Satirical Stories Of Nikolai Leskov:

Satirical stories of Nikolai Leskov Nikolai Semenovich Leskov, William B. Edgerton, Satirical Stories of Nikolai Leskov Nikolai Semionovich Leskov, 1969 Russian Short Stories from Pushkin to Buida Robert Chandler, 2005-05-26 From the reign of the Tsars in the early 19th century to the collapse of the Soviet Union and beyond the short story has long occupied a central place in Russian culture Included are pieces from many of the acknowledged masters of Russian literature including Pushkin Turgenev Dostoyevsky Tolstoy and Solzhenitsyn alongside tales by long suppressed figures such as the subversive Kryzhanowsky and the surrealist Shalamov Whether written in reaction to the cruelty of the bourgeoisie the bureaucracy of communism or the torture of the prison camps they offer a wonderfully wide ranging and exciting representation of one of the most vital and enduring forms of Russian literature Short Story Index: 1969-1973, 1974

Satirical Stories Nikolai Semenovich Leskov, 1969 The Enchanted Wanderer Nikolai Leskov, 2014-01-14 Nikolai Leskov's writing exploded the conventions of nineteenth century Russian fiction Here is the other Russia mythical and untamed an uneasy synthesis of Orthodoxy and Old Believers a land populated by soldiers and monks serfs and princes Tartars and gypsies a vast country brimming with the promise of magic These seventeen tales some rooted in the oral tradition others cast as sophisticated anecdotes are all told in the voices of storytellers addressing their audience allowing us as readers to join a group of listeners Innovative in form and rich in wordplay the narratives unfurl in startlingly modern ways The great gift of this new translation allows us to hear all the nuances of Leskov's brilliant language Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections Marietta Chicorel, 1974 Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today Supplement, 1969-1973 Estelle A. Fidell, 1974-12 An index to 11 561 stories in 805 collections Memoirs of Peasant Tolstoyans in Soviet Russia William Benbow Edgerton, 1993-09-22 Following the 1917 revolution thousands of Leo Tolstoy's Russian followers intellectuals and peasants workers and former soldiers inspired by his ideas about the great moral significance of productive labor joined together in agricultural communes believing that they would implement the ideals proclaimed by the Russian revolution the building of a humane stateless society free of violence and exploitation The goals of the Tolstoyans soon came into conflict with the policies of the Soviet state With the forced collectivization of agriculture in the late 1920s most of the Tolstoyan cooperatives were closed down however one group the Life and Labor Commune was permitted to relocate to Siberia where it became a haven for Tolstoy's peasant followers until it too was shut down on the eve of World War II Persecuted by the authorities and frequently arrested and imprisoned during the 1930s members of the Life and Labor Commune persisted in their pacifist beliefs vegetarianism and commitment to farming The powerful and moving memoirs presented here throw light on a long suppressed chapter in the history of Tolstoy's religious and social influence in the Soviet Union They also document the history of the Russian peasantry from what appears to be a unique source the peasants themselves Jewish Representation in British Literature 1780-1840 M. Scrivener, 2011-09-26 Describing Jewish representation by Jews and Gentiles in the British Romantic era from the Old Bailey courtroom and popular songs to novels poetry and political pamphlets Scrivener integrates popular culture with belletristic writing to explore the wildly varying treatments of stereotypical Jewish figures Passion, Humiliation, Revenge Lapidus, 1955-01-01 This book reveals the phenomenon in Russian prose in which a male protagonist finds himself perpetuating a cycle of passion humiliation and revenge within his relationships with women By examining the mental and emotional state of the male protagonist who finds himself in a sexual situation Rina Lapidus explores how his passion for a woman leads the man into an encounter that causes him humiliation and ends up eliciting a powerful desire on his part to punish the woman who initially arouses his erotic feeling The male protagonist directs his fury at the woman seeking vengeance because of the shame he has suffered Lapidus shows how the man sees himself as a highly spiritual being and finds it difficult to come to terms with his sexual nature The author argues that this denial of desire leads the man to take out his frustration with himself on the woman projecting all of his faults and guilt onto her When the woman brings the male protagonist low his thirst for revenge becomes a powerful driving force in his life that eventually brings about his downfall This book will be of interest to those studying in the areas of Russian literature psychology and gender studies

Short Story Index, 1960 Russia's Capitalist Realism Vadim Shneyder, 2020-10-15 Russia's Capitalist Realism examines how the literary tradition that produced the great works of Leo Tolstoy Fyodor Dostoevsky and Anton Chekhov responded to the dangers and possibilities posed by Russia's industrial revolution During Russia's first tumultuous transition to capitalism social problems became issues of literary form for writers trying to make sense of economic change The new environments created by industry such as giant factories and mills demanded some kind of response from writers but defied all existing forms of language This book recovers the rich and lively public discourse of this volatile historical period which Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Chekhov transformed into some of the world's greatest works of literature Russia's Capitalist Realism will appeal to readers interested in nineteenth century Russian literature and history the relationship between capitalism and literary form and theories of the novel Night Owls Nikolai Leskov, 2025-04-17 90 classic titles celebrating 90 years of Penguin Books I decided that my trip had evidently been in vain since nothing of interest could possibly occur on this visit I was mistaken Condemned to sleeplessness by the chatter permeating his guesthouse room a forlorn traveller turns his ear to the riotous tale spun by the garrulous meddlesome inane and utterly unprincipled M rya Mart novna next door Her exuberant deformations of morality and language scandalized Tsarist society and she remains one of Russian literature's most uproarious anti heroes Russian Émigré Short Stories from Bunin to Yanovsky Bryan Karetnyk, 2017-04-27

SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2018 READ RUSSIA PRIZE Imagine that many of Russia's greatest writers of the twentieth century were entirely unknown in the West and only recently discovered in Russia itself Strange as it may seem it is in fact true and their rediscovery is setting the literary world alight Names such as Gaito Gazdanov and Vasily Yanovsky have excited great interest in Russia and with stories of gambling drug abuse love death suicide madness espionage glittering high society and the seedy underworld of Europe's capitals their appeal is extremely broad Many of these writers' works are only now being published in Russia for the first time alongside those of leading contemporary authors and to great critical acclaim And we aren't just talking about two or three obscure authors there are quite literally dozens of them

Nineteenth-century Literature Criticism Laurie Lanzen Harris, 1981 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights short story writers and other creative writers who lived between 1800 and 1900 from the first published critical appraisals to current evaluations
