Remarkable Carlo Gentile Pioneer Italian Photographer Of The American Frontier:

The Remarkable Carlo Gentile Cesare Rosario Marino,1998 Carlo Gentile was born in Naples Italy and arrived in 1863 as a young man in Vancouver B C where he photographed the Indians and mining activity By 1867 Gentile had studios in California and by 1868 he was photographing throughout Arizona and New Mexico From 1874 to 1885 he operated a studio in Chicago where for a time he was the photographer for Buffalo Bill s first Wild West Show Pioneer Photographers of the Far West Peter E. Palmquist,Thomas R. Kailbourn,2000 This extraordinarily comprehensive well documented biographical dictionary of some 1 500 photographers and workers engaged in photographically related pursuits active in western North America before 1865 is enriched by some 250 illustrations Far from being simply a reference tool the book provides a rich trove of fascinating narratives that cover both the professional and personal lives of a colorful cast of characters Buffalo Bill's America Louis S. Warren,2007-12-18 William F Buffalo Bill Cody was the most famous American of his age He claimed to have worked for the Pony Express when only a boy and to have scouted for General George Custer But what was his real story And how did a frontiersman become a worldwide celebrity In this prize winning biography acclaimed author Louis S Warren explains not only how Cody exaggerated his real experience as an army scout and buffalo hunter but also how that experience inspired him to create the gigantic traveling spectacle known as Buffalo Bill s Wild West Show A dazzling mix of Indians cowboys and vaqueros they performed on two continents for three decades offering a surprisingly modern view of the United States and a remarkably democratic version of its history This definitive biography reveals the genius of America s greatest showman and the startling history of the American West that drove him and his performers to the world stage Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South Deborah C. Pollack,2015-01-18 Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South recounts the enormous influence of artists in the evolution of six southern cities Atlanta Charleston New Orleans Louisville Austin and Miami from 1865 to 1950 In the decades following the Civil War painters sculptors photographers and illustrators in these municipalities employed their talents to articulate concepts of the New South aestheticism and Gilded Age opulence and to construct a visual culture far beyond providing pretty pictures in public buildings and statues in city squares As Deborah C Pollack investigates New South proponents such as Henry W Grady of Atlanta and other regional leaders she identifies cultural strivers philanthropists women s organizations entrepreneurs writers architects politicians and dreamers who united with visual artists to champion the arts both as a means of cultural preservation and as mechanisms of civic progress Aestheticism made popular by Oscar Wilde s southern tours during the Gilded Age was another driving force in art creation and urban improvement Specific art works occasionally precipitated controversy and incited public anger yet for the most part artists of all kinds were recognized as providing inspirational incentives for self improvement civic enhancement and tourism art appreciation and personal fulfillment through the love of beauty Each of the six New South cities entered the late nineteenth century with fractured artistic heritages Charleston and Atlanta had to recover from wartime devastation The infrastructures of New Orleans and Louisville were barely damaged by war but their social underpinnings were shattered by the end of slavery and postwar economic depression Austin was not vitalized until after the Civil War and Miami was a post Civil War creation Pollack surveys these New South cities with an eye to understanding how each locale shaped its artistic and aesthetic self perception across a spectrum of economic political gender and race issues She also discusses Lost Cause imagery present in all the studied municipalities While many art history volumes concerning the South focus on sultry landscapes outside the urban grid Visual Art and the Urban Evolution of the New South explores the art belonging to its cities whether exhibited in its museums expositions and galleries or reflective of its parks plazas marketplaces industrial areas gardens and universities It also identifies and celebrates the creative urban humanity who helped build the cultural and social framework for the modern southern city

Boarding School Voices Arnold Krupat,2021-11 Boarding School Voices is both an anthology of mostly unpublished writing by former students of the Carlisle Indian Industrial School and a study of that writing The boarding schools ethnocidal practices have become a metaphor for the worst evils of colonialism a specifiable source for the ills that beset Native communities today But the fuller story is one not only of suffering and pain loss and abjection but also of ingenious agency creative syntheses and unimagined adaptations Although tragic for many students for others the Carlisle experience led to positive outcomes in their lives Some published short pieces in the Carlisle newspapers and others sent letters and photos to the school over the years Arnold Krupat transcribes selections from the letters of these former students literally and unedited emphasizing their evocative language and what they tell of themselves and their home communities and the perspectives they offer on a wider American world Their sense of themselves and their worldview provide detailed insights into what was abstractly and vaguely referred to as the Indian question These former students were the oxymoron Carlisle superintendent Richard Henry Pratt could not imagine and never comprehended they were Carlisle Indians

Songhees Pictorial Grant R. Keddie,Royal BC Museum,2003 Songhees Pictorial presents the story of the Songhees people the original Salish inhabitants the southern tip of Vancouver Island since their first contact with Europeans in 1790 It is an insightful ethno historical account of a people and the place where they lived When the Songhees Reserve was established in 1843 across the harbour from Fort Victoria it became a gathering place for First Peoples throughout the region seeking trade with Europeans This new commerce brought prosperity conflict disease and cultural upheaval to the Songhees and other coastal First Nations Focusing on the old reserve Grant Keddie presents these rapidly changing times through the eyes of outsiders as expressed in newspaper reports and private journals as depicted in sketches paintings and photographs The book features almost 200 archival images many published here for the first time Though these views of First Peoples in Victoria were taken through the biased lenses of non aboriginal photographers Grant Keddie gives them context and perspective Songhees Pictorial offers a rich visual history of the old Songhees Reserve and its people
