The Iconography of Family Members in Egypt's Elite Tombs of the Old Kingdom Jing Wen, 2022-11-21 In The Iconography of Family Members in Egypt's Elite Tombs of the Old Kingdom Jing Wen offers a comprehensive survey of how ancient Egyptians portrayed their family members in the reliefs of an elite tomb Through the analysis of the depiction of family members this book investigates familial relations the funerary cult of the dead ancestor worship and relevant texts It provides a new hypothesis and perspective that would update our understanding of the Egyptian funerary practice and familial ideology The scenes of family members are not a record of family history but language games of the tomb owner that convey specific meaning to those who enter the chapel despite time and space Ancient Egyptian Tombs Steven Snape, 2011-06-13 This book explores the development of tombs as a cultural phenomenon in ancient Egypt and examines what tombs reveal about ancient Egyptian culture and Egyptians belief in the afterlife Investigates the roles of tombs in the development of funerary practices Draws on a range of data including architecture artifacts and texts Discusses tombs within the context of everyday life in Ancient Egypt Stresses the importance of the tomb as an eternal expression of the self His Good Name Christina Geisen, Jean Li, Steven B. Shubert, Kei Yamamoto, 2021-03-20 The wish to affiliate with a specific cultural social or ethnical group is as important today as it was in past societies such as that of the ancient Egyptians The same significance applies to the self presentation of an individual within such a group Although it is inevitable that we perceive ancient cultures through the lens of our time place and value systems we can certainly try to look beyond these limitations Questions of how the ancient Egyptians saw themselves and how individuals tried to establish and thus present themselves in society are central pieces of the puzzle of how we interpret this ancient culture This volume focuses on the topic of identity and self presentation tackling the subject from many different angles the ways in which social and personal identities are constructed and maintained the manipulations of culture by individuals to reflect real or aspirational identities and the methods modern scholars use to attempt to say something about ancient persons Building on the work of Ronald J Leprohon to whom this volume is dedicated contributions in this volume present an overview of our current state of understanding of patterns of identity and self presentation in ancient Egypt The contributions approach various aspects of identity and self presentation through studies of gender literature material culture mythology names and officialdom

Tomb Security in Ancient Egypt from the Predynastic to the Pyramid Age Reg Clark, 2016-03-31 This book presents an in depth analysis of the architecture of tomb security in Egypt from the Predynastic Period until the early Fourth Dynasty by extrapolating data on the security features of published tombs from the whole of Egypt and gathering it together for the first time in one accessible database Conspiracies in the Egyptian Palace Naguib Kanawati, 2003-09-02 This original study examines the claims for sensational intrigues in the 6th century Egyptian palace culminating in the possible assassination of King Teti by his own bodyguards New evidence from the author's recent excavations is set against the written claims of the ancient historian Manetho This offers the reader a unique opportunity to compare archaeological and historical evidence and sheds new light on the political conspiracies and quarrels of the age With over 80 illustrations and clear presentation of the dynastic tomb excavations the book also gives a rare and accessible insight into Old Kingdom society and administration under the kings Unis Teti and Pepy I It will be valuable to all students of Egyptian history The Egyptian Collection at Norwich Castle Museum Faye Kalloniatis,2019-08-30 The Egyptian Collection at Norwich Castle Museum represents the first full publication of this important collection which contains several outstanding objects Part 1 begins with an outline of the acquisition history of the Egyptian collection and its display within Norwich Castle in 1894 when it was converted from a prison to a museum The collection was largely acquired between the nineteenth and first part of the twentieth centuries Its most prominent donor was Flaxman Spurrell whose varied collection of flints faience beads and necklaces as well as Late Antique cloths was obtained from Sir Flinders Petrie Also prominent was the Norwich based Colman family most notable for its manufacture of mustard whose collection was purchased in Egypt during the late C19 Also included in this part are essays on several of the museum s outstanding items Ipu s shroud a rare early 18th Dynasty example with fragments also held in Cairo the 22nd Dynasty finely decorated and well preserved cartonnage and wooden lid of the priest Ankh hor and the exceptional model granary of Nile clay painted with lively scenes one showing the owner Intef playing senet Part 2 is a detailed catalogue of the complete collection It is organised into sections with objects grouped together mainly according to type stelae shabtis scarabs jewellery amulets vessels flints lamps inscribed Book of the Dead fragments metal figurines and Late Antique cloths and also according to function such as cosmetics grooming and architectural furniture elements The inscribed materials have all been translated and individual entries give examples or parallels Seventy colour plates illustrate each object Copper in Ancient Egypt Martin Odler,2023-04-03 The first comprehensive and up to date overview of what we know about the use of copper by the ancient Egyptians and Nubians from the Predynastic through the Early Dynastic until the end of the Second Intermediate Period c 4000 1600 BC The monograph presents a story based on the analysis of available evidence a synchronic and diachronic reconstruction of the development and changes of the chaîne opératoire of copper and copper alloy artefacts The book argues that Egypt was not isolated from the rest of the ancient world and that popular notions of its primitive technology are not based on facts Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations, 1965 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee of the Committee on Appropriations,1964 Egyptology at the Dawn of the Twenty-first Century: Archaeology zahi hawass,Lyla Pinch Brock,2003 This comprehensive three volume set marks the publication of the proceedings of the Eighth International Congress of Egyptologists held in Cairo in 2000 the largest Congress since the inaugural meeting in 1979 Organized thematically to reflect the breadth and depth of the material presented at this event these papers provide a survey of current Egyptological research at the dawn of the twenty first century The proceedings include the eight Millennium Debates led by esteemed Egyptologists addressing key issues in the field as well as nearly every paper presented at the Congress The 275 papers cover the whole spectrum of Egyptological research Grouped under the themes of archaeology history religion language conservation and museology and written in English French and German these contributions together form the most comprehensive picture of Egyptology today

Dating the Tombs of the Egyptian Old Kingdom Joyce Swinton, 2014-06-19 The decorated tombs of the Egyptian Old Kingdom offer detailed knowledge of a society that in all probability was the first nation state in history The system of dating these monuments presented here builds on the work of previous scholars In this volume the author explains how the dating method was devised

4. Symposium Zur Ägyptischen

Königsideologie Rolf Gundlach, John H. Taylor, 2009 The fourth symposium in the series on Ancient Egyptian Royal Ideology was held at the British Museum in London in 2004 taking at its theme Egyptian Royal Residences Structure and Form The scholars who participated in this gathering approached the subject from a broad range of perspectives They embraced all phases of history from the foundation of the Egyptian state to the Late Period and covered a variety of interrelated topics These included the physical layout and architectural design of palaces the activities which happened inside and the ideological questions raised by the status of the king his divine personal and institutional functions Beginning with these focal points the papers and discussions ranged further afield to include the roles of members of the court their relationship with the king and their activities at the residence The papers published in this volume focus strongly on the Middle and New Kingdoms since it is from these periods that the richest sources of data concerning the royal residence survive Textual sources and archaeological traces of palaces have been carefully studied in conjunction to provide new insights and to open new avenues of research
