NEP 2020 By Thakur publication Thomas Heywood and the classical tradition Tania Demetriou, Janice

Valls-Russell, 2021-03-09 This volume offers the first in depth investigation of Thomas Heywood's engagement with the classics. Its introduction and twelve essays trace how the classics shaped Heywood's work in a variety of genres across a writing career of over forty years ranging from drama, epic and epyllion to translations, compendia and the design of a warship for Charles I. Close readings demonstrate the influence of a capaciously conceived classical tradition that included continental editions and translations of Latin and Greek texts, early modern mythographies and the medieval tradition of Troy. They attend to Heywood's thought provoking imitations and juxtapositions of these sources, his use of myth to interrogate gender and heroism and his turn to antiquity to celebrate and defamiliarise the theatrical or political present. Heywood's better known works are discussed alongside critically neglected ones, making the collection valuable for undergraduates and researchers alike.
