obscenities warning him that his custodial job at the Women's Club was in jeopardy. He felt that both his job and his life were being threatened. To calm him, Sarah responded that it probably was just a prank call, but the more she thought about it, the more she is not so sure. Someone is upset that he was awarded the custodial position. But who and why? Saving Sarah Janet Murnaghan, 2018-09-04. When her daughter desperately needed a lung transplant to survive, Janet Murnaghan rallied against the outdated restrictions in healthcare that would limit her daughter's options. Sarah had been dying of cystic fibrosis since the day she was born. The disease quickly ravaged her lungs, and little body bit by bit. Fragile and frail, she had only weeks to live when her mom realized the reality of Sarah's situation. Transplant laws restricting access to lungs based on arbitrary age restrictions meant Sarah's options were limited. The injustice of her daughter's fate spurred Janet to start a public battle against outdated health care regulations and a battle to save Sarah's life. Janet transformed her pain and desperation into a voice for Sarah and other kids using social media to broadcast the unfairness, which was robbing Sarah of her right to life, with the help of friends and family who emerged as Sarah's army. How does a family navigate catastrophic illness and life in a hospital while still maintaining a sense of normalcy? Saving Sarah is a story of hope and courage and a mother's determination to never give up. It's also the story of how a family. Janet and her husband Fran have four other children, reacts and adjusts when one of its members is in ongoing crisis. I need to fight and I cannot fight and fall apart at the same time. Each single moment is all that matters from Saving Sarah.

Peonies in the Morning Charmain Crawford, 2020-03-27. Bonds are strengthened and new friendships made. Grab a cup of tea or coffee and get to know Anne, Katie, and Audrey in the first of the Cottage Cove series.

Mediated Maternity Linda Seidel, 2013-05-09. Mediated Maternity: Contemporary American Portrayals of Bad Mothers in Literature and Popular Culture by Linda Seidel explores the cultural construction of the bad mother in books, movies, and TV shows, arguing that these portrayals typically have the effect of cementing dominant assumptions about motherhood in place or less often of disrupting those assumptions, causing us to ask whether motherhood could be constructed differently. Portrayals of bad mothers not only help to establish what the good mother is by depicting her opposite but also serve to illustrate what the culture fears about women in general and mothers in particular. From the ancient horror of female power symbolized by Medea or more recently by Casey Anthony to the current worry that drug-addicted pregnant women are harming their fetuses, we see a social desire to monitor the reproductive capabilities of women, resulting in more formal and informal surveillance than in material or even moral support.
