

Ruefully admitting we can neither remain children nor all become artists still less saints and mystics, we turn back, regretfully, but massively, to the time-ridden world.

A Time to Mourn Verena Kast,2020 In what is often called her most important book Verena Kast examines the role of mourning in the therapeutic process Working as a psychotherapist Frau Kast has often observed depressive illnesses caused by painful losses which have not been adequately mourned Traditionally mourning has not been a subject of psychologists attention Frau Kast uses dreams to illustrate the stages of mourning and shows systematically how the unconscious stimulates us to encounter our grief Mourning marks an end but it also fosters personal growth It is a time of renewal a time for incubation for introspection for going into oneself to gather strength as a seed goes deep into the earth to find the resources for striving toward the light

From the Life and Work of C.G. Jung Aniela Jaffé,2020 Aniela Jaff was given permission to quote from Jung s highly personal Red Book and she does so in her essay on Jung s creative phases Shortly before her death the author also updated and expanded her long famous article addressing the National Socialism accusations leveled against Jung Sir Laurens van der Post provides a sharp echo in his Epilogue written especially for this edition Chapters Parapsychology C G Jung and National Socialism From Jung s Last Years The Creative Phases in Jung s Life Alchemy Epilogue L van der Post

Spiritual Boredom Dr. Erica Brown,2012-05-17 Break the Surface of Spiritual Boredom to Find the Reservoir of Meaning Within We need to be bored When we get bored and take responsibility for our boredom we arrive at a new level of interest introspection or action that has been stirred by the very creativity used to keep boredom away The relationship between boredom and creativity is far from accidental Creative minds are often stimulated by boredom regarding it as a brain rest until the next great idea looms on the horizon of the otherwise unoccupied mind from Chapter 10 Boredom is a crisis of our age In religious terms boredom is sapping spirituality of its mystical and wholesome benefits slowly corroding our ability to recognize blessing and beauty in our lives to experience wonder and awe What happens when our need for constant newness minimizes our interest in prayer learning and the mysteries of nature This intriguing look at spiritual boredom helps you understand just what this condition is particularly as it relates to Judaism and what the absence of inspiration means to the present and future of the Jewish tradition Drawing insights from psychology philosophy and theology as well as ancient Jewish texts Dr Erica Brown explores the many ways boredom manifests itself within Judaism in the community classroom and synagogue and shows its potentially powerful cultural impact on a faith structure that advises sanctifying time not merely passing it

Spiritual Sensations Sarah K. Balstrup,2020-09-17 The secular pluralist culture of the West encourages a subjective approach to spiritual truth where stimulating emotional experiences such as those provided by film can contribute to personal conceptions of the sacred Examining Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey 1968 as the principal case study and Gaspar Noé's Enter the Void 2009 and Lars von Trier's Melancholia 2011 as comparative examples Sarah Balstrup argues that these directors harness the affective properties of film to generate altered states of perception in a manner analogous to religious practice Powerful feelings of dissociation and indescribable significance typical of mystical testimony appear in viewer responses to these films demonstrating the continued sacralisation of such states of mind In their own way each film confronts the viewer with an apocalyptic revelation of the impersonal forces of the universe moving away from personhood and the human narrative into pure sensation They present a non-deterministic spiritual truth that can be intuited but not explained mirroring developments in the religious sphere Investigating the relationship between cinematic technique and religious experience Spiritual Sensations offers an alternative approach to the study of religion and film that has been principally focused on narrative symbolism and the dramatisation of values Spiritual Sensations makes a further contribution to the field by analysing films contextually considering viewers' subjective responses in light of religious and cultural change

Jungian Reflections on September 11 Luigi Zoja, Donald Williams, Seldom has an event in the world had such a pervasive and all-encompassing effect as the brutal terrorist attacks on New York and Washington in September 2001 Has our world become a different place as a result If so in what ways Along with the tragic aspects what might this global nightmare have to give us the human inhabitants of this world What is there for us to acknowledge and what old and new wounds have been opened Beyond the obvious scars what sort of a legacy has it left behind These big questions and many more face us now in the aftermath In this book the highly complex incident of 9/11 is circled and examined from many angles by a variety of writers who all share a training in depth psychology What might a psychotherapist or depth psychologist perceive in this eruption of shocking contents Contents September 11 Transatlantic Reflections by Luigi Zoja Islamic Terrorism by Wolfgang Giegerich The Motivation of Terrorists by Adolf Guggenbühl Craig The Terror and The Temple by Victor Pierre Stirnimann September 11 The Need for a Safe Place by Verena Kast From Wahhabism to Talibanism by Hechmi Dhaoui Ground Zero A Reading by James Hillman Religion's Role in the Psychology of Terrorism by Ann Belford Ulanov Stories About Stories by Donald Williams With a Preface by Robert Hinshaw

Requiem For Modern Politics William Ophuls, 2019-05-20 This long promised sequel to Ophuls's influential and controversial classic Ecology and the Politics of Scarcity is an equally provocative critique of the liberal philosophy of government Ophuls contends that the modern political paradigm that is the body of political concepts and beliefs bequeathed to us by the Enlightenment is no longer intellectually tenable or practically viable Our attempt to live individualistically hedonistically and rationally has failed utterly causing a comprehensive crisis that is at once political military economic ecological ethical psychological and spiritual Liberal politics has abandoned virtue rejected community and flouted nature thereby becoming the author of its own demise By exposing the intrinsically contradictory and self destructive character of Hobbesian political systems Ophuls subverts our conventional wisdom at every turn Indeed his impassioned text reads more like a Greek tragedy than a conventional political argument He critiques feminism multiculturalism the welfare state and a host of other liberal shibboleths but Ophuls is not yet another neoconservative The aim of his thesis is far more radical and progressive offering a political vision that entirely transcends the categories of liberal thought His is a Thoreauvian vision of a politics of consciousness rooted in ecology as the moral and intellectual basis for governance in the twenty first century Ophuls holds that a polity based on a renewed erotic connection with nature offers a genuine solution to this crisis of contemporary civilization and that only within such a polity will it be possible to fulfill the worthy liberal goal of individual self development Ophuls's work will interest and challenge a wide spectrum of readers though it will not necessarily be well liked or easily accepted No one will put down this book with his or her settled convictions about American culture intact nor will readers ever again take modern civilization and its survival for granted
