Development, Modernism and Modernity in Africa Augustine Agwuele, 2013-03-01 This anthology examines the unfinished project of modernity with respect to the unrealized potential for economic social and political development in Africa It also shows how facing the consequences of modernism Africans in and out of the continent are responding to these unfinished projects drawing on a the customary b the novelty of modernity and c positive aspects of modernism for the organization of their societies and the enrichment of their lives even as they contend with the negative aspects of modernity and modernism

Architecture, Islam, and Identity in West Africa Michelle Apotsos, 2016-05-20 Architecture Islam and Identity in West Africa shows you the relationship between architecture and Islamic identity in West Africa The book looks broadly across Muslim West Africa and takes an in depth study of the village of Larabanga a small Muslim community in Northern Ghana to help you see how the built environment encodes cultural history through form material and space creating an architectural narrative that outlines the contours of this distinctive Muslim identity Apotsos explores how modern technology heritage and tourism have increasingly affected the contemporary architectural character of this community revealing the village's current state of social cultural and spiritual flux More than 60 black and white images illustrate how architectural components within this setting express the distinctive narratives value systems and realities that make up the unique composition of this Afro Islamic community Power and Landscape in Atlantic West Africa J. Cameron Monroe, Akinwumi Ogundiran, 2012-02-13 This volume applies insights drawn from the theories and methods of landscape archaeology to contribute to our understanding of the nature of West African societies in the Atlantic Era 17th 19th Centuries AD The authors adopt a broad set of methods and approaches to tackle how the nature and structures of African political and social relations changed across regions in this period This is only the second volume in a decade to focus on the archaeology of this period in West Africa and the first volume in sub Saharan Africanist archaeology to be focused in the recent past in one sub region of the continent from a coherent methodological and theoretical standpoint Provided by publisher The Modernity Bluff Sasha Newell, 2012-05-14 In Cote d'Ivoire appearing modern is so important for success that many young men deplete their already meager resources to project an illusion of wealth in a fantastic display of Western imitation spending far more than they can afford on brand name clothing accessories technology and a robust nightlife Such imitation however is not primarily meant to deceive rather as Sasha Newell argues in The Modernity Bluff it is an explicit performance so valued in Cote d'Ivoire it has become a matter of national pride Called bluffeurs these young urban men operate in a system of cultural economy where reputation is essential for financial success That reputation is measured by familiarity with and access to the fashionable and expensive which leads to a paradoxical state of affairs in which the wasting of wealth is essential to its accumulation Using the consumption of Western goods to express their cultural mastery over Western taste Newell argues bluffeurs engage a global hierarchy that is profoundly modern one that values performance over authenticity highlighting the counterfeit nature of modernity itself On the Edge of the Global Niko Besnier, 2011-03-02 This book explores the malaise present in post colonial Tonga analyzing the way in which segments of this small scale society hold on to different understandings of what modernity is how it should be made relevant to local contexts and how it should mesh with practices and symbols of tradition Critically Modern Bruce M. Knauff, 2002-09-27 Critically Modern makes a critical intervention in one of the great debates of the moment It offers a variety of rich and fascinating empirical analyses of modern phenomena from diverse societies and contributes a powerful and largely missing voice to the growing literature on globalization and modernity outside anthropology Charles Piot In these essays theory and ethnography are presented in ways that make them mutually enriching The volume should appeal to scholars across the entire range of disciplines that deal with modernity and or globalization Edward LiPuma Are there multiple ways of being modern in the world today How do people in various parts of the world become modern in their own distinct ways Does the current focus on modernity in the social sciences resurrect a series of dichotomies traditional and modern the West and the Rest developed and undeveloped that social theorists have sought to move beyond in recent years Or do inflections of modernity capture key features of ideology and influence in the contemporary world Combining rich ethnographic analysis with incisive theoretical critiques this timely volume is certain to make an important mark in anthropology and in all related fields in which modernity is a central problematic Contributors Donald L Donham Robert J Foster Jonathan Friedman Ivan Karp John D Kelly Bruce M Knauft Lisa B Rofel Debra A Spitulnik Michel Rolph Trouillot and Holly Wardlow Stitches on Time Saurabh Dube,2004-03-25 A critical analysis of histories and anthropologies of South Asia seen in relation to the subaltern studies project and several examples of how colonial history might be done differently Postcolonial Subjectivities in Africa Pnina Werbner,2002 This is the third volume in a trilogy on identity memory and subjectivity Contributors to the book share an ambition to combine personal political and existential dimensions in detailed evocations of the ambitions and vulnerabilities of contemporary Africans Their essays aim to forge alliances between patient local scholarship and adventurous theoretical speculation that should inspire new research and caution against bland generalizations about African marginality Memories of the Slave Trade Rosalind Shaw,2020-04-04 How is the slave trade remembered in West Africa In a work that challenges recurring claims that Africans felt and still feel no sense of moral responsibility concerning the sale of slaves Rosalind Shaw traces memories of the slave trade in Temne speaking communities in Sierra Leone While the slave trading past is rarely remembered in explicit verbal accounts it is often made vividly present in such forms as rogue spirits ritual specialists visions and the imagery of divination techniques Drawing on extensive fieldwork and archival research Shaw argues that memories of the slave trade have shaped and been reshaped by experiences of colonialism postcolonialism and the country s ten year rebel war Thus money and commodities for instance are often linked to an invisible city of witches whose affluence was built on the theft of human lives These ritual and visionary memories make hitherto invisible realities manifest forming a prism through which past and present mutually configure each other Enchantments of Modernity Saurabh Dube,2020-08-11 The notion of modernity hinges on a break with the past such as superstitions medieval worlds and hierarchical traditions It follows that modernity suggests the disenchantment of the world yet the processes of modernity also create their own enchantments in the mapping and making of the modern world Straddling a range of disciplines and perspectives the essays in this edited volume eschew programmatic solutions focusing instead in new ways on subjects of slavery and memory global transformations and vernacular and vernacular modernity imperial imperatives and nationalist knowledge cosmopolitan politics and liberal democracy and governmental effects and everyday affects It is in these ways that the volume attempts to unravel the enchantments of modernity in order to approach anew modernity s constitutive terms formative limits and particular possibilities Playing the Marginality Game Anita Schroven,2019-03-27 In Guinea situated against the background of central government struggles rural elites use identity politics through contemporary political reforms to maintain their privileges and perpetuate a generations old local social contract that bridges ethnic and religious divides Simultaneously administrative reform and national unrest lead to the creative re combination of sources of authority and practices of legitimate rule Past periods of colonization socialism and authoritarian regime are reflected in contemporary struggles to make sense of participatory democracy and the future of the embattled Guinean national state      Africa's Media, Democracy and the Politics of Belonging Francis B.

