christianity today the decline of established Christianity in the Western world It also addresses the future of Christianity in the West after the decline Drawing upon historical research sociology religious studies philosophy and theology an international panel of contributors provide new theoretical frameworks for understanding this decline and offer creative suggestions for responding to it Established Christianity is conceptualized as historically culturally socially and politically embedded religion with or without official established status This is a dynamic volume that gives fresh perspective on one of the great social changes taking place in the West today As such it will be of great interest to scholars of religious sociology history and anthropology as well as theologians

Rethinking Society for the 21st Century: Volume 3, Transformations in Values, Norms, Cultures International Panel on Social Progress (IPSP),2018-07-19 This is the third of three volumes containing a report from the International Panel on Social Progress IPSP The IPSP is an independent association of top research scholars with the goal of assessing methods for improving the main institutions of modern societies Written in accessible language by scholars across the social sciences and humanities these volumes assess the achievements of world societies in past centuries the current trends the dangers that we are now facing and the possible futures in the twenty first century It covers the main socio economic political and cultural dimensions of social progress global as well as regional issues and the diversity of challenges and their interplay around the world This particular volume covers topics such as world cultures and religions families global health education and the contributions of social sciences to institutional change

Sufis in Western Society Markus Dressler,Ron Geaves,Gritt Klinkhammer,2009-06-02 In recent years Sufism has undergone something of a revival as a spiritual alternative to other manifestations of Islam This book investigates the development of Sufism in Western societies with a regional focus on North America and Europe Exploring a number of issues relating to the dynamic tensions between religious globalization processes and specific sacred localities this book looks at the formation of Sufi movements that have migrated from their place of origin to become global religious networks Sufi groups are highly differentiated and often inaccessible so the origins and development of Sufism in the West have not been widely studied Employing a comparative approach based on regional fieldwork and case studies this book addresses theoretical issues and gives a comprehensive analysis of distinct communities and the development of regional branches of Sufi orders providing an international perspective on Sufism in the West With contributions from well known international experts on the topic the book addresses Sufi orders in the context of the transnational networks in which they are operating and the constraints of the localities in which they live This book will be of interest to scholars and students of religion Islam and Sufism in particular

Christianity and Heavy Metal as Impure Sacred within the Secular West Jason Lief,2017-06-13 This book explores the symbolic connections between Christianity and Heavy Metal music in the context of the secular West Heavy Metal uses symbols and imagery taken from Christianity even if the purpose is to critique religion This usage creates a positive connection with an interpretation of Christianity as a form of cultural critique Given that Metal and Christianity are associated with Western culture this book explores how Christianity and Heavy Metal function within the context of secularity as a form of ideological critique Using the ideas of Emile Durkheim Max Weber and Charles Taylor as a starting point this book explores the religious nature of secularism in the West interpreted in the immanent processes of politics and economics In this connect both Christianity and Heavy Metal provide a cultural critique through images of death the grotesque and sacrifice By bringing this religious interpretation of secularism into conversation with the ideas of Georges Batailles Slavoj Žižek and Jürgen Moltmann this book will demonstrate the positive relationship between Christianity and Heavy Metal

Religion, Migration, and Mobility Cristina Maria de Castro, Andrew Dawson, 2017-02-17 Focusing on migration and mobility this edited collection examines the religious landscape of Brazil as populated and shaped by transnational flows and domestic migratory movements Bringing together interdisciplinary perspectives on migration and religion this book argues that Brazil's diverse religious landscape must be understood within a dynamic global context From southern to northern Europe through Africa Japan and the Middle East to a host of Latin American countries Brazilian society has been influenced by immigrant communities accompanied by a range of beliefs and rituals drawn from established world religions as well as alternative religious spiritual movements Consequently the formation and profile of homegrown religious communities such as Santo Daime the Dawn Valley and Umbanda can only be fully understood against the broader backdrop of migration Contributors draw on the case of Brazil to develop frameworks for understanding the interface of religion and migration asking questions that include How do the processes and forces of re-territorialization play out among post migratory communities In what ways are the post transitional dynamics of migration enacted and reframed by different generations of migrants How are the religious symbols and ritual practices of particular worldviews and traditions appropriated and re-interpreted by migrant communities What role does religion play in facilitating or impeding post migratory settlement Religion Migration and Mobility engages these questions by drawing on a range of different traditions and research methods As such this book will be of keen interest to scholars working across the fields of religious studies anthropology cultural studies and sociology

