

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a forest path. The path is covered in fallen leaves and is shrouded in a thick, golden mist. Tall, thin trees line the path, their branches reaching up. The foliage on the trees and the ground is in various shades of autumn: yellows, oranges, and some hints of red. The overall mood is serene and nostalgic.

Roads And Reminiscences:

Roads and Reminiscences Linda, Christiana Mata, 2012-01-17 You do not have to be a hundred years old or have experienced a lifetime of sorrows or have some kind or old song to write poetry Poetry prose comes from sources beyond senses from hidden places within us that demand expression The gift comes and goes through contained words Road and Reminiscences does not come from fame or popularity it comes from the heart of a child far beyond her years How rich is the tapestry woven from the mind of this young innocent warrior She has a gift only that begs passion No finer words of Martin Luther King have ever been published No observation of family friends and life can be richer in their spoken words So the blend of mother and daughter is combined to form a picture or Roads and Reminiscences and invite us to travel with them in our hearts Roads and Reminiscences Linda Hughes-Dorame, 2002-10 Menagerie In Sync Welcome to the world of Literary Art This book has a unique concept with a diverse collection of original poetic stories that have been applied to the photography taken by the author artist These poems are multifaceted and can be related to and enjoyed by all walks of life A c Free Spirited Expressions Collection Six Years on the Road, Or, Reminiscences of Colonial Life, Scenes, & Incidents John Robertson (of Cowan Tent.), 1856 Pedestrian and Other Reminiscences at Home and Abroad Sylvanus, 1846 Pedestrian and Other Reminiscences at Home and Abroad, with Sketches of Country Life Robert Colton, 1846 Letters written during a walking tour of France *Travelled Roads, Etc. Jerome Tweton, 1988 In the first case study of its kind Tweton explores the New Deal in one Minnesota county how programs operated what impact they had on communities and people and how people responded The story he tells is based on oral history interviews township and village records files of government papers and county newspapers Highways and Agricultural Engineering, Current Literature, 1936 The Road to Seneca Falls Judith Wellman, 2010-10-01 Feminists from 1848 to the present have rightly viewed the Seneca Falls convention as the birth of the women s rights movement in the United States and beyond In The Road To Seneca Falls Judith Wellman offers the first well documented full length account of this historic meeting in its contemporary context The convention succeeded by uniting powerful elements of the antislavery movement radical Quakers and the campaign for legal reform under a common cause Wellman shows that these three strands converged not only in Seneca Falls but also in the life of women s rights pioneer Elizabeth Cady Stanton It is this convergence she argues that foments one of the greatest rebellions of modern times Rather than working heavy handedly downward from their official Declaration of Sentiments Wellman works upward from richly detailed documentary evidence to construct a complex tapestry of causes that lay behind the convention bringing the struggle to life Her approach results in a satisfying combination of social community and reform history with individual and collective biographical elements The Road to Seneca Falls challenges all of us to reflect on what it means to be an American trying to implement the belief that all men and women are created equal both then and now A fascinating story in its own right it is also a seminal piece of scholarship for anyone interested in history politics or gender The Battles for
