

Introducing Hugh Corbett: the Sherlock Holmes of the 13th Century

He was a hero of the 'Webb' expedition who saved the life of England's King Edward I. His reward: a cushy clerk's job. But when the King calls on him again to help foil an assassination plot, things no longer remain so cushy. Corbett's first clue is a suicide committed within the shadowy halls of London's infamous St. Mary's Church. As soon as Corbett discovers the true murderous nature of the incident, he too is stalked by the killers.

His investigation takes him on a macabre journey through the mean, disease-infested streets of 13th-century London where death and terror rule the nights. What he uncovers is a ghastly demonic cult whose god is Satan, whose goal is to overthrow the throne, and whose members will let no man stand in their way.
