Vigils Bernard Seif,2002-01-30 Openness to letting life unfold and in a sense dancing with it usually resolves most mysteries sooner or later It is the later part that is often the real challenge in life and Monastic life is no exception The schedule of a monastery revolves around the communal prayer marking the various phases of the day and night These liturgical celebrations known as the Liturgy of the Hours anchor the monastic with a certain spiritual stability as he or she lives the mystery Death has no such predictable timetable By popular request Chantal David Abbot Francis and other characters from Office of the Dead are back Their personalities and adventures are presented in a deeper and richer context through Vigils from the Office of the Dead Monasticism and medicine find entirely new ways to synthesize and present themselves through the ecumenical and ethnic medium of Vigils from the Office of the Dead Woodhill Road Joel

Mader,2012-11-08 The Woodhill Road neighborhood of Cleveland Ohio was for over half a century the home of common people going about their common lives Home to a group of people with Slavic ancestry this community served as home for those who came from a country that never had an identity of its own They longed to be a part of a nation that they could call their own and so they told their stories of America to their children around the supper table at church picnics and with one another in familiar places One such store is Mader Hardware on Woodhill Road a popular place for men old and young to spend hours at a time More than a place to shop Mader is a place for stories Men settle in and get comfy Tall tales start slow and vague with openings like You wont believe what happened to me today The stories build on each other into a cacophony of culture and experience The stories of these men are an ode to Cleveland an ode to their motherland and an ode to the human experience as they share the little moments that truly mean something in the grand scheme of life Sweet
