    The S.A. Merry-go-round ,1929      Cinefantastique ,1973      Congolese Social Networks Joy Owen,2015-12-16 Congolese Social Networks Living on the Margins in Muizenberg Cape Town is a closely researched ethnography that focuses predominantly on the lives of three Congolese transmigrants self identified as such This monograph situates them in a cosmopolitan South African space amongst dissimilar South African others and similar national others Unlike other contemporary international texts on transnational migrants this book discusses entrance into the immigration country and the diverse attempts of Congolese men to situate themselves within social networks In the intellectual move to focus on transnational spaces and transnationality the reality of migration in a specific socio political context a focus on place has been ignored Migration on the African continent is more similar to the early migrations of Italian Polish and Jewish immigrants to the United States in the initial phases of arrival adaptation and reproduction of the national self While these Congolese transmigrants maintain contact with those back home through various social media applications their very real survival needs force a day to day living that secures survival needs whilst those of a higher class maintain a focus on lola paradise onward migration out of South Africa An important aspect of securing one's survival needs is the creation of diverse social networks Through these networks Congolese transmigrants access information regarding employment information on appropriate educational opportunities for children information regarding safe residential areas and a number of other forms of information that support their existence in an oftentimes alienating South African space The Chosen One V. P. Oliver, 2000-10 When three cousins learn that they have inherited distinct components of a family legacy unexplainable things begin to happen around them Kalista begins to see apparitions Taylor experiences terrifying dreams and Brendon hears voices that tell him what people are thinking Secretly they embark on a quest to find answers and seek advice from Mama Julie a one hundred and ten year old wise woman with psychic abilities Adding to their frustration Mama Julie opens their minds to new ideals and beliefs In doing so she spins a tale regarding an ancient mythological legend that they have a difficult time believing It only leaves them with more questions During their journey to solve the mystery even stranger things begin to transpire and the legendary prophecy comes to life As the trio continues on their mystical odyssey they encounter the unimaginable murder cultural bias supernatural phenomenon love hate betrayal and ultimately coming to terms with their extraordinary talents These talents transport them to a world full of suspense fantasy and spine tingling adventure they invite you to join them during the exploration to find the truth Enter a Samurai: Full text and illustrations

Joseph L. Anderson, 2011 Looking back to the last years of the nineteenth century veteran producer director Joseph L. Anderson draws upon a monumental body of research gleaned from libraries and archives in seven countries to introduce the Japanese theatrical impresario Kawakami Otojiro In 1899 Kawakami his wife the inspired dancer and actress Sadayakko and his troupe went on epochal performance tours of the U S and Europe introducing audiences to new forms of dramatic art and dance previously unseen in the West Possessed of boundless energy and limitless imagination Kawakami was a pioneer who quite literally viewed the world as his stage In the closing decade of an all too brief life Kawakami introduced major reforms of Japanese performance and the theatre business Scholarly witty and filled with fascinating insights into the culture and conventions of fin de siecle America Europe and Japan Enter a Samurai opens a door into a little known yet vitally important era of modern theatrical history About the Author Joseph L Anderson has been enjoying Japanese and American plays and films for over seven decades During the 1950s and 1960s he wrote for and was an editorial board member on many little film magazines Later as professor of film in the Ohio University College of Fine Arts and adjunct in its Comparative Arts doctoral program in the early 1960s he pioneered university level studies of Japanese cinema He has a BA in history from Antioch College and an MA from Ohio State University and he was a language student at ICU Tokyo Anderson is the principal coauthor of The Japanese Film Art and Industry in print for fifty years Anderson was chief advisor for the Tokyo Broadcasting System academic program in Japanese Broadcasting Media and Culture and taught at the Tisch School of the Arts New York University He has been an assistant director and dialogue coach on American feature films shot in Japan as well as a director of documentary films a Variety stringer and a writer of subtitles for Japanese films In Hollywood and at WGBH Boston he developed computer generated subtitles for feature motion pictures the technique in use today During his career he directed two independent American feature films was an outside producer for ABC and CBS news specials director of special projects at the American Art Theatre Guild Mid West producer for the Candid Camera Company a puppeteer a neophyte comedian in burlesque an actor in lesser touring companies director of a children s theatre and an English language benshi live narrator of Japanese silent films In his teens he was a professional scenic artist stage carpenter and minor actor with several Equity summer stock theatres Anderson is now a retired vice president of WGBH Boston the organization that for several decades has produced more than a fourth of the television programs seen nationwide on PBS In 1989 he received the Japan Prize Nihonsho for WGBH and was a Japan Foundation senior fellow in 1975 Volunteers' Gazette ,1909 You Must Remember This John Michael Curlovich ,2017-11-11 You Must Remember This is an homage to the classic film Casablanca on the 75th anniversary of the film s release in America It is the height of World War II Frank Chandler is an American GI who has been separated from the army on a blue discharge Along with his musician friend and sometime lover Dan Jackson he finds himself in Marrakesh only a short distance away from Casablanca an international city where every kind of pleasure is easily available But Marrakesh is also a city of danger The Nazis are establishing themselves there and their ominous presence means life is fraught with peril Then Lilli a beautiful mysterious woman from Frank s past shows up unexpectedly and he finds himself confronted with the hardest choice of his life Lilli s presence stirs emotions he thought he had buried Yet there is still the city and its men and the thousand pleasures it offers Should Frank go with Lilli and try to make a normal life with her Or should he follow what he increasingly believes to be his true nature That is the dramatic conflict at the heart of You Must Remember This National Baker ,1922 The Saturday Evening Post ,1925 The Reel Cowboy Buck Rainey,1996 Movies and books have romanticized the life of the cowboy To most the heroes of countless Westerns fall into one of three categories the strong silent asexual deliverer of damsels in distress the slick and gaudy guitar strummer and the virile violent drifter In truth real cowboys had little in common with the fictionalized characters of literature and the silver screen The reel cowboys of yesteryear are recalled in Part One of this work The make believe West of Gene Autry Buck Jones Harry Carey and many others is contrasted with the real American West Part Two discusses the many movies based on the writings of Western writers The works of Zane Grey Louis LAmour Max Brand Luke Short Ernest Haycox and many others have been transformed to the silver screen often with great success Next examined are the movies based upon three writers of the great Northwest James Oliver Curwood Jack London and Rex Beach A concluding section looks at cinema cowboys on the so called sawdust trail Will Rogers Tom Mix Jack Hoxie were among those reel cowboys who performed in circuses and Wild West shows     The Condor ,1909     The Silver Screen Maureen Howard,2004 In the twilight days of silent film Isabel Maher renounces the glitter and glamour of Hollywood to pursue a life as a wife and mother as her three children struggle against the lives she has scripted for them Joe a Jesuit priest Rita who runs off with a gangster who turns state s evidence and Gemma angry and ambitious who pursues fame as a photographer Reprint     Billboard Music Week ,1907