Nyamnjoh,2005-05 An overview of the press and mass media in Africa today and their contribution to democratization

Faith in Schools Amy Stambach,2009-12-07 American Evangelicals have long considered Africa a welcoming place for joining faith with social action but their work overseas is often ambivalently received Even among East African Christians who share missionaries religious beliefs understandings vary over the promises and pitfalls of American Evangelical involvement in public life and schools In this first hand account Amy Stambach examines missionary involvement in East Africa from the perspectives of both Americans and East Africans While Evangelicals frame their work in terms of spreading Christianity critics see it as destroying traditional culture Challenging assumptions on both sides this work reveals a complex and ever evolving exchange between Christian college campuses in the U S where missionaries train and schools in Kenya Uganda and Tanzania Providing real insight into the lives of school children in East Africa this book charts a new course for understanding the goals on both sides and the global connections forged in the name of faith      Subjects of modernity

Saurabh Dube,2017-01-20 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license This book thinks through modernity and its representations by exploring critical considerations of time and space Drawing on anthropology history and social theory it investigates the oppositions and enchantments the contradictions and contentions and the identities and ambivalences spawned under modernity Crucially it understands these antinomies not as errors but as constitutive elements of modern worlds The book questions routine portrayals of homogeneous time and antinomian blueprints of cultural space while acknowledging the production of time and space by social subjects Instead of assuming a straightforward singular trajectory for the phenomena it views modernity as involving checkered contingent and contended processes of meaning and power which have found heterogeneous historical elaborations over the past five centuries Bringing together past and present theory and narrative it sows the historical ethnographic and methodological deep into its critical procedures offering an innovative understanding of cultural identities and imaginatively exploring the relationship between history and anthropology      Relative Distance Leslie Fesenmyer,2023-07-06 Examines kinship dilemmas moral material and affective facing transnational families living between Kenya and the United Kingdom

Muslim Families in Global Senegal Beth Anne Buggenhagen,2012 Senegalese Murid migrants have circulated cargo and currency through official and unofficial networks in Africa and the world Muslim Families in Global Senegal focuses on trade and the transmission of enduring social value through cloth videos of life cycle rituals and religious offerings Highlighting women s participation in these networks and the financial strategies they rely on Beth Buggenhagen reveals the deep connections between economic profits and ritual and social authority Buggenhagen discovers that these strategies are not responses to a dispersed community in crisis but rather produce new roles wealth and worth for Senegalese women in all parts of the globe

An Enchanted Modern Lara Deeb, 2011-06-27 Based on two years of ethnographic research in the southern suburbs of Beirut An Enchanted Modern demonstrates that Islam and modernity are not merely compatible but actually go hand in hand This eloquent ethnographic portrayal of an Islamic community articulates how an alternative modernity and specifically an enchanted modernity may be constructed by Shi I Muslims who consider themselves simultaneously deeply modern cosmopolitan and pious In this depiction of a Shi I Muslim community in Beirut Deeb examines the ways that individual and collective expressions and understandings of piety have been debated contested and reformulated Women take center stage in this process a result of their visibility both within the community and in relation to Western ideas that link the status of women to modernity By emphasizing the ways notions of modernity and piety are lived debated and shaped by everyday Islamists this book underscores the inseparability of piety and politics in the lives of pious Muslims

The SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology Richard Fardon, Oliva Harris, Trevor H J Marchand, Cris Shore, Veronica Strang, Richard Wilson, Mark Nuttall, 2012-07-25 In two volumes the SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology provides the definitive overview of contemporary research in the discipline It explains the what where and how of current and anticipated work in Social Anthropology With 80 authors contributing more than 60 chapters this is the most comprehensive and up to date statement of research in Social Anthropology available and the essential point of departure for future projects The Handbook is divided into four sections Part I Interfaces examines Social Anthropology s disciplinary connections from Art and Literature to Politics and Economics from Linguistics to Biomedicine from History to Media Studies Part II Places examines place region culture and history from regional area studies to a globalized world Part III Methods examines issues of method from archives to war zones from development projects to art objects and from ethics to comparison Part IV Futures anticipates anthropologies to come in the Brain Sciences in post Development in the Body and Health and in new Technologies and Materialities Edited by the leading figures in social anthropology the Handbook includes a substantive introduction by Richard Fardon a think piece by Jean and John Comaroff and a concluding last word on futures by Marilyn Strathern The authors each at the leading edge of the discipline contribute in depth chapters on both the foundational ideas and the latest research Comprehensive and detailed this magisterial Handbook overviews the last 25 years of the social anthropological imagination It will speak to scholars in Social Anthropology and its many related disciplines
