The Oxford History of Western Art

Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean

Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

Viewing Renaissance Art The Open University,Open University Staff,2007-01-01 This book focuses on the values priorities and motives of patrons and the purposes and functions of art works produced north and south of the Alps and in post Byzantine Crete It begins by considering the social range and character of Renaissance patronage and ends with a study of Hans Holbein the Younger and the reform of religious images in Basle and England Viewing Renaissance Art considers a wide range of audiences and patrons from the rulers of France to the poorest confraternities in Florence The overriding premise is that art was not a neutral matter of stylistic taste but an aspect of material production in which values were invested whether religious cultural social or political Emblematic Structures in Renaissance French Culture Daniel Russell,1995-12-15 The emblem and the device or impresa as it was called in Italy were the most direct and telling manifestations of a mentality that played a significant role in the discourse and art in Western Europe between the late Middle Ages and the mid eighteenth century In the history of Western symbolism the emblematic sign forms a bridge between late medieval allegory and the Romantic metaphor These intricate combinations of picture and text where the picture completes the ellipses of an epigrammatic text and where the text fixes the intention of the pictured signs provide useful clues to the way pictures in general were read and textual descriptions visualized in early modern Europe Daniel Russell demonstrates how the emblematic forms emerged from the way illustrations were used in late medieval French manuscript culture how the forms were later disseminated in France and how they functioned within early modern French culture and society He also attempts to show how the guiding principles behind the composition of emblems influenced the production of courtly decoration ceremony and propaganda as well as the composition of literary texts as different as Maurice Scève's Delie Montaigne's Essais and Du Bartas's Sepmaine The Making of the Middle Ages Marios Costambeys,Andrew J. Hamer,Martin Heale,2007-01-01 Liverpool was founded in the Middle Ages and as the city approaches its eight hundredth anniversary this book takes stock of Liverpool's scholarly contributions to modern understanding of the period From the eighteenth century to the twenty first scholars from Liverpool have made pioneering advances in fields as diverse as Celtic philology and manuscript collecting By focusing on a local perspective this volume presents a microcosmic view of the different building blocks of the modern construction of the Middle Ages while offering fresh insights into more universal elements of medieval culture such as pageantry and mystery plays Illuminating the Renaissance Thomas Kren,Scot McKendrick,2003-07-01 This comprehensive and richly illustrated catalogue focuses on the finest illustrated manuscripts produced in Europe during the great epoch in Flemish illumination During this aesthetically fertile period beginning in 1467 with the reign of the Burgundian duke Charles the Bold and ending in 1561 with the death of the artist

Simon Bening the art of book painting was raised to a new level of sophistication Sharing inspiration with the celebrated panel painters of the time illuminators achieved astonishing innovations in the handling of color light texture and space creating a naturalistic style that would dominate tastes throughout Europe for nearly a century Centering on the notable artists of the period Simon Marmion the Vienna Master of Mary of Burgundy Gerard David Gerard Horenbout Bening and others the catalogue examines both devotional and secular manuscript illumination within a broad context the place of illuminators within the visual arts including artistic exchange between book painters and panel painters the role of court patronage and the emergence of personal libraries and the international appeal of the new Flemish illumination style Contributors to the catalogue include Maryan W Ainsworth curator of European paintings at the Metropolitan Museum of Art independent scholar Catherine Reynolds and Elizabeth Morrison assistant curator of manuscripts at the Getty Museum Illuminating the Renaissance is published in conjunction with an exhibition organized by the Getty Museum the Royal Academy of Arts London and the British Library to be held at the Getty Museum from June 17 to September 7 2003 and at the Royal Academy of Arts from November 25 2003 to February 22 2004 "Women, Manuscripts and Identity in Northern Europe, 1350-1550"

