Remedies lie at the heart of European legal systems They both reflect and shape the balance of power between states and individuals and between state and supranational institutions These profound political implications can be better understood by thinking about the functional roles and institutional histories of remedies These implications roles and histories are considered in this volume of challenging and original essays on remedial systems in Europe This book explores the lively and often controversial dialogues between courts national and supranational on remedies In so doing it addresses the adequacy of these dialogues in the light of perceived systemic goals both in an overall institutional sense and as regards specific sectoral objectives or institutional actors aspirations In particular the book looks at the way in which remedies in the EC legal order interact with those in other legal orders such as the Council of Europe and private international law It also identifies problems of interaction between different Council of Europe mechanisms under the Convention on Human Rights and the Social Charter The book also examines the contribution of courts to remedial systems by considering other methods of formulating and redressing claims Contributors Claire Kilpatrick Takis Tridimas Leo Flynn Antonio Lo Faro Carol Harlow Steve Weatherill Bernard Ryan Miguel Poiarés Maduro Henry G Schermers Angela Ward Paul Beaumont Robin White Phil Syrpis Tonia Novitz Richard Rawlings      the new international encyclopaedia, 1916      The Antitrust Equal Enforcement Act United States.
