Sarah's Story Bill Harley, 1996 Sarah cannot think of a story to tell in class for her homework assignment but on her way to school she gets help from some unexpected sources Sarah's Story Swift Helen Susan (author), 1901 How Welfare Worked in the Early United States Gabriel J. Loiacono, Gabriel Loiacono, 2021 Two Centuries Ago Americans paid for and relied on an astonishing government system that provided food housing and medical care to those in need How Welfare Worked in the Early United States Five Microhistories tells stories of poor relief through the lives of five people a long serving overseer of the poor a Continental Army veteran who was banished from town a nurse who was paid by the government to care for the poor an unwed mother who cared for the elderly and struggled to remain with her daughter and a young paralyzed man who worked as a Christian missionary inside a poorhouse Of Native African and English descent these five Rhode Islanders life stories show how poor relief actually worked Students of history and of today's social provision have much to learn about how welfare worked in the early United States Book jacket Fictions of America Judie Newman, 2007-12-04 The Internet has had a huge impact on channels of communication and information reaching across time and space to connect the world through globalisation In this Internet led world story links to story windows open on new stories and no overall authority establishes priority This sense of globalisation has raised many questions for contemporary American Novelists primarily the usefulness or redundancy of narrative and its potentially adaptive function What are the right stories for such a broadband world How do contemporary American novelists respond to issues such as the influence of the multinational corporation and its predecessors human rights Imperialism the literary work as a marketable commodity translation as betrayal data overload and the implosion of the virtual into the biosphere Is globalisation inevitable or is it a fiction which fiction turns into reality Fictions of America explores these questions and looks at the ways in which India China and Africa can be said to have underwritten American culture how literature has been marketed globally and how novelists have answered back to power with resistant fictions Judie Newman examines a wide range of fiction from the mid nineteenth to the twenty first century including the transnational adoption narrative short story historical novel slave narrative international bestseller and Western to illustrate her argument Looking closely at authors such as Bharati Mukherjee John Updike Emily Prager Hannah Crafts Zora Neale Hurston David Bradley Peter Heg and Cormac McCarthy Fictions of America provides a bold response to the crucial questions raised by globalisation Sarahland Sam Cohen, 2021-03-09 Queer dirty insightful and so funny Andrea Lawlor this coyly revolutionary debut story collection imagines new origins and futures for its cast of unforgettable protagonists almost all of whom are named Sarah FINALIST FOR THE GOLDEN POPPY AWARD FOR FICTION NAMED A MOST ANTICIPATED BOOK OF 2021 BY THE MILLIONS OPRAH MAGAZINE LAMBDA LITERARY ELECTRIC LITERATURE REFINERY29 COSMO THE ADVOCATE ALMA PAPERBACK PARIS WRITE OR DIE TRIBE READS RAINBOW In Sarahland Sam Cohen brilliantly and often hilariously explores the ways in which traditional stories have failed us both demanding and thrillingly providing for its cast of Sarahs new origin stories new ways to love the planet and those inhabiting it and new possibilities for life itself In one story a Jewish college Sarah passively consents to a form life in pursuit of an MRS degree and is swept into a culture of normalized sexual violence Another reveals a version of Sarah finding pleasure and a new set of problems by playing dead for a wealthy necrophiliac A Buffy loving Sarah uses fan fiction to work through romantic obsession As the collection progresses Cohen explodes this search for self insisting that we have more to resist and repair than our own personal narratives Readers witness as the ever evolving Sarah gets recast as a bible era trans woman an aging lesbian literally growing roots a being who transcends the earth as we know it While Cohen presents a world that will clearly someday end Sarah will continue In each Sarah s refusal to adhere to a single narrative she potentially builds a better home for us all a place to live that demands no fixity of self no plague of consumerism no bodily compromise a place called Sarahland

Un/German Fatima El-Tayeb,2025-06-15 Un German is a powerful intervention in the ongoing debates over national identity migration and collective memory in Europe Against the backdrop of the 2015 refugee crisis Fatima El Tayeb argues that Europe s internal fractures were deflected through recurring crises casting racialized populations as the external menace against which the continent could unite First published in German in 2016 the book critically examines how Germany s reaction to the arrival of nearly one million refugees initially framed as a culture of welcome but one that rapidly turned to hostility was not an anomaly but part of a broader European pattern Drawing on public memory and its material expressions in post 1989 Germany Un German brings into sharp relief the disparities in how Europe remembers its fascist socialist and colonial pasts El Tayeb highlights Black Muslim and Roma artists and activists who disrupted public commemorations intended to reinforce dominant narratives arguing that these disturbances brought to the fore unresolved tensions in German collective memory In doing so El Tayeb reveals the limits of Europe s self conception as pluralistic and progressive while also opening the door to new more inclusive ways of imagining European identity

Food Faiths Catherine L. Newell,2023-08-29 Food Faiths Diet Religion and the Science of Spiritual Eating explores how individuals internalize scientific knowledge regarding health and diet and then incorporate that information into their lives as the basis of a personal spiritual practice In this book Catherine L. Newell examines how science is used to justify a dietary lifestyle and investigates the world of spiritual eating which is comprised of practitioners who identify themselves not by a religion but by their diet These diets are based in diverse sciences such as anthropology ecology systems biology nutritional studies biomedicine and physiology adherents view their diet as a lifestyle a path to enlightenment and a nebulously defined point of health This in turn enables the practitioner to locate themselves in relation to other members of their community to older traditions suffused with religious practice and to understand their praxis in relation to the entire biosphere While on one level this project explores how food health and diet can be a source of spiritual fulfillment on another level Food Faiths illustrates how science and religion are subsumed into a culture and merged to form the basis of an individual's lived spiritual practice

Shared Languages, Shared Identities, Shared Stories Doris Schüpbach, 2008 This book explores how 15 immigrants from German speaking Switzerland in Australia make sense of their migratory experience of building a new life in a different language It does so by examining their written and oral life stories The analysis takes two complementary perspectives Firstly the construction of language identities is studied through the language practices and attitudes discussed and displayed by the participants Secondly the ways in which they create coherence in their life stories focuses on autobiographical identities where language is a medium of sense making across their life course The combined perspectives highlight the diversity among the participants and the complexities of language and identity construction in the context of migration

Endings in the Cinema Michael Walker, 2020-03-13 This book offers a new way of thinking about film endings Whereas existing works on the subject concentrate on narrative resolution this book explores the way film endings blend together a complex of motifs tropes and other elements to create the sense of an ending that is it looks at endings as endings Drawing on a wide range of examples taken from films of different periods and national cinemas the author identifies three key features which structure the work thresholds and boundaries water and above all the beach The beach combines water and a boundary and is the most resonant of the key sites to which film endings gravitate Although beach endings go back to at least 1910 they have increased markedly in post classical cinema and can be found across all genres and in films from many different countries As the leading example of the book's argument they illustrate both the aesthetic richness and the structural complexity of film endings