Joni M. Hand, 2017-07-05 Author Joni M Hand sheds light on the reasons women of the Valois courts from the mid fourteenth to the mid sixteenth century commissioned devotional manuscripts Visually interpreting the non text elements portraits coats of arms and marginalia as well as the texts Hand explores how the manuscripts were used to express the women's religious political and or genealogical concerns This study is arranged thematically according to the method in which the owner is represented Recognizing the considerable influence these women had on the appearance of their books Hand interrogates how the manuscripts became a means of self expression beyond the realm of devotional practice She reveals how noblewomen used their private devotional manuscripts as vehicles for self definition to reflect familial political and social concerns and to preserve the devotional and cultural traditions of their families Drawing on documentation of women's book collections that has been buried within the inventories of their fathers husbands or sons Hand explores how these women contributed to the cultural and spiritual character of the courts and played an integral role in the formation and evolution of the royal libraries in Northern Europe Thresholds and Boundaries Lynn F.

Jacobs, 2017-09-25 Although liminality has been studied by scholars of medieval and seventeenth century art the role of the threshold motif in Netherlandish art of the late fourteenth fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries this late medieval early modern period has been much less fully investigated Thresholds and Boundaries Liminality in Netherlandish Art 1385-1550 addresses this issue through a focus on key case studies Sluter's portal of the Chartreuse de Champmol and the calendar pages of the Limbourg Brothers' Très Riches Heures and on important formats altarpieces and illuminated manuscripts Lynn F Jacobs examines how the visual thresholds established within Netherlandish paintings sculptures and manuscript illuminations become sites where artists could address relations between life and death aristocrat and peasant holy and profane and man and God and where artists could exploit the betwixt and between nature of the threshold to communicate paradoxically both connections and divisions between these different states and different worlds Building on literary and anthropological interpretations of liminality this book demonstrates how the exploration of boundaries in Netherlandish art infused the works with greater meaning The book s probing of the often ignored meanings of the threshold motif casts new light on key works of Netherlandish art The Arts of Imitation in Latin Prose Christopher Whitton,2019-06-27 Imitation was central to Roman culture and a staple of Latin poetry But it was also fundamental to prose This book brings together two monuments of the High Empire Quintilian s Institutio oratoria Training of the orator and Pliny s Epistles to reveal a spectacular project of textual and ethical imitation As a young man Pliny had studied with Quintilian In the Epistles he meticulously transforms and subsumes his teacher s masterpiece together with poetry and prose ranging from Homer to Tacitus Dialogus de oratoribus In teasing apart Pliny s rich intertextual weave this book reinterprets Quintilian through the eyes of one of his sharpest readers radically reassesses the Epistles as a work of minute textual artistry and makes a major intervention in scholarly debates on intertextuality imitation and rhetorical culture at Rome The result is a landmark study with far reaching implications for how we read Latin literature The Renaissance Nude Thomas Kren,Jill Burke,Stephen J. Campbell,2018-11-20 A gloriously illustrated examination of the origins and development of the nude as an artistic subject in Renaissance Europe Reflecting an era when Europe looked to both the classical past and a global future this volume explores the emergence and acceptance of the nude as an artistic subject It engages with the numerous and complex connotations of the human body in more than 250 artworks by the greatest masters of the Renaissance Paintings sculptures prints drawings illuminated manuscripts and book illustrations reveal private sometimes shocking preoccupations as well as surprising public beliefs the Age of Humanism from an entirely new perspective This book presents works by Albrecht Dürer Lucas Cranach and Martin Schongauer in the north and Donatello Raphael and Giorgione in the south it also introduces names that deserve to be known better A publication this rich in scholarship could only be produced by a variety of expert scholars the sixteen contributors are preeminent in their fields and wide ranging in their knowledge and curiosity The structure of the volume essays alternating with shorter texts on individual artworks permits studies both broad and granular From the religious to the magical and the poetic to the erotic encompassing male and female infancy youth and old age The Renaissance Nude examines in a profound way what it is to be human Money, Morality, and Culture in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe Diane Wolfthal,2016-12-05 One of the first volumes to explore the intersection of economics morality and culture this collection analyzes the role of the developing monetary economy in Western Europe from the twelfth to the seventeenth century The contributors scholars from the fields of history literature art history and musicology investigate how money infiltrated every aspect of everyday life modified notions of social identity and encouraged debates about ethical uses of wealth These essays investigate how the new symbolic system of money restructured religious practices familial routines sexual activities gender roles urban space and the production of literature and art They explore the complex ethical and theological discussions which developed because the role of money in everyday life and the accumulation of wealth seemed to contradict Christian ideals of poverty and charity revealing a rich web of reactions to the tensions inherent in a predominately Christian neo capitalist culture Money Morality and Culture in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe presents a comprehensive multi disciplinary assessment of the ways in which the rise of the monetary economy fundamentally affected morality and culture in Western Europe Women, Manuscripts and Identity in Northern Europe, 1350-1550 Joni M. Hand, 2013-01-01 Author Joni M Hand sheds light on the reasons women of the Valois courts from the mid fourteenth to the mid sixteenth century commissioned devotional manuscripts Visually interpreting the non text elements portraits coats of arms and marginalia as well as the texts Hand explores how the manuscripts were used to express the women s religious political and or genealogical concerns This study is arranged thematically according to the method in which the owner is represented The Cambridge History of the Book in Britain Richard Gameson, Lotte Hellinga, Nigel J. Morgan, Rodney M. Thomson, J. B. Trapp, John Barnard, David McKitterick, 1999-12-09 This volume of The Cambridge History of the Book in Britain presents an overview of the century and a half between the death of Chaucer in 1400 and the incorporation of the Stationers Company in 1557 The profound changes during that time in social political and religious conditions are reflected in the dissemination and reception of the written word The manuscript culture of Chaucer s day was replaced by an ambience in which printed books would become the norm The emphasis in this collection of essays is on the demand and use of books Patterns of ownership are identified as well as patterns of where why and how books were written printed bound acquired read and passed from hand to hand The book trade receives special attention with emphasis on the large part played by imports and on links with printers in other countries which were decisive for the development of printing and publishing in Britain The Brussels Horloge de Sapience: Iconography and Text of Brussels, Bibliothèque Royale, MS. IV 111 Peter Rolfe Monks, 2023-10-16 The book discusses principally the iconography and text of a mid 15th century copy of the mystical treatise Horloge de Sapience in the most sumptuously illuminated ms known of the text Each of the 36 illuminations is discussed in turn with reference to their pictorial traditions to the French textual matter and to a unique contemporary commentary called the D clARATION des hystoires The D clARATION is one of the earliest essays in the history of art criticism to survive The study is rendered useful for teachers and scholars by an English translation of the text of the D clARATION which enables the reader to see the illustrations through the eyes of a 15th century critic Confessions of a Radical Chicano Doo-Wop Singer Ruben Guevara, 2018-04-13 Prologue La Veinte a Santa Monica barrio Rub n Ladr n de Guevara Sr 1914 2006 1742 22nd Street Barrio La Veinte Santa Monica Palm Springs Cathedral City Las Vegas Binnie La Gatita Las Vegas breakup of the family Sue Dean Beverly Shindig with Tina Turner and Bo Diddley 1965 The Sunset Strip riots The southern belle LACC The New

