Sarah Phillips:

Sarah Phillips Andrea Lee,2013-07-17 In the words of its title character this novel is set in the hermetic world of the old fashioned black bourgeoisie a group largely unknown to other Americans which has carried on with cautious pomp for years in eastern cities and suburbs using its considerable funds to attempt poignant imitations of high society acting with genuine gallantry in the struggle for civil rights and finally producing a generation of children educated in newly integrated schools and impatient to escape the outworn rituals of their parents Vital Records of Haverhill, Massachusetts: Births Haverhill

(Mass.),1910 The Black Female Body in American Literature and Art Caroline Brown,2013-02-28 This book examines how African American writers and visual artists interweave icon and inscription in order to re present the black female body traditionally rendered alien and inarticulate within Western discursive and visual systems Brown considers how the writings of Toni Morrison Gayl Jones Paule Marshall Edwidge Danticat Jamaica Kincaid Andrea Lee Gloria Naylor and Martha Southgate are bound to such contemporary postmodern visual artists as Lorna Simpson Carrie Mae Weems Kara Walker Betye Saar and Faith Ringgold While the artists and authors rely on radically different media photos collage video and assembled objects as opposed to words and rhythm both sets of intellectual activists insist on the primacy of the black aesthetic Both assert artistic agency and cultural continuity in the face of the oppression social transformation and cultural multiplicity of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book examines how African American performative practices mediate the tension between the ostensibly de racialized body politic and the hyper racialized black female body reimagining the cultural and political ground that guides various articulations of American national belonging Brown shows how and why black women writers and artists matter as agents of change how and why the form and content of their works must be recognized and reconsidered in the increasingly frenzied arena of cultural production and political debate

Beyond the Black Lady Lisa B. Thompson,2023-12-11 In this book Lisa B Thompson explores the representation of black middle class female sexuality by African American women authors in narrative literature drama film and popular culture showing how these depictions reclaim black female agency and illustrate the difficulties black women confront in asserting sexual agency in the public sphere Thompson broadens the discourse around black female sexuality by offering an alternate reading of the overly determined racial and sexual script that casts the middle class black lady as the bastion of African American propriety Drawing on the work of black feminist theorists she examines symptomatic autobiographies novels plays and key episodes in contemporary American popular culture including works by Anita Hill Judith Alexa Jackson P J Gibson Julie Dash Kasi Lemmons Jill Nelson Lorene Cary and Andrea Lee Little Clifty United Methodist Church Bonita Miller,2011-06-09 There is no available information at this time Family Memorials Henry Bond,1855 Genealogies of the Families and Descendants of the Early Settlers of Watertown, Massachusetts, Including Waltham and Weston Henry Bond,1855 Philadelphia Freedoms Michael Awkward,2013-10-11 Michael Awkward s Philadelphia Freedoms captures the energetic contestations over the meanings of racial politics and black identity during the post King era in the City of Brotherly Love Looking closely at four cultural moments he shows how racial trauma and his native city's history have been entwined He introduces each of these moments with poignant personal memories of the decade in focus and explores representation of African American freedom and oppression from the 1960s to the 1990s Philadelphia Freedoms explores NBA players' psychic pain during a playoff game the day after Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination themes of fatherhood and black masculinity in the soul music produced by Philadelphia International Records class conflict in Andrea Lee's novel Sarah Phillips and the theme of racial healing in Oprah Winfrey's 1997 film Beloved Awkward closes his examination of racial trauma and black identity with a discussion of candidate Barack Obama's speech on race at Philadelphia's Constitution Center pointing to the conflict between the nation's ideals and the racial animus that persists even into the second term of America's first black president

Sarah Phillips Andrea Lee, 2021-03-23 Discover the acclaimed author of Red Island House Andrea Lee's first novel a coming of age classic that follows a young Black woman through her middle class childhood in the suburbs of Philadelphia and her travels as an adult in France that captures the hidden world of mind and heart LA Times At once far reaching and intimate this novel in stories begins in Paris where Sarah Phillips has fled after graduating from Harvard In successive flashbacks we learn of Sarah's proper middle class upbringing as a minister's daughter in a Black suburb of Philadelphia Each layer of the past reveals the process that transformed her early sense of security into one of estrangement and escape while her adventures slowly lead her to contemplate the eventual prospect of a return Like the loop of time it chronicles Andrea Lee's brilliant and revelatory debut novel now considered a classic of Black American literature traces essential issues of identity and affiliation that can't be easily settled and its nuance and resonance remains as timely as ever

Levy-Hussen,2016-12-13 How to Read African American Literature offers a series of provocations to unsettle the predominant assumptions readers make when encountering post Civil Rights black fiction Foregrounding the large body of literature and criticism that grapples with legacies of the slave past Aida Levy Hussen s argument develops on two levels as a textual analysis of black historical fiction and as a critical examination of the reading practices that characterize the scholarship of our time Drawing on psychoanalysis memory studies and feminist and queer theory Levy Hussen examines how works by Toni Morrison David Bradley Octavia Butler Charles Johnson and others represent and mediate social injury and collective grief In the criticism that surrounds these novels she identifies two major interpretive approaches therapeutic reading premised on the assurance that literary confrontations with historical trauma will enable psychic healing in the present and prohibitive reading anchored in the belief that fictions of returning to the past are dangerous and to be avoided Levy Hussen argues that these norms have become overly restrictive standing in the way of a more supple method of interpretation that recognizes and attends to the indirect unexpected inconsistent and opaque workings of historical fantasy and desire Moving beyond the question of whether literature must heal or abandon historical wounds Levy Hussen proposes new ways to read African American literature now      Publications Parish Register Society, London,1901      Publications
