writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This second volume covers the years 1558-1660 and explores the reception of the ancient genres and authors in English Renaissance literature engaging with the major and many of the minor writers of the period including Shakespeare Marlowe Spenser and Jonson Separate chapters examine the Renaissance institutions and contexts which shape the reception of antiquity and an annotated bibliography provides substantial material for further reading Walter Pater
R.M. Seiler, 2013-10-15 The Critical Heritage gathers together a large body of critical sources on major figures in literature Each volume presents contemporary responses to a writer's work enabling students and researchers to read for themselves for example comments on early performances of Shakespeare's plays or reactions to the first publication of Jane Austen's novels The carefully selected sources range from landmark essays in the history of criticism to journalism and contemporary opinion and little published documentary material such as letters and diaries Significant pieces of criticism from later periods are also included in order to demonstrate the fluctuations in an author's reputation Each volume contains an introduction to the writer's published works a selected bibliography and an index of works authors and subjects The Collected Critical Heritage set will be available as a set of 68 volumes and the series will also be available in mini sets selected by period in slipcase boxes and as individual volumes

Rival Playwrights James Shapiro, 1991 John Skelton and Poetic Authority Jane Griffiths, 2006-02-23 John Skelton and Poetic Authority is the first book length study of Skelton for almost twenty years and the first to trace the roots of his poetic theory to his practice as a writer and translator It demonstrates that much of what has been found challenging in his work may be attributed to his attempt to reconcile existing views of the poet's role in society with discoveries about the writing process itself The result is a highly idiosyncratic poetics that locates the poet's authority decisively within his own person yet at the same time predicates his liberty to speak upon the existence of an engaged imaginative audience Skelton is frequently treated as a maverick but this book places his theory and practice firmly in the context of later sixteenth as well as fifteenth century traditions Focusing on his relations with both past and present readers it reassess his place in the English literary canon A Critical Companion to John Skelton Sebastian I. Sobecki, V. J. Scattergood, 2018 Introduces Skelton and his work to readers unfamiliar with the poet gathers together the vibrant strands of existing research and opens up new avenues for future studies     The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 7, Part 2 John Donne, 2021-01-05 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared the eighth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of thirteen Divine Poems and details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion Arranged chronologically within sections the material is organized under the following headings Dates and Circumstances General Commentary Genre Language Versification and Style the Poet Persona and Themes The volume also offers a comprehensive digest of general and topical commentary on the Divine Poems from Donne's time through 2012     John Donne, Coterie Poet Arthur F. Marotti, 2008-08-01 Arthur F. Marotti has produced the first systematic study of John Donne's poetry as coterie literature offering fresh interpretations of the poems in their biographical and sociohistorical contexts It will be of interest and value to students and scholars of English Renaissance literature to critics interested in the application of revisionist history to literary study and to those concerned with the processes by which literature became institutionalized in the early modern period Donne treated poetry as an avocation restricting his verse to carefully chosen readers friends acquaintances patrons and the woman he later married This study employs socio historical and psychoanalytic methods to examine this poetry as work designed for readers to respond in knowledgeable ways to a complex interplay of literary text and social context Marotti argues that it is necessary to relate literary language to the languages of social economic and political transactions and to define the social and ideological affiliations of literary genres and modes After setting Donne's practice in the framework of the sixteenth century systems of manuscript literary transmission Marotti treats the verse chronologically and according to audience paying particular attention to the rhetorical enactment of the author's relationships to peers and superiors through the conflicting styles of egalitarian assertion social iconoclasm and deferential politeness Marotti relates the poetry to Donne's contemporary prose discussing the author's choice of various literary forms in the context of his sociopolitical life as well in terms of the shift from Elizabethan to Jacobean rule the latter change resulting in a realignment of genres within the culture's literary system He reads Donne's formal satires humanist verse letters erotic elegies and commentary epistles aware of the social coordinates of those particular genres and defines the markedly different circumstances to which Donne's libertine courtly satiric sentimental complimentary and religious lyrics individually belonged Marotti deals also with Donne's inventive mixing of genres in both shorter and longer poems Marotti's groundbreaking work offers new models of historical interpretation of Donne's poetry complementing previous formalist intellectual historical and literary historical readings It particularly highlights the importance of attending to the socioliterary conditions of literature designed for manuscript transmission rather than for publication work that includes for example much of the lyric poetry of Renaissance England     Georgian Poetry 1911-22 Timothy Rogers, 1997 Georgian Poetry Volume covers the period 1913-1959 Extras Full alphabetical listing of contributors to Georgian Poetry Includes Robert Graves Rupert

Brook D H Lawrence    The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 6 John Donne, 1995 Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscript and print history of Donne's poetry this edition presents newly edited critical texts of the poems and a comprehensive digest of the critical scholarly commentary on them from Donne's time forward Textual introductions briefly locate the poems in the context of Donne's life or poetic development outline the 17th century textual history of the poems and sketch the treatment of the text by modern editors A detailed textual apparatus presents variants collated from many sources and traces the lines of textual transmission Provided by publisher    Spenser's Forms of History Bart Van Es, 2002 In Spenser's Forms of History Bart van Es describes six modes through which Early Modern England addressed the past chronicle chorography antiquarian discourse euhemerism typology and prophecy By setting this material alongside the works of Edmund Spenser the book explores allusive strategies ranging in effect from euology to polemic Key Spenserian texts including The Faerie Queene The Shepeardes Calendar and A View of the Present State of Ireland are read against Elizabethan cultural documents extending from popular print to restricted manuscripts Over the course of six chapters each focusing on a single form the book shows Spenser to have been an exceptional historical thinker Drawing on recent studies of nationhood the study not only offers a new picture of the English Poet Historical but also makes an innovative contribution to current debates concerning the relationship between literature and history    The Heritage Series of Black Poetry, 1962-1975 Lauri Ramey, 2016-03-03 In 1962 the Heritage Series of Black Poetry founded and edited by Paul Breman published Robert Hayden's A Ballad of Remembrance By 1975 the Series had published 27 volumes by some of the twentieth century's most important and influential poets As elaborated in Lauri Ramey's extensive scholarly introduction this innovative volume has dual purposes To provide primary sources that recover the history and legacy of this groundbreaking publishing venture and to serve as a research companion for scholars working on the Series and on twentieth century black poetry Never before published primary materials include Paul Breman's memoir retrospectives by several of the poets published in the Series a photo documentary of W E B Du Bois's 1958 visit to The Netherlands poems by poets represented in the Series and scholarly essays Also included are bibliographies of the Heritage poets and of the Heritage Press Archives at the Chicago Public Library This reference work is an essential resource for scholars working in the fields of black poetry transatlantic studies and twentieth century book history    Women's Authorship and Editorship in Victorian Culture Beth Palmer, 2011-02-17 This book brings new perspectives to the study of sensation fiction in the Victorian period It examines Mary Elizabeth Braddon Ellen Wood and Florence Marryat's magazines alongside their fiction to explore the self conscious and complex ways they used sensation to rework contemporary notions of female agency