 Reflections on L A Textual Agency Ann M. Gomez-Bravo,2013-12-11 Textual Agency examines the massive proliferation of poetic texts in fifteenth century Spain focusing on the important yet little known cancionero poetry the largest poetic corpus of the European Middle Ages Ana M G mez Bravo situates this cultural production within its social political and material contexts She places the different forms of document production fostered by a shifting political and urban model alongside the rise in literacy and access to reading materials and spaces At the core of the book lies an examination of both the materials of writing and how human agents used and transformed them giving way to a textual agency that pertains not only to writers but to the inscribed paper G mez Bravo also explores how authorial and textual agency were competing forces in the midst of an era marked by the institution of the Inquisition the advent of the absolutist state the growth of cities and the constitution of the Spanish nation Language in the Visual Arts Leslie Ross,2014-07-02 This book discusses text and image relationships in the history of art from ancient times to the contemporary period across a diversity of cultures and geographic areas Focusing on the use of words in art and words as art forms thematic chapters include Pictures in Words Words in Pictures Word Picture Puzzles Picture Word Puzzles Words as Images The Power of the Word and Monumental and Moving Words Chapter subsections further explore cross cultural themes Examining text and image relationships from the obvious to the elusive the puzzling to the profound the minor to the major the book demonstrates the diverse ways in which

