Sexism And God Talk:

Sexism and God-talk Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2002 Using feminist theology as a tool to expose the male centred bias of classical theology Ruether articulates a faith which incorporates both genders in their totality and which embraces a full humanity Whereas the traditional paradigm begets domination and subordination Ruether's feminism seeks a mutuality which allows for variety and particularly in women and men Examining ways in which the female has been uncomfortably accommodated within the Christian tradition in ecclesiology and Mariology the author looks at ways of rehabilitating these images and engages creatively in the areas of the doctrine of creation Christology ministry and eschatology At the heart of this work is the argument that the dominant Christian tradition if it is challenged and corrected by feminism offers viable and credible categories for interpreting human existence and building redemptive communities Sexism and God-talk
