Sarahs Psalm:

Beyond Dichotomies Elisabeth Mudimbe-Boyi, 2012-02-01 Beyond Dichotomies examines literary texts cultural production and concrete local practices within the context of modernity and globalization by focusing on the ways in which some societies confront the complexity of cultures reflected in new forms of knowledge narratives and subjectivities The contributors explore how particular societies negotiate the relations between the global and the local and use a geographical comparative perspective combined with an interdisciplinary approach to offer a diversity of views and illuminate the cultural impact of globalization on different societies around the world Africa Asia Europe and the Americas These societies face complex questions regarding people s histories identities and cultures that embody the ambivalence contradictions and anxieties generated by the process of globalization The contributors provide a compelling conclusion for a rethinking and reconfiguration of cultures and intercultural relations in today s global world in which dichotomized representations coexist with a discourse of globalization

Sarah's Laughter Vinoth Ramachandra, 2020-05-31 Sarah s Laughter provides a reflection on suffering that is deeply personal and both theologically and philosophically astute Vinoth Ramachandra draws on his distinctive positioning as a Sri Lankan Christian theologian one who has lived and ministered in contexts shaped by the destruction of natural disasters and the violence of human evil to confront the intellectual moral and political challenges posed to faith in the increasingly broken world of the twenty first century Yet far from being an abstract discussion of theodicy this book is intimate and vulnerable embracing the biblical practice of lament and inviting an authentic response to grief one that makes space for serious doubt and profound questioning Sharing his own ongoing journey with suffering and a questing faith Ramachandra reminds us that lament and joy faith and protest clarity and ambiguity belong together in faithful Christian discipleship It is not in bypassing the darkness of the world but in embracing it in imitation of the incarnate God that we may glimpse the new creation