Reflections on Religious Individuality Jörg Rüpke, Wolfgang Spickermann, 2012-07-04 This volume will concentrate its search for religious individuality on texts and practices related to texts from Classical Greece to Late Antiquity Texts offer opportunities to express one's own religious experience and shape one's own religious personality within the boundaries of what is acceptable Inscriptions in public or at least easily accessible spaces might substantially differ in their range of expressions and topics from letters within a sectarian religious group which at the same time might put enormous pressure on conformity among its members regarded as deviant by a majority of contemporaries Furthermore texts might offer and advocate new practices in reading meditating remembering or repeating these very texts Such practices might contribute to the development of religious individuality experienced or expressed in factual isolation responsibility competition and finally in philosophical or theological reflections about personhood or self The volume develops its topic in three sections addressing personhood representative and charismatic individuality the interaction of individual and groups and practices of reading and writing It explores Jewish Christian Greek and Latin texts CHRISTIAN DEMOCRACY IN EUROPE David Hanley,1996-01-01 Assesses the development of Christian democracy on the most durable political movements in Europe The Playboy of the Western World John Millington Synge,2014-07-10 Synge who came from a middle class Protestant family near Dublin created a huge scandal at the Abbey Theatre in Dublin where The Playboy was staged in 1907 because its audience did not take kindly to a comedy that seemed to portray the Irish as violent superstitious sots and swaggerers Synge relied on and at the same time mocked the Irish dramatic movement and its ambition to create realistic drama that was also poetically beautiful The play is set near a village on a wild coast of Mayo On the first day a stranger arrives and declares that he is on the run because he has killed his father for this the villagers turn him into a hero On the second day however his father arrives walking wounded and although Christy knocks him down with a spade his father seems impossible to kill The set off together still quarrelling and the villagers are bereft of their excitement

The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion Lewis Ray Rambo,Charles E. Farhadian,2014 The Oxford Handbook of Religious Conversion offers a comprehensive exploration of the dynamics of religious conversion which for centuries has profoundly shaped societies cultures and individuals throughout the world Scholars from a wide array of religions and disciplines interpret both the varieties of conversion experiences and the processes that inform this personal and communal phenomenon This volume examines the experiences of individuals and communities who change religions those who experience an intensification of their religion of origin and those who encounter new religions through colonial intrusion missionary work and charismatic and revitalization movements The thirty two innovative essays provide overviews of the history of particular religions including Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Taoism Sikhism Islam Christianity Judaism indigenous religions and new religious movements The essays also offer a wide range of disciplinary perspectives psychological sociological anthropological legal political feminist and geographical on methods and theories deployed in understanding conversion and insight into various forms of deconversion

Resilient Religion, Resilience and Heartbreaking Adversity Chris A.M. Hermans,Kobus Schoeman,2023-01-05 A resilience theory on religion needs to answer four questions What defines the kind of adversity which is addressed in religion What is characteristic for processes of resilience in religion What defines resilient religion as outcome Which logic of inference epistemology based on our beliefs and experiences about reality binds these three elements together The book starts with mapping the field of resilience theory on religion by addressing all four questions The need for thinking about Christian resilience and the God symbol is addressed and the need to be explicitly contextual with regard to resilience in South Africa Next three types practices of religious acting are related to experiences of resilience namely preaching narrating and discerning In the last chapters the focus is on the way stories help to express feelings of experiences of crises tragedy and trauma But also how stories can help heal the broken heart Prof Chris A M Hermans is extraordinary professor in practical theology and missiology at the University of the Free State South Africa He is emeritus professor in pastoral theology at Radboud University the Netherlands and emeritus professor in empirical study of religion as Radboud University the Netherlands Prof Kobus W J Schoeman is professor of practical theology at the University of the Free State South Africa

The Will to Arise Caleb Oluremi Oladipo,2006 One of the most important developments of Christianity in the twentieth century was its transformation in South Africa where it became a vibrant religion rooted in African idioms and cultures The church also became engaged in the struggle against social and political injustice and church leaders employed the vocabularies of faith to secure civil liberty This hard hitting book focuses on post apartheid Christian character and establishes the theological and spiritual authority of African Christians calling contemporary Christians to renew their faith and Christian identity It shows too that one cannot seriously consider contemporary Christianity apart from the African experience

Re-Forming the Body MR Philip A Mellor,Philip A. Mellor Chris Shilling,Professor Chris Shilling,1997-02-14 Enriches the conceptual arsenal for interdisciplinary analysis of political social and cultural change stimulates more nuanced thinking about the cultural and political legacy of the Reformation era manages both to clarify tensions surrounding cultural and social integration in the late 20th century while underscoring the real historical complexity of modern bodies American Journal of Sociology Through an analysis of successive re formations of the body this innovative and penetrating book constructs a fascinating and wide ranging account of how the creation and evolution of different patterns of human community are intimately related to the somatic experience of the sacred The book places the relationship between the embodiment and the sacred at the crux of social theory and casts a fresh light on the emergence and transformation of modernity It critically examines the thesis that the rational projects of modern embodiment have died and gone to cyberspace and suggests that we are witnessing the rise of a virulent effervescent form of the sacred which is changing how people see and keep in touch with the world around them

God in Deep Silence Pramodkumar Athirakam,2015-12-21 We have been destroying our mother earth for quite long years We dangerously forget that our planet is not only predestined as a dwelling place for human beings but for all living creatures also Here each generation is trying to make its own impact and foot print on this earth but unknowingly disturbing the very basic tranquility and rhythm of nature Over the centuries especially in the present we have begun to upset the sanctity and balance of nature We are greedily eating out our own life saving mechanism through all means Burning rain forests for industrial reasons re directing rivers killing birds and animals indiscriminately injecting hormones into meat and fruits polluting air and water over fishing earth quakes volcano flare up excess use of chemicals and pesticides thereby making death of soil forever and blazing oil fields are few ways to make this planet as the most unfit place to live Earth also starts retaliate through many ways and means Excess rainfall snow fall flood draught wide spread un known diseases crack in the ozone layer resulting in dramatic increase of cancer etc are warning signals Now it is high time to wake up and save our planet or perish forever
