Fiction Across Borders Shameem Black, 2010-01-12 Theorists of Orientalism and postcolonialism argue that novelists betray political and cultural anxieties when characterizing the Other Shameem Black takes a different stance Turning a fresh eye toward several key contemporary novelists she reveals how border crossing fiction represents socially diverse groups without resorting to stereotype idealization or other forms of imaginative constraint Focusing on the work of J M Coetzee Amitav Ghosh Jeffrey Eugenides Ruth Ozeki Charles Johnson Gish Jen and Rupa Bajwa Black introduces an interpretative lens that captures the ways in which these authors envision an ethics of representing social difference They not only offer sympathetic portrayals of the lives of others but also detail the processes of imagining social difference Whether depicting the multilingual worlds of South and Southeast Asia the exportation of American culture abroad or the racial tension of postapartheid South Africa these transcultural representations explore social and political hierarchies in constructive ways Boldly confronting the orthodoxies of recent literary criticism Fiction Across Borders builds upon such seminal works as

Edward Said s Orientalism and offers a provocative new study of the late twentieth century novel Victimhood and Vulnerability in 21st Century Fiction Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2017-04-21 New Visibilities Victimhood and Other Forms of Vulnerability in 21st century Fiction eds Jean Michel Ganteau and Susana Onega addresses the relationship between trauma and ethics and moves one step further to engage with vulnerability studies in their relation to literature and literary form It consists of an introduction and of twelve articles written by specialists from various European countries and includes an interview with US novelist Jayne Anne Philips conducted by her translator into French Marc Amfreville addressing her latest novel Quiet Dell through the victimhood vulnerability prism The corpus of primary sources on which the volume is based draws on various literary backgrounds in English from Britain to India through the USA All contributions are India Today ,2005 World Literature: A Non-British Approach Krishna Sharma, This book has been designed original to help the students who prepare for competitive exams like UGC NET SET SLET PGT Assistant Professor Exams etc Every important writer across the world has been covered in this book The Caribbean African Canadian Australian German French Russian Italian Greek Roman New Zealandia and several other writers have been given in the book The Grace of Four Moons Pravina Shukla, 2015-10-16 Because clothing food and shelter are basic human needs they provide excellent entries to cultural values and individual aesthetics Everyone gets dressed every day but body art has not received the attention it deserves as the most common and universal of material expressions of culture The Grace of Four Moons aims to document the clothing decisions made by ordinary people in their everyday lives Based on fieldwork conducted primarily in the city of Banaras India Pravina Shukla conceptualizes and realizes a total model for the study of body art understood as all aesthetic modifications and supplementations to the body Shukla urges the study of the entire process of body art from the assembly of raw materials and the manufacture of objects through their sale and the interactions between merchants and consumers to the consumer s use of objects in creating personal decoration Women's Fiction Rebecca Vnuk, Nanette Donohue, 2013-09-17 Offering a fresh perspective on women's fiction for a broad reading audience fans as well as librarians this book defines and maps the genre and describes hundreds of relevant titles Women's Fiction A Guide to Popular Reading Interests celebrates the books in this broad genre titles that explore the lives of female protagonists with a focus on their relationships with family friends and lovers After a brief introductory history and a chapter that defines the characteristics of women's fiction the author showcases annotations and suggestions of approximately 300 titles by more than 100 authors She explains how women s fiction differs from romance fiction enabling readers to appreciate this rich body of literature that encompasses titles as diverse as Meg Cabot s lighthearted chick lit to the more serious novels of Elizabeth Berg and Maeve Binchy The book identifies some of the most popular and enduring women s fiction authors and titles and provides invaluable reading lists and readalike suggestions that will be appreciated by both librarians and general readers India Today International ,2004 Indian English Literature KRISHNA SHARMA, 2020-09-08 This book has been designed to help the students who want to crack the exams like NET JRF SET SLET TGT PGT etc It contains several writers and their important works in detail that is useful and exam oriented Once you read it you will recommend this book to others this is The Story of a Widow Musharraf Ali Faroogi, 2009-08-04 One day when she looked at the portrait she considered how blessed she had been in life She contemplated her good fortune in finding an upright man like Akbar Ahmad as her life partner and felt grateful for his bounteous legacy which released her from all financial cares Akbar Ahmad looked back at her his face cast in an expression of long suffering Mona's eyes welled up with tears from The Story of a Widow After the death of her husband Akbar Ahmad Mona finds herself settling ambivalently into a new life But the calm rhythm of her days gardening cooking time with her neighbours and family in Karachi is upset by the appearance of Salamat Ali the new tenant in her friend Mrs Baig s house Vivacious friendly and at times almost impertinent Salamat Ali is both a breath of fresh air and a disconcerting new presence in Mona's life and their awkward meetings always seem to end in embarrassment or misunderstanding When Salamat Ali encouraged by Mrs Baig presents Mona with a marriage proposal she is forced to consider what kind of future she wishes to make for herself and what her past with Akbar Ahmad really means The possibility of Mona marrying Salamat Ali shocks her grown daughters Tanya and Amber and scandalizes her extended family according to whom Mona's happiness comes second to what people say about widows who remarry As Mona negotiates the complex web of tradition bound in laws and gossiping interfering relatives she finds Salamat Ali waking her to the pleasures of life that thirty years with her dour first husband all but smothered But if Salamat Ali helps her discover something essential he also exposes her to new risks and new dangers The Story of a Widow is a beautifully observant novel one that pays careful attention to the delicate movements of the heart in romantic and family life But it is equally concerned with the mores of a society in which traditional roles both support and constrain men and particularly women Gently humorous and profoundly perceptive The Story of a Widow is the moving tale of a woman's discovery of her voice and herself The Story of an Education Shambo Dey, 2015-08-26 In a world characterized by shoestring poverty racial divide crime and extreme violence what does an education mean to children The author embarks on a journey to fight the almost intractable realities of the children of a deeply deprived community facing insurmountable difficulties and emotional losses to ultimately find the meaning of education and service to those most needy of it

