

Son, I Remember

When you were an infant my greatest joy,
Came from holding and rocking my baby boy!
At one you took such pleasure in talking,
And suddenly my baby was walking.
You were king of the house when you turned two,
And I spent my days chasing after you.
The time slipped away, and soon you were five,
Such a curious child and so alive!
At six you discovered that school was fun,
And you ran and played till the day was done.
In the blink of an eye my son was eight,
With an interest in sports & staying up late.
Then before I knew it, my boy was ten,
And putting off homework time and again.
At thirteen it seemed you were rarely home,
As through the neighborhood you would roam.
And sixteen found you behind the wheel,
If you only knew how that made me feel!
At eighteen your high school days were done,
They were filled with laughter & friendship & fun!
Now you're a man standing straight and tall,
And though time slipped away...I remember it all!

Nelson,Heather J. Shotton,2022-08-19 Indigenous Motherhood in the Academy highlights the experiences and narratives emerging from Indigenous mothers in the academy who are negotiating their roles in multiple contexts The essays in this volume contribute to the broader higher education literature and the literature on Indigenous representation in the academy filling a longtime gap that has excluded Indigenous women scholar voices This book covers diverse topics such as the journey to motherhood lessons through motherhood acknowledging ancestors and grandparents in one s mothering how historical trauma and violence plague the past and balancing mothering through the healing process More specific to Indigenous motherhood in the academy is how culture and place impacts mothering specifically if Indigenous mothers are not in their traditional homelands as they raise their children how academia impacts mothering how mothering impacts scholarship and how to negotiate loss and other complexities between motherhood and one s role in the academy Lost Without My Children Lelia Alvarez,2010-03 A grieving mother wanting to share her real life experience about the mysterious and sudden deaths of her children Dealing with the mysterious death of her healthy three month old baby girl and trying to find out the cause has been a mystery for over twenty five years Waking up on morning to find that her baby girl is dead was such a tremendous harrowing experience to deal with and to have her children witness the death was unbearable After twelve years as a single mother she finds the man of her dreams having someone to stand by her side Her dream was to become a grandmother she was delighted with joy when her son became a father until her dream was shattered She gets a call in the middle of the night that her son has died Grief stricken with tragedy for the second time she can't understand why her wish was granted being blessed with a precious grandson at a price of losing her son. After her son's death, she is faced with so many legal problems hitting her all at once; she is so distressed trying to survive without her son. She becomes so angry and bitter, fearing of losing her only child, sinking into a deep depression and refusing to give in. Grieving mother decides to write a book, being the most hardest and emotional job she's ever had, but she is determined to finish with a goal to share her experience with families that have lost their children. There is nothing no one can say that will ease our pain, only the ones that have experienced this horrible ordeal can relate to our pain. She will forever treasure the short time her children were in her life but will forever be lost without them. African American Scenebook

Kathryn Ervin, Ethel P. Walker, 2014-06-03 Kathryn Ervin and Ethel Pitts Walker have compiled a delicately balanced and impeccably coherent anthology of some of the best scenes from the past sixty years of African American theatre. Each scene subtly articulates African American culture in a Western frame and explores universal themes embedded in unique characters, stories, languages, and time periods. Theatrically appropriate for secondary students, African American Scenebook also provides unique opportunities for classroom discussion about the difficult issues relating to race in America. From Child to Elder Alan Pope, 2006 From Child to Elder explores the personal growth that can arise when a middle-aged adult loses his or her last living parent. Based on an empirical phenomenological study, this book details the complex ways in which the adult orphan's ongoing relationship to the deceased parents combined with the unique meanings of the loss leads to a deepening of individual autonomy and spiritual awakening. Confrontation with mortality and fundamental aloneness promotes, among other things, an increased sense of existential responsibility toward self and others as the adult orphan psychologically assumes its new role as an elder. These and many other themes are structured into an integrated whole and amplified through developmental, existential, and Jungian perspectives. The result is a compelling portrait of the processes by which the death of one's parents can accelerate psychospiritual development. The Works of that Eminent Servant of Christ, Mr. John Bunyan: Grace abounding to the chief of sinners. A confession of my faith, and a reason of my practice. Differences in judgment about water-baptism, no bar to communion. Peaceable principles and true. The doctrine of the law and grace unfolded. The pilgrim's progress. The Jerusalem sinner saved. The heavenly footman. Solomon's temple spiritualized. The acceptable sacrifice. Sighs from hell. Come and welcome to Jesus Christ. A discourse upon the Pharisee and the publican. Of justification by an imputed righteousness. Paul's departure and crown. Of the Trinity and a Christian. Of the law and a Christian. Israel's hope encouraged. The life and death of Mr. Badman. The barren fig-tree. An exhortation to peace and unity. One thing is needful John Bunyan, 1767 A Peculiar Child Jane Winters, 2001-03-27 A Peculiar Child is the odyssey of a good mind trying to pick its way out of mental illness. Honest, tough, laced with humor, it illuminates the experience of mental illness and the problems faced by the mentally ill, including psychiatry, psychiatric drugs, and the mental health industry. The Present Testament Barbara Ann Mary Mack, 2009-12 The Present Testament is a Continuation of the Old and New Testament in regards to God's Presence in the lives of human beings Today God's Presence is expressed through the writings in this book which consist of a Compilation of Twenty eight God inspired books that were composed by Barbara Ann Mary Mack within the past year The Present Testament consists of Words and Messages that were given to Barbara through Divine Communication to convey to God's children Today These Words and Messages were given to Barbara as the Prophets of the Old and New Testament received from Almighty God The Present Testament Reveals God's Presence in a Tangible Way Today The Present Testament Enlightens its Readers in regards to the Affirmation of The Christian Faith and Doctrine The Present Testament is to be Enjoyed and Respected as one Enjoys and Respects The Old and New Testaments
