Save Our History Dear Home Letters From World War II:

Letters from World War II Lorretta Cutler Thompson, 2020-07-14 The contents of this fabulous read are the letters written between mother and son during world war II we are privileged to see the love between mother and son during a time that held fear not only for Cuppy and Jimmy but for the whole world When is Daddy Coming Home? Richard Carlton Haney, 2005 World War II was coming to a close in Europe and Richard Haney was only four years old when the telegram arrived at his family's home in Janesville Wisconsin That moment when Haney learned of his father's death in the final months of fighting changed his and his mother's lives forever In this emotionally powerful book Haney now a professional historian explores the impact of war on an American family Unlike many of America's 183 000 World War II orphans Richard Haney has vivid memories of his father He skillfully weaves together those memories with his parents wartime letters and his mother's recollections to create a unique blend of history and memoir Through his father's letters he reveals the war's effect on a man who fought in the Battle of the Bulge with the 17th Airborne but wanted nothing more than to return home a man who expressed the feelings of thousands when he wrote to his wife I've seen and been through a lot but want to forget it all as soon as I can Haney illuminates life on the home front in small town America as well describing how profoundly the war changed such communities At the same time his memories of an idyllic family life make clear what soldiers like Clyde Haney felt they were defending With When Is Daddy Coming Home Richard Haney makes an exceptional contribution to the literature on the Greatest Generation one that is both devastatingly personal and representative of what families all over America endured during that testing time No one who reads this powerful story will come away unmoved World War II Dispatches to Akron: An Airman's Letters Home Christopher M. LaHurd, 2017-01-30 On his twenty sixth horrifying mission over the hostile skies of Nazi Europe a charismatic bombardier seated at the nose of a B 17 strapped on his parachute as his disintegrating bomber dropped uncontrollably to the ground What got him to this point the ensuing months behind barbed wire and his daily letters written to his family in Akron Ohio makes for an emotionally intense memoir This is the true account of a single unknown individual who stands in for the unsung warriors of the greatest generation during World War II