Postcolonial Literary History and Indian English Fiction South-Asian Fiction in English Alex Tickell, 2016-04-30 This collection offers an essential structured survey of contemporary fictions of South Asia in English and includes specially commissioned chapters on each of the national traditions of the region It covers less well known writings from Pakistan Sri Lanka and Bangladesh as well as the more firmly established canon of contemporary Indian literature and features chapters on important new and emergent forms such as the graphic novel genre fiction and the short story It also contextualizes some key transformative aspects of recent fiction such as border and diaspora identities new middle class narratives and popular genres and literary response to terror and conflict

Edited and designed with researchers and students in mind the book updates existing criticism and represents a readable guide to a dynamic rapidly changing area of global literature House Lights: A Novel Leah Hager Cohen, 2008-07-17 A New York Times Book Review Notable Book A Boston Globe Bestseller Simply gorgeous Los Angeles Times Late in her twentieth year Beatrice mails a letter on the sly sparking events that will change her life forever The addressee is her grandmother a legendary stage actress long estranged from her daughter Bea s mother Though Bea wants to become an actress herself it is the desire to understand the old family rift that drives her to work her way into her grandmother's graces But just as she establishes a precarious foothold in her grandmother's world Bea's elite Boston home life begins to crumble Her beloved father is accused of harassment by one of his graduate students her usually serene self certain mother shows signs of fallibility And Bea is falling in love with someone many would consider inappropriate Powerfully written and psychologically intricate House Lights illuminates the corrosive power of family secrets and the redemptive struggle to find truth forgiveness and love Leela's Book Alice Albinia, 2025-04-25 Steeped in the tradition of the Indian epic yet modern and vastly entertaining The Times London In her fiction debut Alice Albinia weaves a multithreaded epic tale that encompasses divine saga and familial discord and introduces an unforgettable heroine Leela alluring taciturn haunted is moving from New York back to Delhi Worldly and accomplished she has been in self imposed exile from India and her family for decades twenty two years earlier her sister was seduced by the egotistical Vyasa and the fallout from their relationship drove Leela away Now an eminent Sanskrit scholar Vyasa is preparing for his son s marriage But when Leela arrives for the wedding she disrupts the careful choreography of the weekend with its myriad attendees and their conflicting desires Gleefully presiding over the drama is Ganesh divine elephant headed scribe of the Mahabharata India's great epic The family may think they have arranged the wedding for their own selfish ends but according to Ganesh it is he who is directing events in a bid to save Leela his beloved heroine from Vyasa As the weekend progresses secret online personas maternal identities and poetic authorships are all revealed boundaries both religious and continental are crossed and families are ripped apart and brought back together in this vibrant and brilliant celebration of family love and storytelling Verve .2005 Eating India Chitrita Banerji, 2008-01-16 Banerji is one of the most evocative of Indian food writers blending an exact understanding of techniques with an abiding curiosity about the many human stories behind the art of food India Today In Eating India award winning food writer Chitrita Banerji takes us on an extraordinary journey through a national cuisine formed by generations of arrivals assimilations and conquests Traveling across the length and breadth of the country from Bengal to Goa and Karnataka via the Grand Trunk Road then northwards to Amritsar Lucknow and Varanasi on to Bombay and Kerala Banerji discovers a civilization with an insatiable curiosity one that consumes the old and the new with eager voracity Weaving together myths and folklore associated with food the people and their culture the author narrates captivating accounts of life in the subcontinent the legend behind the weeklong harvest festival of Onam the strictly observed rules of kosher in the Jewish households of Cochin the best Benarasi thandai that has a dollop of bhang in it and the food and culture of the indigenous people who hover on the edges of mainstream consciousness among others Eating India is also peppered with fascinating titbits from India's history the use of shall rice to make pilafs during the Mughal period the advent of chillies with the arrival of the Portuguese British apart from Goan influence on Parsi society that prompted the Parsis to open the first girls school in India in 1849 and the medieval movable feast that unfolded on the travellers platter as they moved from east to west on Sher Shah Suri s Sarak i Azam At different points in her journey Banerji shows us how restructuring old customs and making innovations is what India is all about food in India has always been and still is fusion one that is forever evolving Certain to enchant anyone enamoured of Indian food and culture Eating India is a heady blend of travelogue and food writing The Publishers Weekly ,1909 Indian Summer Arthur J. Frankel, 2014-02-11 Under the shadow of the turbulent 1960s this is my story of a journey through village India as an American Peace Corp Volunteer I graduated college in 1966 with no idea of what I wanted to do in life I asked the Peace Corps to send me to a place that was more different than anything I had ever known I got what I asked for India unfolded into a kaleidoscope of fascinating people and unforgettable scenes in a culture that never failed to amaze me The sights smells and sounds of village India offer the backdrop of what happened some stories guite incredible but all true After two years I was infused with the spiritual and mystical quality that was and still is India something that is almost beyond explaining It cannot be found by touring India or even visiting an ashram but only by living there learning the local language and being with Indians in their homes and work Forty four years after leaving the Peace Corps I returned to village India Surprisingly very little had changed All of the profits from the sale of this book will be donated to the Vishwa Bharati non profit village school in Anavatti India and to the School of Social Work at the University of North Carolina Wilmington to support students and faculty in visiting India