images and writing have been combined through the ages and explores the interplay between visual and written communication in a wide range of thought provoking examples A color insert is included Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Leonardo da Vinci - Nature and Architecture Constance Moffatt, Sara Taglialagamba, 2019-06-17 The second volume of Leonardo Studies explores a dual theme of nature and architecture offering a wide ranging overview of current Leonardo scholarship on these two abundant subjects While Leonardo worked on his Treatise on Painting he noted that understanding the physical properties of nature must precede individual projects of painting or designing buildings The volume begins with the Trattato and follows with physics geology painting that imitates architectural structure and vice versa and proceeds to architectural projects questions of attribution urban planning and the dissemination of Leonardo's writings in the Trattato and its historiography This impressive group of articles constitutes not only new research but also a departure point for future studies on these topics Contributors are Janis Bell Andrea Bernardoni Marco Carpi Ceci Paolo Cavagnero Fabio Colonnese Kay Etheridge Diane Ghirardo Claudio Giorgione Domenico Laurenza Catherine Luchek Silvio Mara Jill Pederson Richard Schofield Sara Taglialagamba Cristiano Tessari Marco Versiero and Raffaella Zama Byzantium Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2004 The fall of the Byzantine capital of Constantinople to the Latin West in 1204 during the Fourth Crusade abruptly interrupted nearly nine hundred years of artistic and cultural traditions In 1261 however the Byzantine general Michael VIII Palaiologos triumphantly re entered Constantinople and reclaimed the seat of the empire initiating a resurgence of art and culture that would continue for nearly three hundred years not only in the waning empire itself but also among rival Eastern Christian nations eager to assume its legacy Byzantium Faith and Power 1261 1557 and the groundbreaking exhibition that it accompanies explores the artistic and cultural flowering of the last centuries of the Empire of the Romans and its enduring heritage Conceived as the third of a trio of exhibitions dedicated to a fuller understanding of the art of the Byzantine Empire whose influence spanned more than a millennium Byzantium Faith and Power 1261 1557 follows the 1997 landmark presentation of The Glory of Byzantium which focused on the art and culture of the Middle Byzantine era the Second Golden Age of the Byzantine Empire 843 1261 In the late 1970s The Age of Spirituality explored the early centuries of Byzantium's history The present concluding segment explores the exceptional artistic accomplishments of an era too often considered in terms of political decline Magnificent works from splendid frescoes textiles gilded metalwork and mosaics to elaborately decorated manuscripts and liturgical objects testify to the artistic and intellectual vigor of the Late and Post Byzantine era In addition forty magnificent icons from the Holy Monastery of Saint Catherine Sinai Egypt join others from leading international institutions in a splendid gathering of these powerful religious images While the political strength of the empire weakened the creativity and learning of Byzantium spread farther than ever before The exceptional works of secular and religious art produced by Late Byzantine artists were emulated and transformed by other Eastern Christian centers of power among them Russia Serbia Bulgaria and Cilician Armenia The Islamic world adapted motifs drawn from Byzantium's imperial past as Christian minorities in the Muslim East continued Byzantine customs From Italy to the Lowlands Byzantium's artistic and intellectual practices deeply influenced the development of the Renaissance while in turn Byzantium's own traditions reflected the empire's connections with the Latin West Fine examples of these interrelationships are illustrated by important panel paintings ceramics and illuminated manuscripts among other objects In 1557 the Empire of the Romans as its citizens knew it which had fallen to the Ottoman Turks in 1453 was renamed Byzantium by the German scholar Hieronymus Wolf The cultural and historical interaction and mutual influence of these major cultures the Latin West and the Christian and Islamic East during this fascinating period are investigated in this publication by a renowned group of international scholars in seventeen major essays and catalogue discussions of more than 350 exhibited objects
