Renaissance in Haiti Selden Rodman, 1948      The Negritude Movement Reiland Rabaka, 2015-05-20 The Negritude Movement provides readers with not only an intellectual history of the Negritude Movement but also its prehistory W E B Du Bois the New Negro Movement and the Harlem Renaissance and its posthistory Frantz Fanon and the evolution of Fanonism By viewing Negritude as an insurgent idea to invoke this book's intentionally incendiary subtitle as opposed to merely a form of poetics and aesthetics The Negritude Movement explores Negritude as a traveling theory la Edward Said's concept that consistently crisscrossed the Atlantic Ocean in the twentieth century from Harlem to Haiti Haiti to Paris Paris to Martinique Martinique to Senegal and on and on ad infinitum The Negritude Movement maps the movements of proto Negritude concepts from Du Bois's discourse in The Souls of Black Folk through to post Negritude concepts in Fanon's Black Skin White Masks and The Wretched of the Earth Utilizing Negritude as a conceptual framework to on the one hand explore the Africana intellectual tradition in the twentieth century and on the other hand demonstrate discursive continuity between Du Bois and Fanon as well as the Harlem Renaissance and Negritude Movement The Negritude Movement ultimately accents what Negritude contributed to arguably its greatest intellectual heir Frantz Fanon and the development of his distinct critical theory Fanonism Rabaka argues that if Fanon and Fanonism remain relevant in the twenty first century then to a certain extent Negritude remains relevant in the twenty first century      A Guide to Haiti Haiti Government Tourist Bureau, 1957

Twa,2017-07-05 From the late 1910s through the 1950s particularly the Caribbean nation of Haiti drew the attention and imaginations of many key U S artists yet curiously while significant studies have been published on Haiti s history and inter American exchanges none analyze visual representations with any depth The author calls not only on the methodologies of art history but also on the interdisciplinary eye of visual culture studies anthropology literary theory and tourism studies to examine the fine arts in relation to popular arts media social beliefs and institutional structures Twa emphasizes close visual readings of photographs illustrations paintings and

Red and Black in Haiti Matthew J. Smith, 2009-05-15 In 1934 the republic of Haiti celebrated its 130th anniversary as an independent nation In that year too another sort of Haitian independence occurred as the United States ended nearly two decades of occupation In the first comprehensive political history of postoccupation Haiti, Matthew Smith argues that the period from 1934 until the rise of dictator François "Papa Doc" Duvalier to the presidency in 1957 constituted modern Haiti's greatest moment of political promise Smith emphasizes the key role that radical groups, particularly Marxists and black nationalists, played in shaping contemporary Haitian history These movements transformed Haiti's political culture, widened political discourse and presented several ideological alternatives for the nation's future They were doomed, however, by a combination of intense internal rivalries, pressures from both state authorities and the traditional elite class, and the harsh climate of U.S. anticommunism Ultimately, the political activism of the era failed to set Haiti firmly on the path to a strong, independent future

Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora Aubrey W. Bonnett,Calvin B. Holder,2009-07-16 Continuing Perspectives on the Black Diaspora is a response to a 1990 publication that studied the persistence and resilience of black African diasporic populations in the Caribbean Latin America North America and the United Kingdom In that book the authors used the themes of persistence and resilience to interrogate the social processes and the coping repertoire of these diasporic populations This volume investigates the often overlooked African presence in Asia Researchers sought to determine how many of these diasporic populations have fared in the context of political independence globalization economic marginalization and the presence of ethnic conflict and institutional racism even with positive class formations and declining significance of race in other geographical areas Prescriptions for the continued viability of these diasporic populations are provided India and China are undergoing a global renaissance emerging as potentially significant economic political and cultural actors on the world scene Meanwhile ancestral Africa is still socially politically and economically fragmented thereby causing a new migratory push to North America and Europe

Alleviative Objects David Frohnapfel, 2020-12-07 The global field of contemporary art is shaped by inter racial conflicts Alleviative Objects approaches Caribbean art through intersectional entanglements and combines decolonial epistemologies with critical whiteness studies and affect theory in order to rethink Euro and U S centric perspectives on art race and class David Frohnapfel shows how progressive racism in the discourse on Haitian art recenters Whiteness by performing benign innocent and heroic identifications with the artist group Atis Rezistans While the study turns critically towards Whiteness it also turns away from it and towards the compelling contributions of Haitian curators and artists to the decentralization of contemporary art
